

LINDA WILLIAMS, MA

MA in Education
Supervisor of Communication
Supervisor of Curriculum & Instruction
Mediator
DiSC® facilitator

Linda began her career as an English teacher in a large urban school district. For 30+ years Linda successfully taught teachers how to be more effective in transferring learning to their students.

Linda now leads communication workshops for businesses and small groups. Linda Founded relationSHAPE™ and is President of Linda Williams Consulting, LLC. She is also the Communications Director for the Sarasota, Florida, Living in Community Network. She is a facilitator, mentor and consultant to organizations and individuals nationwide.

All of Linda's work focuses on knowledge and information that is quickly transferred to make an immediate difference in the quality of relationships at work and at home. She models and teaches effective interactions as the foundation for success in team building, sales, classroom interactions and improved understanding in our personal relationships.