Biography

Edward P. "Squeak" Wiederhold, 79, of Elkton, passed away Saturday, March 9, 2024 at his home under hospice care. Ed was born November 4, 1944 at home in Oliver Twp to the late Philip and Annabelle (Grigg) Wiederhold. He married Mary June Wolschleger on August 1, 1975 in Bad Axe. Ed was a jack of all trades and could fix anything. He owned Wiederhold Repair Service with his brother Doug doing diesel repair, engine and body work. For many years he bought and drove buses to transport children and adults to church on Sunday mornings. He enjoyed playing guitar in a worship band, driving his Harley-Davidson, fishing, going to garage sales with his best friend Randy, collecting antique clocks, racing cars, and spoiling his grandchildren.
