To Whom It May Concern:

The Friends of Greystone Board of Directors annually search for qualified individuals to serve on our board, individuals that can bring new ideas and enthusiasm to the organization. The Friends of Greystone's primary mission as a non-profit organization is to restore, preserve and to raise the public's awareness of the Doheny Greystone Estate located in Beverly Hills and listed on the National Registry of Historic Places.

ACTIVE BOARD MEMBERS

ADRIENNE FORST
SUZANNE FURST
CHRISTINA HUNG
JAMES JAHANT
ANDREW KADAR, MD
KATHY MELAMED
ARLINE PEPP
ARNOLD SEIDEL, Chair Emeritus
VIVIAN SEIGEL
LES TRAUB
SANDY ZWIRN

The initial term serving on the board is two years, Beverly Hills residency is not required and attendance at the monthly board meetings held on the third Wednesday of every month, from 6:00pm – 8:00pm, is mandatory. Additional participation as a board member requires chairing a committee as well as assisting on other committees, volunteering at events, and contributing your expertise in order that the Doheny Greystone Estate continues to thrive as one of Beverly Hills most valuable cultural and historic assets. Board members also engage in efforts to raise funds to restore elements of the Estate.
