Shekhar Rahate

For more than 15 years, Shekhar Rahate has thrilled Red Carpet fans from Hollywood to the Cannes Film Festival with a line-up of fashion brilliance everyone loves. Innovative style has earned him world wide recognition, and his talents extend to organizing, managing, directing and choreographing fashion shows and beauty pageants. From the first-ever modeling/grooming workshop in Dubai, to fashion galas in Switzerland, Paris, South Africa, Germany, U.S. and others, his flair for glamour makes headlines at such prestigious beauty favorites as Miss World, Miss India, Miss World Peace, America's Next Top Model and more. Rahate was appointed Director for Middle East region for Global Indian Congress based in California. The organization creates the means by where people of Indian origin world wide can celebrate their history while creating a positive future for all Indians socially, economically and politically. Shekhar studied fashion photography in India and got his big break into the world of design when one day at a fashion shoot a designer asked him to model (Shekhar is 6' tall). He learned how to walk and soon began a modeling career. But destined to create from behind the curtain, a choreographer soon after asked him to help choreograph a show—and a haute couture designer was born. His first show took place in Dubai and from the moment his designs hit the runway, the reaction to his elegant style and cutting edge eye for detail was immediate. People loved what they saw. Fashion school followed and now his line is forever a success. Fashion has taken Shekhar around the world and to the most exotic fashion events produced. Producer, credits include: Miss World in Dubai and the Miss India Universe pageant. He was also invited by the United Nations to present his fashions in the General Assembly Hall, in New York on the same platform where Global leaders gave speeches. Last year he participated in Roger Neal's Oscar Awards styling suite and styled celebrities including Katie Price, British Super Model; Marian Brock, God Of Love; actress Chase Masterson and others gave major Red Carpet exposure to his designs. Shekhar was a favorite at last year's Cannes Film Festival with a record breaking 20 gowns on the Red Carpet and seven gowns at the Emmys
