

Godliness: Nothing Easy About it

There is no such thing as godliness made easy. Prophets, Kings, Apostles and brethren were not generally given the option to find avenues to incorporate into their lifetime spiritual study and time of reflection more easily. They were, however, told to “redeem the time, because the days are evil” (Eph. 5:16). What was it the apostle Paul said? “work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who worketh in you both to will and to work for his good pleasure” (Phil. 2:12-13).

There is no greater pursuit, thus, “seeing that his divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that called us by his own glory and virtue; whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises; that through these ye may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust” (2 Pet.1:3-4). ret
