He was born September 8, 1934 in Detroit the son of the late Larry and Evelyn Hessel. Bill graduated from Catholic Central High School and went on to proudly serve in the U.S. Army. Upon returning, he continued his education at Michigan State University, studying engineering, art, and law.

On February 27, 1960, Bill married the former, Margaret Prindle at the Assumption Grotto Church in Detroit. Their marriage was blessed with over sixty-five years and countless memories. Bill was a member of the American Legion, The Eagles, the Knights of Columbus, and a dedicated parishioner of St. Roch Catholic Church. He worked as a foreman at General Motors, retiring as a supervisor after thirty years. Bill loved to play cards, especially Euchre, enjoyed trips to the casino, playing the horses at Hazel Park, and had all the luck when it came to scratch-offs. His warm, loving, and giving nature will be missed dearly.
