

KATHRYN STROZESKI

1911 - 1990

Kathryn Strozeski, age 78 of Pontiac, formerly of Port Austin, passed away Monday, Jan. 1 in the Livingston Care Center, Howell.

She was born Aug. 24, 1911 in Port Austin, daughter of the late Joe and Ida (Goreski) Kula. She married Alexander Strozeski in Port Austin on Nov. 23, 1929. He preceded her in death on May 23, 1962.

Mrs. Strozeski moved from Port Austin to Pontiac in 1949. She was a nurses' aide at Beverly Manon Nursing Home, Pontiac and was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church, Pontiac, and the church's altar society.

Surviving are three sons, Gerald Strozeski, Caseville, Leonard Strozeski, Caro and Ernest Strozeski, Pontiac; two daughters, Loretta Robertson, Lake Orion and Diane Alexander, Waterford; 25 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Al Kula and Ray Kula and two sisters, Agnes Schipneski and Eleanor Kominski.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, Jan. 4 at St. Michael's Catholic Church. The Rev. Philip Briffie, pastor, officiated with burial in the Mount Hope Catholic Cemetery, Pontiac.

Funeral arrangements were conducted by the Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home, Pontiac.