Biography

Archie Talaski, age 93 of Rapson, passed away Thursday December 17th, at his home with family by his side. Archie was born June 4, 1927 to William Talaski and Cecilia (Andreskii) Talaski in Rapson. After returning from serving the Army, he married Phyllis Goniwicha on September the 17th 1949. He started farming, and became a carpenter for road construction. He was proud of his bridge building ability, and the gold watch he received for retiring with 50 years with the Carpenters Union. He took pride in the potatoes he grew and was well known for.

Archie enjoyed hunting and fishing with his family, and spending time with his great grandchildren. Archie was a member of the American Legion Post 499, and a member of St. Herbert-St. Joseph Catholic Church.
