Puns for Educated Minds

A rubber-band pistol was confiscated from an algebra class, because it was a weapon of math disruption.

Greg was never happy with the conversion to the 700R4 we had done on Amby. It never shifted properly into passing gear and would not kick down to a lower gear. Noah was able to make adjustments, replaced the rear seal and installed a shift kit in the valve body. This work solved the problems that several other shops could not.
