

TRAVELING TO THE UNITED STATES FROM A FOREIGN COUNTRY BY AIR

US citizen, US national, lawful permanent resident, immigrant (purpose of trip is to immigrate to the US)

You will need1:

 A negative viral test no more than 1 day before traveling by air into the US.*

You must complete and sign an attestation (Section 1).

- Acceptable proof of vaccination.
- A negative viral test no more than 1 day before boarding a flight to the US.*

You must complete and sign an attestation (Section 1 & 2).

Do you meet the criteria for an exception?

No

Yes

No

Non-US citizen non-US immigrant an accepted COVID-19 vaccine?

Fully vaccinated with

You will need1:

- Documentation as applicable confirming eligibility for the exception.
- A negative viral test no more than 1 day before boarding a flight to the US.*

You must complete and sign an $\underline{attestation}$ (Section 1 & 2).

The attestation includes post-arrival requirements based on the type of exception.

TRAVEL ASSESSMENT: Answer a few questions for a customized response on what you need to board a flight to the United States.

*Or Documentation of Recovery from COVID-19 in past 90 days. Predeparture viral test requirement does not apply to children under 2 years of age.

¹All air passengers to the United States will also be required to provide contact information to airlines within 72 hours before boarding a flight to the United States.