What are B Classes?

Per Rulebook:

Clubs may choose to offer Lateral moves and/or move-ups for those teams who complete a title while at their Event. Wait listed competitors cannot be moved into a slot vacated by a move-up or lateral move. Move-ups/lateral moves can be from Trial to Trial, day to day, or no move-ups/lateral moves allowed. The move-up/lateral move policy must be published in the Premium. There are no move-ups/lateral moves needed for Crazy 8s or Instinct. Move downs are not allowed at an Event. (See Part12: Regular Classes on page 30 and Part 13: Non-Regular Classes and Titles on page 35 for more information.)

Part 12: Regular Classes and Titles

Section 1. Moving Up, Lateral Moves, Moving Down

1. Any dog completing a Novice, Open, Senior, or Master title may opt to either move up to the A class at the next level (for Novice through Senior) or move laterally into the B class at the level in which they just attained their title, and thus become eligible for Level X titles (see Part 14: Ribbons and Placements, page 37 for descriptions of available placements). Dogs also may move down and enter any B level class they are eligible to enter. As an example, a dog attaining a Senior title from Senior A (RATS) may choose to move up to Master A, laterally to Senior B, or down to either Novice B or Open B.
 - a) Once in Master B, the type of qualifying score is determined by time and by current title level. See Section 6. Master Barn Hunt (RATM, RATCH, RATCHX), page 34.
 - b) Dogs may enter only one class level per Event. If the Club allows move-ups, a dog finishing a title from the A class may move either laterally into the B class at the same level, or up to the A class at the next level.
 - c) Dogs cannot enter multiple classes in the same Trial (i.e., a dog cannot be entered in both Novice B and Open A at the same Trial). d) Dogs cannot be entered in a class they are not yet eligible to enter. e) Dogs cannot move down during an Event, but may move down at the next Event they enter

So Basically, your dog is now allowed to stay in the same level indefinitely, or move down to a lower level if your dog is more comfortable competing at a lower level because of age, etc. During a trial weekend, you can only stay at the same level (Lateral move) or move up, but at your next trial weekend, you can move down to a lower level.

B Awards will be given 1st through 4th with high in Class, but with no size category.
