

SAVE ME NOW

By John Lipinski

Where is my hope, Where is my faith
Where is my joy, to answer His call
How will I cope, what is my purpose
Where is the love, greatest gift of all

How can I deal, with all my pain and sorrow
I vanquished my spirit, daily now it hurts
Cleanse me of my sins, and maybe tomorrow
The Lord will call me home, in spite of all this dirt

Save me now, my Father, forgive me, as I pray
Save me now, dear Spirit, can't wait another day
Save me now, my Jesus, forgive me, now, I pray
Provide me with the feeling, for love will find a way

No one lives forever, no one is innocent
No one is pure and holy, not upon this earth
The Father is forever, the Son was heaven sent
With Spirit, pure and holy, I understand my worth...so

Save me now, my Father, forgive me, as I pray
Save me, Holy Spirit, don't wait another day
Save me now, my Jesus, forgive me, now, I pray
For I am still a sinner, sometimes I lose my way
Provide me with unending Grace, and love will find a way
