CLASSES

Ballet:

Demi-Pointe Classical: Present a dance based on any method of classical ballet technique; e.g., Cecchetti, RAD, Vaganova. You must wear soft shoes. You may use one hand-held prop if it is integral to the dance.

Pointe Classical: Present a dance based on any method of classical ballet technique. You must wear pointe shoes. You may use one hand-held prop if it is integral to the dance.

Demi-Character: Present a dance that portrays a story, idea, and/or impression while performing ballet technique from the waist down and character from the waist up. You may use one hand-held prop if it is integral to the dance.

Character: Present a dance that portrays a specific character, real or fictional, for the entire duration of the dance using ballet technique and stylized movement. You must incorporate the whole body but not tell a story. You may use one hand-held prop if it is integral to the dance.

Interpretive: Present a dance that uses ballet technique incorporating the body as a medium of expression and interpretation of the music in order to portray an intangible thought or mood, real or imaginary. This class should express an idea but not tell a story. You cannot use a prop in this class. You must wear ballet shoes (pointe or soft) for this class.

Contemporary Ballet: Present a dance that incorporates classical ballet techniques with a greater range of movements which may not adhere to strict body lines for classical ballet. This style includes non-traditional movements, such as more relaxed steps, floor work and turned in legs, etc., to portray the concept of being more innovative, free and earth bound. The physical interpretation of the theme that the choreographer envisioned allows for more expressive emotions and feelings.

Modern & Contemporary:

Modern: Present a dance that is a stylized with its foundations on a technically based discipline such as Graham, Limon, Cunningham, Humphrey and Horton etc. Modern Dance rejects the limitations of classical ballet and is formulated from natural rhythms, and favours movement derived from contraction and release, breath, suspension, fall and recovery, weightiness, and dynamism. Movement may or may not be related to the music.

Interpretive Modern: Present a dance that uses a recognized/codified modern technique to tell a story, express a feeling, interpret a character, behaviour, or emotional state. Movement should be related to the intent of the music.

Contemporary: Present a dance encompassing various dance disciplines with modern technique as its underlying base, such as the choreography of William Forsythe, Wayne McGregor, Akram Khan, Ohad Narin (Gaga), Hofesh Shechter (Release Technique), etc. - a constantly evolving style of movement that gives physicality to human ideologies and concepts with emphasis on engaging the whole body.

Interpretive Contemporary: Present a dance that uses contemporary movement vocabulary from stylized to pedestrian (with modern technique as its basis) to tell a story, express a feeling, interpret a character, behaviour, or emotional state; e.g. Pina Bausch (Tanztheater Wuppertal). Movement should be related to the intent of the music while the choreography must engage the whole body.

Jazz & Lyrical:

Jazz: Present a dance with technique based on the isolation of the body and/or on contraction release.

Lyrical: Present a dance that is generally performed to slower tempos and interprets the intent of the piece of music. You must use soft jazz technique and style along with facial and body emotion to portray an idea, story, mood, or feeling.

Stage:

Tap: Present a tap dance where arms are complementary and coordinated to the footwork. The rhythm of percussion is articulated through the feet and entire body. The emphasis is on the clarity and shading of sounds (both regular and syncopated rhythm). You are not allowed to dub your tap sounds with your accompaniment.

Variety: Present a dance suitable for a stage or musical production, cabaret, a review, etc. Your contents must be predominately dance: your choreography should have a character base without straight line work and your dance must be composed of a diversified vocabulary of steps and may use any dance genre. You may lip-sync to the lyrics, but you may not sing live.

Musical Theatre: Present a dance routine that is suited to a stage production. Equal effort should be spent in dancing, live singing, and acting. You must sing live in this class. Solo song and dance routines may be up to four minutes long.

Hip-hop & Street Dance: Present a dance that incorporates the elements of hip-hop and street dance. Your dance may include moves such as gliding, popping, locking, waving, and use house, old school and new school techniques. You may also use gymnastics/power moves or any series of tricks or stunts as long as the music, costumes, and lyrics are age appropriate. (Note: this class can only be entered as a second class after participating in one of the traditional classes listed above.)

Acrobatic Arts: Present a dance that combines classical dance techniques with at least four acrobatic movements; however, acrobatic movements should not exceed greater than 50 percent of the routine. Choreography should be a seamless blend of dance and acrobatic movements. (Note: this class does not qualify for Provincials, as there is currently NO ACRO class at Provincials.)
