

Thanks for joining me for an Easter Mini-Singalong with Trudi

In this program we'll be sharing simple-unedited-living room-versions of three of my favorites songs for Easter: In the Garden, How Great Thou Art, and Ave Maria.

(I pre-recorded all harmony and accompaniment tracks.)

IN THE GARDEN

1912 C. Austin Miles

I come to the garden alone, While the dew is still on the roses,
And the voice I hear falling on my ear, the Son of God discloses.

CHORUS:

And He walks with me, and He talks with me,
And He tells me I am His own;
And the joy we share as we tarry there,
None other has ever known.

He speaks, and the sound of His voice
Is so sweet the birds hush their singing,
And the melody that He gave to me,
Within my heart is ringing. (CHORUS)

HOW GREAT THOU ART

Christian hymn based on a Swedish traditional melody and a poem written by Carl Boberg, circa 1815.

Oh Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder,
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made.
I see the stars; I hear the rolling thunder;
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

CHORUS: Then sings my soul, My Savior, God, to Thee.
How great thou art; How great thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Savior, God, to Thee.
How great Thou art; How great Thou art.

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze. . . (CHORUS)

AVE MARIA

Music: Franz Schubert, 1885, as Ellen's dritter Gesang, part his Opus 52, setting of seven songs from Lady of the Lake. Text, traditional Roman Catholic prayer.

Ave Maria, gratia plena.
Maria, gratia plena. Maria, gratia plena.
Ave, ave dominus. Dominus tecum.
Benedicta tu in mulieribus,
Et benedictus, Et benedictus fructus ventris,
Ventris tuae, Jesus.
Ave Maria.
