November 2013 President's Message

Well November is here. Another fishing season is closing. The November meeting marks the end of the year for submissions for Angler of the Year and all prizes for the Awards Banquet. Please bring your pictures to the November meeting.

Also, please send in your membership forms and Banquet requests. This will help the club plan banquet size. Early membership renewal will insure you are entered into the drawing for a fishing license for 2014.

October nominations were made and the November meeting will be the elections and we will finalize the changes to the bylaws which were proposed at last month's meeting.

There are a few events in November and any fish caught will be for the 2014 awards season. I look forward to working with all members to make this the best club we can. I wish to increase membership and participation of all members. I hope you can take time to give of yourself and volunteer with others in the community to better the lives of those less fortunate be it in fishing or any other worthwhile endeavor.

I hope in the next year to see more participation in the freshwater events and the filling of charters so we can expand our fishing programs. We are a fishing club and I really want everyone to get out and fish.

Your President

Whoever is interested in doing the November fresh water outing, show up to the meeting. We will decide on when and where we will go. All the local lakes are doing well these days, plus the local surf fishing is pretty good too. Let's make the last outing of the year a success by getting a big turnout.

SECRETARIES REPORT

RAFFLE NEWS

Well I haven't heard any suggestions for the December Raffle coming from the membership. I'll have to get out one of William's Wish Books and see what I want to put on my list. William has been very good to me this year so it won't be a very long list. I haven't even broken in one of the 2 speeds he got me.

For the October Raffle I must have been occupied watching William's tickets for him. I pretty much forgot to write down who won what. And he didn't win anything either.

The Highlights:

- Graphtec Rod- New member Raquel De Lapeda
- Okuma SW Reel- Randy Mindaro

Well Randy being the nice guy that he is, thought Raquel needed a reel to go with her new rod so he gifted his new Okuma Reel to Raquel. Keep that up Randy, that is some serious good sportsmanship!

freshwater events. There is always a lot going on at the Turner's Rod and Reel Club. Come early and have dinner or a dessert before the meeting. See you there!

2013 Membership Drive

The 2013 Membership Drive is on!!!! Pierre will have pre-printed forms Just bring your check or cash and validate your personal information on the pre-printed forms. The data on the pre-printed forms comes from the club database. This is the best time to verify and update your information. (Please make every effort to use the pre-printed forms rather than fill out a blank form. I have had instances when people supplied "new" or "revised" information (or I couldn't read their writing), only to have to change the information back at a later date! Thanks for your consideration and cooperation.)

The dues for 2013 are the same as last year: $45 for an individual and $60 for a family membership. That entitles you to one T-shirt for individuals and 2 T-Shirts for family members.

Membership Card Reminder

All members are reminded that your club membership entitles you to a 10% discount on NON-SALE fishing tackle items at Turner's Outdoorsman stores. This discount is not available for guns or ammo. You are also reminded that after January 1 2012, your 2011 membership card is void. In order to receive the discount, a current 2012 membership card will be required. All store managers are aware of this and there are NO EXCEPTIONS.

Crowley Lake Update By Mike Mauizio

Rich Jenkins does his Silver Lake middle of the summer High Sierra trip, I yours truly Mike M.

Did my annual Lake Crowley trout slaughter? It started out bad when we launched our boat and the motor's water pump wasn't working. We made an executive decision to rent a boat for the next two days, an extra $200.00 we didn't expect. We did our slow troll drag stripping fly method catch- ing trout right off the get go! The lake was low like last year but that didn't hinder us one bit. The trout were smaller in size this time, but we managed some 2&3 pounders. The weather was good and the wind never got to whitecap conditions. That's about it, I almost forgot, the final fish count----- 46 trout in two days for the two of us. I guess we ( Rich P. and myself) did ok.

Mike Maurizio over and out!

Watch this video. Amazing! <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ky8KbhtRquE> This is what surf fishing is all about.

Turn the sound off if the language is more than you can handle, pure excitement.

No Salmon?
By William and Denise Davis

William & I headed north September 13 for our annual trip to Emeryville for salmon fishing. This was 2 weeks earlier in the season than when we went last year. I had warned him that the salmon numbers had dropped a lot this past month according to the fishing reports. Reservations for this trip had been made back in March so we never know exactly what we're going for on this trip. William gears up for everything so we don't travel light. We always check in with the Landing when we arrive, Emeryville Sport fishing, right after we check in to the Hilton on the corner. Convenience. The landing sold him some salmon set ups but I was surprised he got them. We grabbed our lunch for the next day from Subway & settled in at the hotel. The plan was to get to the boat at 5 a.m. to get our spots at the rail.

Day 1 we were on the New Huck Finn. The skies were clear which meant a lot of wind. They told us to gear up for rockfish and I was hoping we didn't have to do the 2 hr. ride to the Farallons. Captain Jay headed up the coast instead, a 2 hr. ride anyway. We were instructed to send the shrimp flies down w/o bait so we did. While we got some results, it was slow fishing and he moved a lot. By noon we still didn't have limits so we were told to use bait at that point. He proceeded to move back over the spots we had already fished & the results were poor. The only people near us doing any good were 2 locals on rental gear who just kept hauling the fish up. They also kept getting stuck on the bottom. William & I quit fishing the last 2 stops as they just weren't bringing anything up. One ling was brought up, of course by one of the locals on the rental gear.

On the way in we heard that the other boat we go out on, the New Salmon Queen had to turn back due to the conditions on the ocean. That trip had left at 2a.m. for a 60 mile trip to the albacore. I read on Facebook that the Captain's plan was to talk Dan Hernandez into going for albacore the next day.

When we boarded the New Salmon Queen Sunday morning the deck hand told us we were going for albacore. We told him we would wait & see as Dan had already told us he wasn't doing that. After some discussion Dan took a vote & it was decided this would be a rockfish/ling trip. Some guys hadn't brought gear for albacore and some just didn't feel up to it. We headed out to the Farallons as the ocean had lain down quite a bit since the day before. As we passed the Farallons I assumed Captain Shim was taking us to his super ling spot. We stopped to fish & as he was maneuvering the boat he suddenly took off, not telling us anything. About a half hour later we were told to dump the rockfish setups and get ready for Albacore. So we were taken hostage on the Captain's boat in order to fish for albacore that day. In the middle of all this one gentleman snags himself in the palm of his hand with a hook & it was decided he couldn't fish. An EMT on board wrapped it up and told him to sit this one out.

We moved on again until the captain started hollering about the fish boiling around the boat. I decided to sit this one out awhile until I knew what exactly I was going to be doing. Within a minute or 2 we had albies on the deck all around. William had a quick hook up and landed his easily. His new rod was great. As things slowed down we were told to stop fishing if we had gotten 1 and let the others get 1 fish apiece. The guys were complaining about the bait but the fish didn't. With my husband at my side coaching and keeping my gear on the boat I was able to land my first albie. They ranged from 25 to 30 lbs. We took 25 with 22 fishing.

Jerry with the hook in his hand was one of those who didn't want to fish the albacore. I had noticed he was the first on the deck when we stopped. After most of us had landed our fish he was still on the deck, a guy on each side of him while he hooked and landed his albie.

We headed back to the Farallons for the rockfish and got limits easily, no bait required. A couple of more lings boarded also. Once again Jerry was on deck fishing, hook still in his hand. It took him until 10PM that night to get that hook out at an Urgent Care, but I think he went to dinner first anyway. There were 9 of us from southern California on the boat, and he was one of us. Once again we enjoyed our Northern California fishing trip even without the salmon this time.
