

Ananda - in ancient Sanskrit text means Supreme Bliss, unending joy. Our blend of amber with frankincense is our lightest aroma. Enjoyed by men and women alike.

Maharaja - means Great King in the ancient Sanskrit. Our blend of amber, patchouli and myrrh has a majestic, royale aroma. Not overpowering like straight patchouli from the 1960's. It is an inquisitively pleasant aroma.

Amrit - means Divine Nectar in Sanskrit. Sweet and mysterious, this blend has amber, frankincense and majmua. Majmua is a proprietary blend with sandalwood.

Anita Rose - a blend of amber, rose with bergamot, frankincense and myrrh. Named after my beloved mother, who loved sharing my products with others.

A unique combination of two of the world's most ancient and precious Essential Oils.
