

999 LINDEN C. HODAPP

Linden C. Hodapp, 86, Elkton, died Wednesday at Hills and Dales General Hospital, Cass City, following a long illness.

He was born Feb. 24, 1893, in Seymour, Ind., son of Martin and Molly Hodapp.

Mr. Hodapp and Esther Ziegler were married Oct. 4, 1947, in Indiana.

He retired as an accountant.

Mr. Hodapp was a U.S. Army veteran of World War I and a member of the Disabled American Veterans Association and the Elkton Senior Citizens.

Surviving are his wife; one son, Bishop Leroy Hodapp, Springfield, Ill.; and one sister, Louise Hodapp, Indianapolis, Inc.

Services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at the Champagne

Funeral Chapel, Elkton. The Rev. Joel Hurley, pastor of the Elkton United Methodist Church, will officiate, with burial in the Riverside Cemetery, Elkton.