

An Old Pioneer Passes Away 1900

John Heasty, passed away at the home of his son, William, in this village at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, after an illness of about two weeks.

The deceased was born near New Market, Ont., seventy years ago. In 1873 he came to this county and located at Caseville, where he lived until about fifteen years ago, when he moved to this township and has resided here ever since.

He leaves three sons, William, John and George, one daughter, Mrs. Jacob Giger, to mourn his loss.

"Dad" Heasty as he was known was beloved by every one who knew him, and his acquaintance was large. He leaves many friends to regret his departure from this world.

The funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church in this village, Tuesday, Rev. Curry officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Caseville cemetery.
