Oh Clare, its funny How the Lord speaks to each one of us! People want to give me books and since the Lord got me out of the Laodicean Church, He has lead me to read the word and use the Strong's Concordance and a Webster's Dictionary! (No books)The Holy Spirit is my Teacher! When I listen to your channel, I get conformation after conformation on what He is showing me! I John but the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you and ye need not that any man teach you; but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. Anointing in Greek in the 5545 Strong's Concordance - Holy Spirit. I didn't read early in the morning like the Word tells us to, so now I just devour the Scriptures and love it. Not that teachers aren't good, but the Word says study to show yourself approved. My people perish from lack of knowledge. I think a lot of people in the Church take the Pastors word like it is the absolute truth, when we are supposed to read the Scriptures and see for ourselves. Reading the book of Revelation really woke me up, Jesus is Warning His Church to get back to their first Love! And He says in Revelation 3:5 that we could be blotted out of the book of life!!! Strong's Concordance 1813 blot- means smear out, obliterate, wipe away!!! Why would the Lord warn us of something that couldn't happen??? That scared me, and I needed that scare!!! When I read Gods Word I believe it All not just the parts I like, the warnings too!!! This Channel has blessed me sooo... much with conformation. Also helped me deal with my pride, judgmental spirit, and the list goes on. Don't get me wrong teachers are good, but Holy Spirit is our Best Teacher. Much love... I would have to say out of all the Channels on YouTube Clare your Channel the Heartdwellers have helped me the Most to Shine For Jesus !!! I was proud and didn't even know it, stubborn, not humble, critical... but I'm a different person since coming to this wonderful Channel!!! I love all of you heartdwellers sooo... much. :):):) Thank You Jesus for sending me to this Channel and Thank You Clare and Ezekiel for helping me !!!

I am a relatively new viewer to your site. I found it a couple of Months ago while searching YouTube. I just wanted you to know that your site has so dramatically opened my eyes to the real Jesus that it's like somebody pulled back the curtain on a stage. I am 60 years old and all of a sudden, Jesus used this site to turn the lights on and pull me out of the backslidden state that I have been in for most of my life. I guess I really don't know how to reach God, so after a while my spiritual heart just died inside of me. That was what I had to do to just keep functioning and not feel the pain anymore. I'm so grateful to you for your obedience. I do admire your courage and strength so very much. I know it all stems from HIS GRACE, of course, but you are such an inspiration. I do not expect any sort of response to this letter, as I know you are way too busy for that. I only wanted you to know how very much appreciated and loved you are. Be encouraged, God Bless you.

My Dear Sister Clare. I have been sent to this Channel by the Love Himself, and had I not watched the priestly Bride by Anna Rountree, prior to getting on your channel, I would have been doubtful to watch a second Video after I watch "Honeymoon with Jesus in Heaven." This is because I thought it was too good to be true!!! But since I have continued to watch your videos for about 2 years now, I see myself as His real Bride, and I do not usually expect to receive a message for myself, other than enjoy the way Jesus expresses His love to His Bride or Brides. However, of recent I have felt that every endearing word he gives to you was for me too. Many a times even His words of correction through you has caused me to repent for days. On Christmas day 2017, He gave me a beautiful present of Himself through you. There was no service in my Church that Christmas Monday, so I told the Lord "I am just going to be with You for a little while and I will continue with writing the book you asked me to write." I assumed that was alright and went on my computer to write. He allowed me to write for a little while, but then I felt a desire to hear something from www.heartdwellers.org and there He took me to the "Chronicles of the Bride." and I cannot explain it but as you described your experience I experienced Him ravishing me in His love in the same way. I came out of it somewhat dazed and fulfilled. I tried to tell a friend about it, who had asked me "How did you spend your Christmas?" I did not think my words could convey half of what I experienced but he said he would check the site. I thank you Sister Clare for obeying the Lord to do this work. As I hear our Beloved Jesus often says, "Clare, you are conveying my true character on this channel." For me, this is absolute truth, and I often think your humility is helping me a lot too. God bless you and Ezekiel and Carol and the others that support you. Through much tribulation we shall enter the Kingdom of God--by His grace of course. Love you.

“...and they preferred an early death rather than living to a ripe old age on earth filled with its pain and sorrow’s” I can certainly relate to this in a personal way. I remember back to when I was 18 years old and had entered college at Kansas University. I found myself one winter night standing on a bridge over a pond. I was contemplating and asking the question how long it would take before my body and mind would Succumb to the icy cold partly frozen water... A voice whispered to me...only a few minutes... but then another voice whispered to me “yeah... but ending a lifetime of pain... no matter how long it is... is worth eternity in Hell.” I turned away from that moment and those words stayed with me all my years. I am now older and have had quite a long journey of pain and sorrow that many throughout my life know nothing about. I always loved Jesus but could never seem to really find Him. I came to know Him in a special way through the evangelical World where I learned many things of a spiritual nature and experienced much through Women’s Aglow and 21 years of Leadership Training. I developed a Great relationship with Father God for many years but developed a more intimate and personal relationship with Jesus through this channel for almost 3 years now. And all the challenges for obedience and the joys this journey has brought to me. This part of my journey helped lift my soul to the beauty of such a PERSONAL LOVE from our Savior and lifted my soul for my inner person to come forth to be able to walk into the plans God has had for me all along. It is hard...so much physical pain...no meds... Jesus said...for more than a year now... but the joys of Love never known than that of the Savior and Our Father and the joys of the gifts he shows us we can do far outweigh all that. DON'T QUIT! DON'T GIVE UP...NO MATTER HOW LONG WE ARE IN IT...WE WIN...EVEN IF WE CRAWL ACROSS THE FINISH LINE...BUT JESUS AND HIS LOVE AND PROMISES SAY THAT IT WILL ALL BE WORTH IT!!

Today when I went to intercede for God's mercy, I began to plead for those who have been caught up with Satan and the dark side. These are also God's children, the disobedient, the prodigals. How much God hurts for these and the path they are on. Most of them don't even know they are running in a big trap, a huge lie..

I got a picture in my thoughts before me of people trying to reach God. Because of God's holiness they couldn't get too close to Him. As it is written, those who God loves He corrects, and scorches every son who He receives. On our own, we just can't reach Him. There is always something that either weights us down, or distracts us, or catches our interest.

I could see a magnificent light, representing God and a hand trying to get close to Him. As the hand stretched closer, I could see bruises and wounds starting to appear on the hand. This looked similar to the trials and sufferings that many of God's people are going through. But the hand was getting closer. I imagined how hard it is to come closer to God.

AT that point I pictured Christ. How His perfect and obedient life caused Him to BE close to God all the time. I could see Him standing in front of God, taking ALL the sins upon himself and in that moment just being crushed completely. He offered Himself up totally to God, to receive all the condemnation and accusations of our sins. He was totally demolished, out of pure compassion and love for souls. He did not keep anything back and gave Himself completely as an atonement for our sins.

In that moment, as Jesus was lying on the ground completely bathed in His own blood and flesh, I saw the Father stoop down and embrace His Son. Lifting up the lifeless body of His son as He put His forehead to that of Jesus and said: 'My Son, I will pardon their sins, that I Promise to You'.

Then I saw a soul who was heavily in the occult, and then the Father reached out to him.

(I could see His hand, which twice the size of my own and glowing with a powerful light). The man got startled and began to cast whatever spell and object and thing he could, but it couldn't reach God. It just disappeared as it came close to God. Of course none of those things can be near Him. It looked like this man was trapped in a corner (like a scared child in a corner not knowing what to do) as the hand of God reached closer. It was at this point that God's hand reached behind the man's back and drew him closer to God. Now this was amazing, God drew him closer. The man felt an unspeakable peace as God's hand touched his back. I could see that God was embracing this man the same way as He did with the body of Jesus. The same love was pouring out from God to this same man.

I knew that this soul was saved and had given his life to God right then and there. This is the power of intercession, I got this impression. As we intercede for people, we only have to offer up the life of Jesus, His obedience, His love for souls and His complete and perfect obedient life to God. For that is sufficient. We can believe that God can do what He promised: Mercy.

So please be encouraged in your prayers and supplications for the nations, the souls, the lost, the dying and hurting... God moves mightily for the sake of Jesus and your prayers in Him

Anonymous 3.20.18

Hi Clare, it's been nearly a year now that I have been listening to the messages Jesus has been relaying through you to all of us Heart Dwellers.

I just want you to know the messages have had a huge impact on my life ever since I started listening to them. I have seen the enemy attacking you online even today as I write this email. Poor lost souls that they are, we are to pity them and pray for their repentance and conversions for nothing is impossible with God's grace.

I have been truly inspired by the messages especially the ones about each and every one of us having a mission to fulfil in this life and that we can find out what that is by spending more quality time with Jesus through pray, meditation and contemplation on his holy word, his life, passion, death and resurrection. Using our God given talents to love and serve him instead of the world. I had a passion for music (worldly music) I grew up listening to bands mainly guitarists like Jimi Hendricks, Eric Clapton, Jimmy Page Led Zeppelin, Black Sabbath musicians and bands that I now know were into the occult in some way shape or form.

Disillusioned by these findings I gave music away and decided I didn't want to play the guitar anymore. Then I heard one of the messages and Jesus was talking about using our talents and gifts to serve him and that inspired me to pick up the guitar again. Now I had never written a song in my life before because I was always playing covers imitating other popular guitarists and bands.

Low and behold when I started writing music with the intention of trying to reach our younger generation the words and the melodies just came so naturally that I would surprise myself and say where did that come from, knowing all the time I was being inspired by the Holy Spirit. In the last 9 months I wrote, composed and arranged about 12 songs. Each song has a message from the teachings Jesus has been relaying to us through the Heart Dwellers website and I know he has often said to you that you don't realize the impact that these messages are having on people who are being led to this channel. I don't even remember how I ended up on the site.

Again, I put it down to the Holy Spirit, because I was honestly searching for answers and they were given to me through the Heart Dwellers website. Anyway, to cut a long story short I have now started up a YouTube channel so that I can get the songs online for whoever the Father Son and Holy Spirit will lead to the channel and maybe get something from these songs. I remember Jesus saying your never to old, you just have to be a willing vessel. Just give your life over to him totally and completely without reservation and holding nothing back and he will take care of the rest. And that's what I have done, and he is fulfilling his promise. O how loving and merciful is Jesus to us.....great sinners that we are.

You shall know them by their fruits says Our Lord Jesus Christ....the fruits of the Heart Dwellers site yourself Clare and Ezekiel have produced nothing but good fruit that is why the enemy is constantly attacking but as you know he cannot succeed, what God has anointed cannot be undone. It is the same reason he is constantly attacking Donald Trump. Much love and blessings to you Clare and Ezekiel and all the Heart Dwellers.

Danielle 3.20.18

Hello Carol. Thank you so much for replying to me it means a lot. I don't have any Christian friends and only one close friend, so I don't get caught up in worldly drama. I don't go to church, but I study on my own. Where I live it's hard to find someone who really walks with God, people have religious view and say this way is right I know the truth and others are wrong, it is not about love or Gods love though I don't want to judge anyone. I have been watching this channel now for a few years and never found something so right in my life, true intimacy with the Lord. I struggle daily I feel like a battle is going on in my head as I try and get closer to the Lord. I hope one day I can have a personal relationship with Jesus. I thank the Lord for calling me to this channel and anyone who works on this channel you are truly blessed with the good work of God. I guess whatever happens in the UK I will 100% trust in the Lord that He is in control.

It's just after the rapture I worry about what will become of the UK as I feel I might not be ready. Sorry for long message but thank you for reading. I think I need praying for. I will pray for you and all of America in times of trouble. Bless you all.

Repenting, Praying And interceding DAILY AND NIGHTLY for our nation! I am ASTOUNDED at the clarion call of the REAL AUTHENTIC LORD JESUS'S VOICE on this channel. The branches from this vine are spreading out into so many homes and hearts—I see flowers. And new life in shoots of fresh green sprouts coming from this vine!! The tenderness of His LOVE and SWEETNESS are irresistible here. Now I can EXPLAIN to my children and OTHERS what I have always experienced but with much greater authority- knowing all of this intimacy is TRUE. The old ways are sluffing off- the legalism, the shame, avoiding the Lord when I've sinned- it's been VAPORIZED by the TRUTH on this channel. He LONGS to forgive us He can't WAIT for us to come to Him when we've fallen!!! He has the LOVE of a most perfect "Mom" who can't wait to clean, bandage, heal, comfort and restore us. Oh, the LORD IS SO GOOD. Thank you, Lord Jesus, for EVERYTHING!

Brutis 3.20.18

I heard what one (well, more than one, but this one in particular) of these detractors had to say and disagreed with all of it. While I listened with furrowed brow, I took a drink of the water I pray over to be filled with divine light, love and abundance. It is always sweet and wonderful. That drink was bitter. I tasted again and again it was nasty. I wished to retort to this person but found comments disabled. I went to the channel and saw video after video denouncing prophet after prophet. Each had comments disabled. That is the fruit. I started to listen to this video and the water was sweet again.

Anonymous 3.20.18

How more than privileged I am to receive this message from you. It truly touched my heart and I would like to thank you for the sincere commitment to do the work of the Lord and reaching out to so many. Oh, it is such great honor to hear those beautiful messages every day. And the Rhema Word, oh, the Lord speaks to me daily. I receive such great encouragement daily and even after my difficult separation, I am still holding to the Lord and these messages, my goodness, they move mountains in my heart. There is no single day that passes without me going back to reflect on the messages in my everyday life. I reflect on them in the bible. So we are together in all commitments for a very long time. So, thank you sister Clare, brother Ezekiel and the whole Office team and all Heartdwellers for the Love and Support. My regards to everyone. There will be more payments with the commitment to increase because the channel is a Fountain I drink from daily. Kindful Regards

Denise 3.20.18

Thank you for your letter. I do not know if you answer all the letters you receive but I wanted to let you know how much your videos have helped me with my new relationship with Jesus. I was always a believer but did not have a close relationship with Him until last December. In a nutshell, He saved me from the New Age movement in a big way, then led me to your videos. I have been listening to His guidance every day since then. I am still a work in progress. Please know that you are making a huge difference in many lives, to include mine. Sincerely, Denise

Anonymous 3.20.18

Clare, thank you for the messages from the Lord. I was changed because of them. I used to live a life of confusion without God's love, because he seemed very far from my life many times, although I should have known he was always there. In fact, after high school, I lived a life of darkness. After a year, the Lord granted courage to help me go to college. Shortly afterwards, I was evangelized and began to seek God personally. I also found your videos on stillsmallvoice and began to seek God. Eventually, he led me to a prophet who spoke kindly and told me about my career path. After a few years, I discovered that the vision he told me about was that I was to be a School teacher teaching. God is so beautiful in heart, he truly is amazing. He helped me repent of my addictions and granted me a chance to make my life count. Your messages have helped led me to pray fervently for God and protect my friends and this nation. I have seen the mercy chaplet prayer and binding prayer helped my family and the church. Thank you, Clare, for your counseling and faithfulness to God, please pray to God that he may help me continue in humility and holiness. I ask for help, because I wish to see the Lord and speak with him. He truly is a wonderful God and husband.

Tracy, 03/07/18

I have been a Christian for 20 years. In the past 5 years, the Lord has steadily increased my faith to an intense hunger and longing for the Him like I have never experienced before. I am confident we are living in the end times, but unfortunately my church does not preach on this subject, so aside from my Bible reading, I resorted to searching the internet for Rapture related news. The Lord lead me to Heartdwellers in the spring 2017 via YouTube. After watching a few videos, I was hooked and couldn't get enough. The teaching was not only about prophecy, but also convicting in a gentle and loving way--deep, authoritative, and rich—like nothing I had heard before. It helped me better relate to the thousands that followed Jesus when He was here on earth--not just to be healed, but to hear His words, words of truth & wisdom. Satan tried many times to cause me to fear and doubt Heartdwellers as a false prophet that God warned us about in Mt. 24:24, 1 Jn.4:1-3, Prov.30:6, & Rev.22:18-19.

However, Holy Spirit told me (confirmation in my heart & mind) this IS JESUS--my search was over (Jn.10:4, 5, 27). I believe God spoke through prophets in Bible times to help His people & since He has promised never to leave or forsake us (Deut.31:6 & Heb.13:5), I know He still speaks through prophets today to help us (Heb.1:1-2, Joel 2:28-29, Acts 2:17-18). Along with daily prayer & Bible reading, I have been faithfully reading through the Heartdweller messages each day. In the many volumes I have read so far, I have not found one thing that contradicts the Holy Bible. In fact, the messages have brought greater spiritual truth and understanding to things in the Bible I did not fully understand. The messages have also changed the way I think and feel about things--bringing a more positive, loving, and hopeful outlook and approach to my daily life & spiritual walk with the Lord.

I know several of the Heartdweller predictions have come true and I know Deut.18:21-22 teaches us to believe prophets who confirm God's Word and predictions come true, so I stand confident that these messages reflect what is said in Isa.42:9, Mt.13:11, Eph.1:9-10, Rom.16:26, Col.1:25-26, Mark 4:11, and 1 Cor.2:10-15. I cannot THANK YOU enough Clare, Ezekiel, and all the Heartdweller staff for the work you do to share God's heart and truth with the world! GOD BLESS YOU & KEEP YOU & MAY HIS FACE SHINE UPON YOU~

Charity 11.20.17

Thank you Clare, Ezekiel and all the HeartDweller staff for what your doing! Still Small Voice has changed my life and made me know the real Jesus. God gave me this money so I could have the privilege of giving it to you! Thank you very much. Xxx From Charity. xoxo

Paul 11.15.17

Please use this gift for your ministry, for I could never give equal to the spiritual you & our Lord provide. Truly the depth your messages from our Lord Jesus is unparalleled. I shall forever be grateful to both you as a messenger, and our Lord Jesus uncovering the darkness within and in the World. Peace, peace, peace from our Lord Jesus and all God's children.

In Christ Jesus I stand, Paul.

The A-R 7 11.14.17

Clare you helped me with fasting, patience, knowing what to pray for and how to pray, as well as how to resist sin. No one in my life or youtube has helped me with that, just know that your work is unrivaled and very helping and effective to those who need it. Also thanks Heartdwellers, God bless you all.

Jane Heimbichner 11.8.17

It is true Clare. Your struggles parallel mine for sure. I love Sid Roth but I am always looking for YOUR next message, more than Sid's guests, and his ministry is also great, But I can't wait to hear what's going on between you and Jesus so I can apply it to my life too. Thank you for stepping up to your ministry. I am hopeful of finding a ministry too. Until then, at least I know that a hidden, prayerful life does have meaning. Thanks, in part, to you!

Servant of the Lord 11.8.17

GRACEFULLY BROKEN It has been three years since I first discovered the Heart Dwellers channel. I was so amazed with Clare, she is a very beautiful instrument of our Lord Jesus. I was so amazed that I became jealous not in a bad way but in a good way because I learned how to seek the Lord. Everyday I dwell in His Heart until one day... I will never forget that, HE FINALLY MET ME! I almost died with awe of HIS PURE GLORY OHH, SUCH A BEAUTIFUL EXPERIENCE. He taught me everything, we talked all day and I met Father God and I became TRULY MADLY DEEPLY IN LOVE with Him, more of Him and less of me. I became Him... It's hard to explain but I felt no anger, no jealousy, no hatred just pure love for everyone.

It's all so true everything that the Lord said here in this channel and in the Bible came to life... But it all change after watching that video about the Lord will have to delay the rapture it was July and I was all so ready to go home, you know how the world just takes away everything in one day from you the persecution was too much and He said that we will be granted three years... 3 years?! I wept and wept for days, months until it became years. He healed me but when I think of it, there's like a sting in my heart because all I can see was my pain and suffering :(It became more of me and less of Him.. I lost Him, everything of Him. The battle was so hard I walked away leaving Him behind because I was in so much pain but I know it was painful for Him as well because I left HIM :(After that my life had been so empty but I always see this speck of light in the darkness. There would be times that when I am so down and feel worthless I would see Him by my side comforting me and I would just cry, and He would cry with me as well.

That's how He was to me. I knew it was time to go back to my Husband, I tried to ignore it but the more I ignore it the louder it gets to me so I reconciled with Him, it was that point when I was gracefully broken and weak. But when I am weak He is strong. He taught me again, all over again and when I fall down He says "Come, let's do it again :)". Wonderful yet mysterious for a human could comprehend but YES He is... I am currently God's work in progress. Yup I am no less than you... With all the beauty and revelations the Lord had and continuously showing me I walked away from Him. Now He gave us more time and I can only be so much happy to accompany my Lord in His agony. What a beautiful love story of ours and it goes on till eternity. I hope you will not grow bitter of this. If you are the Lord will still be with you, my only advice for you is that be ready... Because He will show you more than you could possibly imagine. You are loved forever. Thank my LORD, MY HUSBAND AND MY FOREVER.

Christina Dimidenko 11.6.17

Thank you so much Clare for being a useful vessel. You have truly done so much work for the Lord, whether you believe it or not. Know your authority in Jesus and scare those demons away!!! I don't think I would've ever been able to have a real, personal relationship with the Lord if it wasn't for you, and I'm sure many others can say the same. Stay focused on your mission, whether you fail feel like you've failed or not. And know that He is always with you wherever you go, and don't allow ANYONE to stop you from doing what pleases Him. You will never be able to make Jesus displeased with you, EVER. He loves you and you are His. This also goes to every Heartdweller.

Maria Hillier 11.4.17

Dear sister Clare thank you for your message from our heavenly savior you are a wonderful gentle Lady I am eagerly waiting for more Music from you you are an inspiration to me especially at this time when I am under spiritual attack constantly and my fibromyalgia and Alzheimer's are making it difficult for me at the moment love to you and all Christian brothers and sisters on YouTube from Maria hillier in Birmingham in the UK

Son Of Jesus 11.4.17

Have I ever told you guys that GOD healed this man of a broken wrist when I listened to the healing videos of Mrs. Clare and experience it for myself? This man was healed of a broken wrist. It wasn't actually instantly but it was time I think in 20 minutes. This mans arm was getting better. He actually said it and he was actually kind of shocked. I never got to see the actual pictures of the x Ray and I never seen him again. Maybe because GOD wanted me to be humble? I don't know but he was healed of a broken wrist! My mother too was healed of cramps when I laid hands and prayed for God's healing. My younger sister tried the same teachings GOD taught us through Mrs. Clare's channel and I kid you not my headache was healed INSTANTLY!!

Elizabeth Ballew 11.4.17

Yeah Clare!!! You're HELPING MY ENTIRE FAMILY and. OTHERS around me!!!! You can't give up - there's a whole LOT of people out here you don't even know is THAT ARE LIVING BETTER AND WITH MORE HOPE!!! Don't give up!!! I need these messages. It's changing my LIFE AND A HUNDRED AROUND ME!!! Please help us! Thank you for helping us. God bless you.

VEGASVANCITYGIRL 11.4.17

I've always have yearned deep down in my soul for this gift. Because my heart truly HURTS to see others suffer! I've been praying about this. While praying for more time—the promises JESUS & FATHER MADE TO US!!! Joel 2:28. I do everything JESUS TOLD us to do - communion etc. Clare; I've learned sooo much from your teachings!! Don't ever feel like your worthless! I deal with soooo much oppression, but what does JESUS say about the 99 sheep the shepherd left for just one? That is YOU &

EZEKIEL , but there's MORE THEN ONE!!

YBSMike 10.31.17

Wow. Everytime I write about just how Blessed we here are, something more happens to further inflate the level for which we are Blessed! Jesus is amazing! Like Clare, if there's one single thing I have always wanted to be able to do, it is to heal people. I know how easily pride could get in the way, but I have always found great pleasure in people's reactions when they receive something special. I have seen my share of miracles since being saved, and can never forget those people who were affected when the Lord defied all odds and healed them of illnesses. The first was a 12 year old girl, who is very close to my family.

She got a rare cancer a few years ago, and according to 5 of the area's best doctors, who had decided to meet together from outside areas just to discuss this girl's case, she had only a 10% chance at life. I immediately brought her story to the Heartdwellers intercessors and the channel, and even though for the previous 3 weeks all the statistics grew worse for her survival, within a few days of your prayers, and the intercessors, something changed. I should also mention that at this time, this girl, her father and sister also Prayed for the very first time in the hospital with my daughter, in a circle asking the Lord for mercy. With all these Prayers, and all these people Praying, within 1 week flat, everything changed!

Her survivability changed from 10% and was now 90%! These very same doctors had NEVER seen this happen before in a human body in their careers. Her cancer was right next to her aorta, and even the smallest growth would have killed her. Instead of it growing, it shrunk, and within about 3 weeks of all the Praying everybody did, the cancer was GONE! She fully recovered, and to this day keeps a rosary around her ankle and firmly believes in God, along with her sister and father. The doctors did not use the word "miracle", but they did write up her last report and proclaimed that there was an "unexplained healing" done to this girl as the cancer was now gone without a trace. But this was only the first, there's been so many more and it's such a powerful thing to witness when a family goes from complete defeat to overwhelming joy, belief and Love for the Lord! I don't think there is anything better one can experience in this World!

For us to be offered this opportunity is a great honor, and it's being offered to us by Jesus Himself! - Jesus offered us all to push in to receive the gift of Healing - Ohh how Blessed we really are! Thank You Jesus for ALL the things you do for us here! We are so lucky to have heard your calling to become a part of this ministry! I will be doing everything in my power to achieve this gift! Thank you for the message Jesus, Clare and Carol! God Bless all you HeartDwellers for your Love, Prayers and donations to this ministry, and for Praying for Clare and Ezekiel! Glory be to God for gathering an amazing group of His Children in one place so that we can all share our love for the

Christopher Hill 10.22.17

I just wanted to thank you all for your prayers. You are all truly my brothers and sisters, thank you. My faith is back and strong! Praise the Lord almighty Jesus Christ! I'm so happy right now because you were right, he's always been here, waiting for me to trust in him again full heartedly. My faith, love, and loyalty for him has gone back up and through the roof so now I'm back in the fight! Thanks everyone and I'll be sending prayers for you also. Clare keep it up with those letters. They are blessings from God. I can't thank you enough for believing in me and sending prayer to my life. He's given me a handful of things to do since I've lost track of time. He said hurry because I need to catch up. Although he's in control of it all including time., every hour is precious at this moment. I'll be sending you new songs soon and much prayer. I love you all God Bless. Love Chris Hill

Hey Family,

I just wanted to share with you a testimony not only for still small voice channel but of the binding prayer that Ms. Clare has provided us all. I am now having a few people coming on each video I do to continuously warn me about the this channel however I also share with them truth and testify to the fruits in my life and on my channel are from this ministry by Gods grace. I had a friend who was going through some heavy oppression and I wasn't sure what to do because we had prayed so many times. So I felt led to tell him that we should pray the binding prayer together and have me speak tongues over him. He initially had told me he liked the channel and many videos had helped but he had one person say that the teachings weren't of God. I made the same statement about the fruits in my life testifying to what this channel has done and he agreed.

As we began to pray together after the Repentance part he began to throw up. I was shocked but knew what was happening because I had seen deliverance take place before. I began to pray in the spirit. The Lord had me on the phone with this young man for about 3 1/2 hours praying in the spirit as he was purging him and finishing the prayer. Afterwards he was amazed and had never experienced anything like that. I was in awe at the power of God and never experienced anything like that myself. I felt Gods presence so strongly throughout it all. He then said he would never deny Gods power and will tell everyone what God did for him. As well as having such an amazing confirmation about this ministry and binding prayer. So what the enemy intends against this ministry the Spirit and Power of God testify!!! #hushjesushush :)

Thank you so much Ms. Clare & Ezekiel for your obedience, your endurance, your perseverance your blessing hundreds of thousands of souls all over the world because of your ministry this young man is now set free and on fire for the Lord. I am so humbled, honored, and privileged to be apart of this ministry. Love you!! Nana

Chanelle Eusebe 9.1.17 – (Amazing Testimony of Hurricane Maria)

On September 18th 2017, we were warn of a hurricane to hit Dominica at a category 2. Most of us did minimal preparation I told my kids aunty if anything I would come over with my 3 little boys - I call them my 3 Hebrew boys. Work was called off as well as school. Dominica the nature Isle was under a hurricane warning. The weather in my area was cloudy all day towards the afternoon, the rain started pouring about 5pm. The weather gradually changed. I was watching the weather and praying for mercy worshiping and praying all day. I was warning people on watsapp it would be terrible. The messages Jesus gave sweet Clare was warnings, and plus the dream he gave me a week before. I dream of a hurricane and tsunami approaching my country, I was frantically looking for my kids, and there were dead bodies everywhere. Massive destruction all over I had just opened the church door and saw all these bodies. The time was 12 am that was the dream. I ask God to explain this he said it will be like Erica, your people won't be prepared, and so it came to pass.

Erica hit in 2015 but not everyone was affected. We lost lots of lives in various parts of the country, there was a previous hurricane a few days before and it missed us so it was a taken for granted then Erica came as a storm and destroy us. Hurricane maria came we were suppose to be hit by Irma but it by pass us and here comes hurricane Maria. Very much unexpected at the magnitude it hit. The actual hurricane September 18th 2017. At 6 pm the electricity went off. The rain poured heavily the gusty winds started, I was glued to the radio listening to every detail. I went to make some tea, I made a very thick tea of different types of cereals, the baby was asleep and then he awake. I anointed my family and prayed for life and only minor injuries. It was 8pm then I started hearing angry banging of galvanize. I told my soulmate this is scary, and then the radio announce we were at a category 4 hurricane!!!

Suddenly the station was lost at this time. The door was slammed open, I told my soulmate to bolt the door and if it opens again Jesus is giving a sign to get out immediately. Then it open he said whoa! The porch roof is gone so he said let's move now, he grab the baby and I took one son I told another to wait on the porch, but he followed I was not even aware but was happy he did. When we got to his sister home, which is a few steps away, I told him go back for the tea he said no turning back. Looking at the house it was already flat down. Literally in less than 5 minutes. We were at his sister house, our safe heaven as we thought. She was happy to see us and said she was praying we came over. We were sitting there, and just relaxing I grab a sheet and wrapped to be more protected and warm. It was another 5mins then things started getting wild and crazy. Doors were banging off, and glass windows was breaking. We knew the master bedroom was severely damaged, but we stayed put to the living room praying and thanking God for life. I was speaking boldly to Maria and telling her we would live to declare the glory of God and to tell of this testimony.

Then another loud scary bang, it was the roof and galvanize was flying everywhere. While water came rushing in from the heavy tormented rains, it was pouring in through the ceiling. Glass doors was bursting and flying out everywhere it was terrifying and traumatizing. Thank God the electricity was off, for we all stayed glued next to the main switch in one corner of the house, there were 9 of us packed there! Suddenly, another loud sound and we flew to the kitchen. That roof was still up its like we were playing hop Scotch in the house. The hurricane had us jumping from one place to another, all through the storm. I was being comforted through my phone. Thanks to sweet Clare again for teaching heart dwellers about Rhemas and using the Bible promises. Jesus gave me anxiety, fear, comfort, joy, and text to follow under it. While in the kitchen another loud bang, and the kitchen roof was gone. Glass windows started breaking then my kids aunt husband said remove the pots and pans and place the children in the kitchen cupboards.

This was terrifying especially for the kids, but there was no choice for they needed to be safe. They were placed their. The bigger boys were silent. My baby was screaming competing with the wind noise for he was hungry and water started falling on him in the cupboards, for he needed feeding. I grabbed a table and went under it and all adults were cramped under that same table. I manage to breastfeed him and placed a pot on my head for protection from the flying glass. It continued breaking windows. I manage to calm the baby down and we continued praying. This was scary, traumatizing, frightening, loud thunders and lightening accompanied the angry voices of the furious wind. I kept calm and was not afraid for God did not give me a spirit of fear, but of sound mind, and really was avoiding premature labor.

My faith was already on the rocks, for the year I felt what more could I get? It had been a terrible year for me. Very challenging indeed. So, I just claim Gods promises and hold on to his words and messages from his still small voice he gave. For life and death is in the power of the tongue. I was only praying for minor injuries but wondering when will it stop. I was praying for life for mercy and claiming Gods words from his Bible and all promises, even songs I was making to him at this point. It was approximately 9pm then the wind and noises started to subside it died down. What a relief, we were thrilled for we felt it was all over. We were not certain for it was said lately the hurricane was moving 10 miles per hour real slow we took no chances we quickly embrace the opportunity and got out. We went to a neighbor an x-police he had already ask my kids aunt to come over for company.

We went there walking on roofs and hurried to his downstairs. Thankful to God we had survived that monster Maria. When we arrive there about 9:10 pm we started asking another neighbor for clothes then while sending the clothes the angry voices of the winds started even stronger than before and the rain got heavier and wilder we were told this is now the eye or a change in eye-wall not even sure. Though I always had a passion for weather but not this trip. This was just too much torment and too scary. They place me in a room with the kids and the door burst open. The tin windows felt like they wanted to rip off the wall. I place a fridge behind the door then took my kids under another table. It was scary. Water was quickly rising up to my knee I knew I did not feel safe I told them I wanted to come over. My kids and I brace the fierce wind and move over to the middle room where we felt comforted. My baby and kids were soaking wet and I had no clothes, pampers, nothing for him. I manage to dry my baby and wrapped in another sheet. The kids fell asleep. My baby stayed up all night and was quiet, for he knew something was wrong. I comforted him by singing Jesus love me.

We were all Cramped in a upstairs and downstairs bed . The hurricane continue making fierce sounds. At 11 pm I told them those wind gust are so powerful it should be 200 mph. We prayed for people we knew we would hear of deaths, and this was more powerful than expected. We continue all night bailing out water to the bathroom and praying frantically for mercy, and praying for sunlight to come. At 4 pm our neighbor lost his roof and this was catastrophic just like my dream. We got up early for we never slept and when we came out reality struck. There were roofs on the streets. Still gusty winds was hurling. All roofs were turn over protruding up. We walk on those roof. Thank God we did not get hurt. There were damage everywhere. Houses were lost, roofs were gone, the trees were down, poles were down, big trees were uprooted.... Massive destruction was experience everywhere! Communication was down. People were flooded. Everyone, 95 % of the country gotten damage by Maria's wrath. One thing that baffles me is the anointing oil!..... It took NO damage, and the wall unit it was on was damaged, but my tablet in a case in a bag is totally smashed!! Jesus truly protect what is his Picture for proof.

I have to say that I believe anyone that comes to this channel and scoffs about it hasn't watched enough of what Jesus says to Sister Clare. YES I know Jesus speaks to her. I know Jesus is behind this channel 100%. If you will start surfing her Videos Jesus will send you the videos to watch. We are all individuals that Jesus loves very much. Please do not miss the chance to hear the words from Jesus thru sister Clare directly to you. Disclaimer... if you start this walk get your head right for it I compare it to a roller coaster ride. Truth is when you start surfing these (heartdwellerschannel) videos the adversary will come after you. Watch for these attacks and never, never under estimate the Dark side. I testify, if you seek here (heartdwellers), you will find.

Taylor 8.1.17

WOW!! Ok, so I wanted to flip through my journal and do a quick count, because I want to gather info so that I could be a part of this testimony video. I decided to flip through my journal and jot down on a separate piece of paper, the number of dreams, visions, etc. that I have experienced since being a part of the channel in the last 12 months, (and as a result learning to spend large chunks of time devoted just to intimacy & worship with the Lord.)
drum roll....

72 supernatural events!!

44 seeing events and/or open visions

4 hearing events(these were near audible interjections during thoughts or prayer& does not included all the countless times I have heard Him "speak" to me through rhemas)

2 warnings-one was a dream, one was a rhema

3 supernatural fragrances: vanilla twice, cloves once, roses once

7 supernatural dreams...not pizza dreams, and not regular work out our day stuff...VERY vivid spiritual dreams usually with Jesus in them, but once was satan(the time he got blown back when I screamed at him that he was a liar)

1 (7-hour) out of body experience!!

1 supernatural translocation!!

1 supernatural $500 deposit!!

2 supernatural cloud formations(one witnessed by my husband)

1 supernatural tree branch formation(stag of Israel)

1 physical glory cloud like thick fog in my living room during worship

2 supernatural music events: one was music playing in my house, but nothing was on!!, and the other was Audible angels singing over me 1 supernatural "helping hand" from angel to do something heavy I could not do. I knew I couldn't lift it, so prayed for help...I then tried hefting this heavy thing up on the hook and missed the hook (I saw it miss and the hook swing back and forth), but it was hooked when brought my hands down and I looked back up 2 misc other events(too long to abbreviate here)

Wow! If this isn't ALSO a testimony of how we should all journal, I don't know what is!! I had no idea it was this many until I counted. And, many of these I had forgotten about, until I re-read them. God is good, and the fruits since being on the channel, are many! I remember back very early on, when I first found the channel, some negative videos came up on the side bar, and I thought, Hmm...better evaluate this...lotsa people saying bad stuff...then, I researched what they were saying, and went back and viewed the videos they were referencing, and they had twisted everything Clare had said. Not only that, I thought about how Jesus said a good tree bears good fruit, and all I could think about was how much GOOD FRUIT I had seen already, and that just sealed it for me.

So, just for a reference point...I just turned 50 this month, and in all those years, and a Pentecostal background since age 9, guess how many events I had experienced _in all those years_, prior to the channel? ..._only ONE supernatural hearing event, (ZERO visions),...IN MY WHOLE LIFE...It is just amazing to me...just amazing. So glad I have found this ministry and so thankful to be a part of this group!! My life is DRAMATICALLY different, since finding the channel...the flip side is that I've also experienced more heartache, testing and trials, enemy attacks, and persecution than ever in my life, not to mention fasted more than ever in my whole life, but it has ALL been worth it!! -Taylor

Kabelo Fidel Moloro 7.4.17

Hello Dearest Mother. Before I say anything I'd love to thank you from the bottom of my heart; truly I owe you endless thanks Mother. See I was once so stepped in drugs and sin that there was no longer any hope for me but now my life is filled with endless bliss although at times I worry and lack faith; it was your channel that redeemed me to His arms. Through your inspirations a zeal was kindled within me and I wrote a book titled "lessons from nature" now it's complete and I'm working on my second manuscript; all this is also due to the awesome work you do for Him. Uh hm please include me in your prayers to find a publisher sooner than soon. Well if I were to express what your channel transpired in my life, we'd never come to an end so I'd like to- Kabelo Fidel Moloro

I'm so thankful for how the Lord helped Ezekiel. How sweet He is. He is always there helping us all. Always comes at the perfect timing and taking care of His children. I often pray for both of you and all that has anything to do with this channel. Without this channel and Jesus's teachings through you Clare, I wouldn't be as far as I am in my walk with Him. He is all we will ever need!! How much it means to me that he lead me to this channel a little over two years ago. I don't know what I would do without this channel in my life. I have really been taught alot, I've came to love you guys like family and never even met you once. You guys truly mean alot to me. Thanks to Jesus and all that has anything to do with this channel. #GodsChangingLivesThruYou #MuchLoveAndHugs

Rosa Calvo 6.1.17

Dear Clare and Ezekiel, how do I thank you? If I wouldn't have heard your messages I would still be a big and huge mediocre believer. I went to a lot of churches, but never, I really never learned so much like I am learning here. I learned in leaps when I started to meet my Lord Jesus Christ in the deep soaking dwelling prayer. Everything you taught with the guide of J.C. and Holy Spirit is true....I am having attacks even in my dwelling prayer...even the Lord says to me, come back to me, come always back to me..(when my thoughts goes abroad) You are always in our prayers. Everyone here in this channel is in my prayers... Go ahead , your teaching is pure gold! I understood that to be a believer in Jesus Christ is hard work. Always checking your thoughts and steps. One foot to another, one foot to another, watching the Face of the Lord till we die, or our groom comes. love you

Elly 5.25.17

Family, many of you know that my husband is now the director of the orphanage in which he grew up (the Baptist Children's Village of Mississippi). We have been traveling just about every week-end so that he can preach/speak about the orphanage in many Baptist churches in Mississippi. it has been a wonderful, exhausting, spirit-filled adventure!

This past Saturday we were traveling to North Mississippi and it started raining really hard. We suddenly came upon a wreck that had just occurred. A truck and a trailer were in the median as was a car that had been turned upside down. You could tell that the accident had just happened because we were one of the first to stop to help.

My husband, Sean, immediately called 911 and let them know the location of the wreck (10 miles from the nearest town). Then he ran to see if he could help. The people in the truck were bruised up, but they were fine. However, there was a badly injured man still in the car. Meanwhile, I was still in our car by the side of the road- under orders not to get out. It was very hard to see because the rain was still pouring down in sheets. I had no idea if anyone was still in that car, but I just felt that there WAS someone in there and that they were going to die. So, I started singing the Mercy Chaplet... I sang it and sang it and sang it.

Sean told me later that two ladies had also stopped to help and they were kneeling down beside the young man in the car. He was literally laying on the roof of his vehicle. Sean found a shirt and they put it around his arm as a tourniquet. A doctor who was also passing by stopped and came over just as the young man died. Sean thinks that he must have had severe internal injuries. The experience was so horrible, so traumatic...but I know that the Lord had us there so that I could PRAY for his soul as it left him and so that he would not die all by himself- he had two, sweet Mississippi mamas talking to him and comforting him as he lay there.

Sean prayed a prayer over him as he passed away. I feel such a PEACE (and felt it so strongly even just after it happened) that the young man is with our Jesus right now. Anyway, I wanted you all to know and to share in this with me as I would have never in a million years have known to pray the Mercy Chaplet in such a situation before the Lord led me to this ministry. How I praise Him for His goodness to us. I love you all,

Elly

The Parkers 5.25.17

Hi Sister Clare. I just wanted to take a moment and let you know how much your messages have changed our lives. We started watching your channel about 6 months ago, first time really watching anyone on Youtube. My husband and I were stuck and watched most all your previous messages and continue to follow. We have been long time Christians but really didn't get active in the church until about 10 years ago. We gave a lot of time to the church and felt we were really growing spiritually. However, the past 6 months we have grown more than in the past 6 yrs I think listening your teachings. We made a difficult choice to come out of the lukewarm church a view months ago and started helping the homeless with food and Bibles. WE feel closer to Jesus than ever!! We so appreciate your heart for the Lord, the time to give these teachings; and you are changing lives!! Thank you my sister!! We keep you in our prayers and may God bless you in every way!! LOVE YOU!! The Parkers

Ramona McFann 4.3.17

I was broken. As a child I knew I was different, I felt I was out of place, I remembered JESUS. As a teenager, I sought the attention of pleasing my parents. I tried to kill myself but no one noticed, I remembered JESUS. When I became an adult and left home, I sought love and attention from the World, I remembered JESUS. I married, had children, joined a Church and yet I became a dead woman walking. I tried to kill myself, No one noticed, I remembered JESUS.

Being a mother gave me a purpose. So, I thrived and still lived a lie. I functioned with a smile on my face as if everything was alright. I tried to be someone I was not and my life left me (Bitter, angry and confused). I went to Church, worked, provided and took care of my family but I was lost, I forgot JESUS. I tried to seek comfort in the world, I tried to make everyone happy, I tried to be what I thought was pleasing to the world and yet I was existing on reserve. I was blind in denial and defeated. How could this be?

I kept the house spotless, I took great care of the children and husband and I worked. The American dream of a house with a white picket fence, station wagon and a dog, eluded me. I suffered and so did my family. I loved JESUS and JESUS loved me. I sung in the choir, went to Church even professing and proclaiming my faith, belief and trust in the Kingdom of GOD, but still felt I was incomplete. I took JESUS and his many blessings for GRANTED. The children (grown and moved on), and husband (divorce) were gone. I felt so all along and at a standstill, I was just existing. Life had no meaning or purpose. I remembered JESUS and CRIED OUT to HIM with a SINCERE heart. JESUS remembered ME, JESUS showed UP. JESUS showed me myself in his mirror and it wasn't pretty. I'd asked Abba Heavenly Father to show me myself and he did.

I WAS BROKEN.... I WAS GUILTY, ASHAMED, DEFEATED and EXHAUSTED. I was on the VERGE of a MIRACLE breakthrough in my LIFE but I had to do something FIRST... I

SURRENDERED ALL to JESUS. I confessed my sins of having lived a (prideful, arrogant, think she could do it better, know it all, self conceited, worthless, damning, straight-to-hell in every direction but up) life. This was a heart-wrenching, soul-searching process that only JESUS could (restore, deliver, forgive, renew, purify, change, receive, love, wash, feed) and so much more.

This truly comes by fasting and praying. Everything that I lost that my will gave up to the enemy, JESUS took back. MY (heart, mind, body, soul), and yes my relationships. I can't thank Abba Heavenly Father enough for JESUS. I used to be that, but JESUS (shaped, molded, sealed) and rescued me back to our Father and his Love; according to his WILL for my life.

Now, I'm the Woman who tells everybody about the man who can SAVE anybody. I once was lost but now I'm found was blind but now I see. JESUS rescued me and woke me up. JESUS turned my Life around and placed my feet on solid ground. JESUS just good like that. What he's done for me, he will do for you. He is truly a wonderful FRIEND and Shepherd. JESUS set me FREE.....

Dave W 3.21.17

Clare and Heartdwellers, Holy Spirit brought me to this channel on 5/3/16. I was very concerned about the rapture at that point as most of us were. On 3/18 a day before your message where Jesus mentioned the rapture delay, I wrote this in my journal: "I hadn't thought for a while about the rapture and I have been thinking that life will go on as normal, but in a little over 2 years this will all be over so time is short. So don't worry about retirement or my oldest being in college because time is short." It was amazing to hear Jesus mention the rapture delay just a day after I wrote it. This is why this, you, and this channel are so important because it is another confirmation that I have been hearing from Him.

Currently the Lord has pruned me from my job on 6/23/16 and kept me with him and turning down many lucrative job offers as an electrical engineer that come my way because of His Promises that He gave me back in August. I trusted in him and I am living on my retirement and trusting in His Will for my life. The more I get attacked, the stronger I become. Jesus has built me up so much over these past months in patience and perseverance. Mainly because I spend at a minimum of 3-4 hours of worship and contemplation with Him. Then I journal quite extensively and if an enemy attack comes my way, Jesus can bring me to the exact journal entries needed to settle my soul and assure me of His Promises. He actually does this almost daily as kind of a puzzle for our fellowship time together (He likes to play with his kids too!).

The journaling has been an incredible investment since it has teachings and truth of progress for myself and my 4 boys ages 8-18. These guys were my main source of teaching as Jesus pruned the world out of me using Luke 6:40 "The student is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like their teacher." and Luke 6:44 "Each tree is recognized by its own fruit." I saw the patterns of my family (parents, grandparents) and how I was not following love and rebuked each item. Then as I saw things wrong in my boys, I first looked at myself (the tree).

I got the first part of my breakthrough miracle yesterday where my fiance contacted me for the first time in over six months. Her and I had been separated and have not spoken since September except for some flowers and a letter that I was lead to write. This was a slow and painful process of patience and learning to following Jesus' lead. I knew that our relationship was a sacrifice for our country. I would never have been able to go this long with no control, no insight except for the encouragement, teaching and dreams that were given to me. I was given the gift of faith and courage and this channel was a huge part of that because things would happen to me and then I would hear about it through you. Everyone press in and pray for courage, perseverance and thankfulness for the trails. Have that childlike faith to listen him speaking through anything and everything. And know that He is in control (that's my biggest reminder phrase now "You are in control Lord")! - Dave W

Russell Dodds 3.21.17

What a wonderful message. Just for that, another comment for you. I have been fighting hard on the mountain of holiness. Listening to your channel for almost 2 years now, or maybe one and a half, I can't remember. Anyways, this channel has changed my life exponentially; It has given me a whole new Foundation. It spreads to others while bringing me deeper into prayer.

Not just any prayer, really spending time with the Lord. Things have been changing about myself. I never realized the layers of sin I was in bondage to. Being negative, or talking about someone else or even listening to it. The way I would lose my temper especially when driving. Now I am getting active with the gifts Lord has given me. I made a YouTube channel it is (HarvestOutreachf.g.c.) Clare maybe you and Carol could listen sometimes. It's me, my son, and my dad singing and preaching. We started going out on the street to pray for people. It's called the Cardboard Box Church, another minister in North Carolina showed me how to do it.

We have a small Church in a poor part of town. We only have about 15 members; of which only about six or seven go because of sickness. My dad has been a pastor for 39 years and I have been in church all my life. However, I didn't have a real relationship with Jesus. I didn't do things that were bad just because I didn't want to go to hell. Which led to me to do bad things all the time. Since I've listened to your Channel, the Lord has changed so many things in my life. I'm working for the Lord and the reason I don't do wrong is because I don't want to hurt him or disappoint him. I don't want to cheat on him with the Devil. Nevertheless, the devil knows the level of condemnation that he can put on me. He also plays on my loneliness and tries to give me depression. Since my car accident, where Jesus spared me and my youngest son's life. I lost my career and went on full disability.

Still, the Lord turned it into a positive. Now I can go into the ministry full time, I just have to get my Holiness right because it isn't right for me to be trying to lead people when I can't lead myself. I love the Lord with a deep passion but it is a war. I cherish you and your husband and Carol and your Channel and everybody on here. Satan plays on my loneliness because I can't relate to most people I used to know. I had a friend come by the other day which was undoubtedly a test. He wanted to go drink and gamble as usual, and I started talking to him about Jesus.

I told him that I didn't judge him and that he is still my friend, but I don't do those things anymore. Also, I was talking to him about the Street Ministry and it was really nice. He gave his heart to the Lord here a while back while we were talking, and he's trying to get on track. I pray for him hard, and I realize that prayer makes a big difference. Especially when I intercede for people. I know this was crazy long but I just wanted you to know what you guys mean to me. God bless you and I'm praying for you every day. I never miss a message, and I've never heard or listened to one video that bashes your Channel., love Russell.

Son Of Jesus1 3.21.17

Same same same I was really lost and wandering and totally in fear of Hell. I was saved a year and a half ago. I was just walking into my salvation and out of total fear, gave my life to Christ after hearing Hell. But it distorted the view I had of him. Well then GOD must of really felt bad for me because he led me. I don't know how, but I clicked on the still small voice channel and like was totally and utterly blown away by the amount of Love and Truth to that channel.

I was so drawn and pulled and I fell head over heels for GOD on the same day or the next day I was in a panic attack because of a video about Hell which I was crying and sobbing and totally afraid to do anything. Before that I was told GOD doesn't like this and that and how he hated homosexuals and if I was raped he wouldn't help or save me because he doesn't love gays . That left a stain in my heart and brought utter low self-esteem and self hatred. You know, not only man hates me, but so does GOD, so I thought. But the witnesses around me had no life in them either or any power in them either.

I now know that it was just wolves in sheep clothing from the result of lack of understanding on their part and no intimacy with GOD. I mean how could anybody hate him or not love him? He was liquidating my heart when I heard his voice and I openly became spiritually alive, REALLY SAVED, and my perspective about him and life changed drastically. I was attacked by dreams and family members going crazy. Financial problems, jobless, the enemy was so angry and then GOD delivered me out of that situation.

My love for him had skyrocketed and btw, I started reading the word that I haven't read before. Oh how Satan has perverted the image of GOD and the opinions of his nature. I thank GOD. Anyway I have been told by the church members how she (Clare) was false without them even watching her, but listened to lies and gossip through someone else. I went to GOD and he has confirmed to me more than 3 times that Clare is a true child of God. Anyway I am NEVER EVER leaving her channel. I have been there 2 years and also accused of witchcraft and the word constantly confirms the messages as truth, and Holy Spirit really is speaking to the audience. And I am so happy sister that you have grown beyond ever before.

Gr8FishingMadness 3.21.17

Through all the struggles and hardships, I find I am consistently drawn to this channel every day. I will admit that after the 3 year delay was announced, I fell apart both mentally and spiritually because I based my life around the rapture. However, I continued to still listen in and am now learning to apply myself. I have started some guitar songs, more prayer and worship time and have started really listening to Julie True.

Yes, there is major opposition every day to anything I want to do for the Lord, but I know its because the evil spirits want to destroy me while I'm down. Yesterday I got bored and played some Wii for a couple hours which just ended in sadness and a sense of wasted time. Just now, I was listening to Julie True and got instantly distracted with my moms tax return and got all antsy and bored when trying to return to worship.

I think I'm really starting to understand the warfare better now. If I really wanted to I could give up and drink a lot every night and spend lots of time looking into worldly mysteries and rapture puzzles but I know where that would lead. While I still greatly desire the rapture, I recognize the importance of working for the kingdom and that there really is hope for peace, joy and enrichment at some point in the near future before the major war breaks out. I have (sadly) even had christian friends try and tell me not to listen in but I am 100% sure the Lord is speaking and will never leave.

God's Work in Progress 3.21.17

While I am not able to super hear our Lord or see Him in visions as others, etc., Jesus has used this ministry to greatly blessed me by teaching me through His messages to Clare to seek Him day by day and with His help, deny myself, pick up my cross and follow Him. Also, He has helped me greatly in accepting trials in my life as something I can offer Him , instead of whining and complaining over everything that doesn't go my way. I see now how all things permitted in our lives are not only for our own highest good, but also for the good of others through Jesus.

I've also benefited by discovering that Jesus actually loves each one of us individually.. and that there is no need for jealousy because we are each special to Him in our own individual way..

I also love the encouragement He has given through Clare and Ezekiel that we can have an intimate relationship with Him.. and not just be a dutiful Christian., but a Christian who serves Jesus out of love for Him. hugs, lisa .. God's Work in Progress ♥

Hello Heartdwellers, I have a big testimony of how Jesus delivered me last night. I was having a chat with my flatmate and all of a sudden, I felt dizzy and really terrible. it was so bad that I felt I was about to collapse but I didn't mentioned it to my flatmate, I just said goodnight to her cos it was late anyway.

I entered my room and just collapsed on my bed and it got worst with feverish feeling. I felt out of it and heard some noise in my ears. I remember saying to myself, oh I think my spiritual senses are more heightened now. The pain which was causing dizziness moved to my abdomen in an excruciating pain and I kept saying, Lord, I offer this pain as a sacrifice with thanksgiving and thank you for allowing me to share your suffering. I started feeling like I need to go to the washroom so when the dizziness went down, I went cos it was opposite my room but it got worse. Now, I am vomiting as well, and freezing cold and very weak, I couldn't breathe so I had my mouth opened and am sweating and cold at the same time.. Then it dawn on me to call for help cos now I felt like I was dying. And I said, Jesus help me. Then I saw Jesus coming and he looks like he felt sorry for me, and He knelt on the bathroom floor when I had threw myself there and picked me up by my shoulders and put me on His lap rocking me as a child. And I said to Him, Jesus, look at me, I am a mess and nothing and lifeless without you. No word but He kept rocking me and I fell asleep.

I woke in a mess I have made in the bathroom with no pain, no dizziness and able to get up and clean myself and the bathroom and went to bed without anyone knowing what had happened to me. My experience was peace and trust that, whatever happens, I could rest in His love for me. The last I experienced this attack, I haven't met heartdwellers yet and I knew I was dying and very scared and crying that I may never see my family again and they will never know what happened to me.

Even then, The Lord rescued me. If Heartdwellers has been June brides and raptured then, myself and those who joined after the delay wouldn't had a chance for our lives to be changed by Jesus. So please, let's be busy about souls and bring more like myself to Jesus with the help of The Holy Spirit. And praise The Lord with me, for He is good and His mercies endures forever....Amen.

Beautiful! Really love your previous instrumental. My kids have gone through an unsettled phase of not being able to "switch off" to fall asleep. I tried that instrumental for them to listen to as they fell asleep. They loved it! Have asked for it on several occasions since. BTW, I've been listening to Clare for almost 2 years now have grown in my relationship with Jesus enormously! My husband, although initially skeptical, now listens has grown also. My motive not to sin is now my love for Jesus rather than wondering why I couldn't just force myself to live God's way. A revelation to me!! Thanks you so much Clare, Ezekiel, Carol & team! J – Joy

Dearest Clare and Ezekiel, An apology first as it is a little while since my last email, I am grateful for reply and encouraging words. I am behind in watching your wonderfully encouraging, challenging and watchful YouTube videos so catch up time ahead.

I thought you both might like to know that the reason I am attracted to your superb output other than the Love you show for your “YouTube Family” (I really love that !) is because of a book I was given a little while back that was written way back in 1935 entitled “God Calling” by Two Listeners. In its style and presentation it is so much like the way the LORD speaks and interacts with you both that leaves me convinced by your experiences and dialogue with Him as we watch for his return I managed to discover recently that this document is available on line, and although I appreciate how busy you folk are it is worth a look. The web address is <http://www.twolisteners.org> - enjoy

Thank you again for blessing me more than you can imagine - The Lord has really been working a revolution in my life in recent weeks with Divine appointments frequently occurring (coupled often with attacks from the enemy) I am SO glad I stumbled across your channel.

Lots of Love to you both, your team and those you Love.

My dear Ones.....Oh it is just amazing....I put on this lovely music while I am typing up some pages for Him....and I can see Him in my spirit....a ball room....in a white tux....so lovely....tall.... and I am in this white dress..not sure if a wedding one...but lovely..one I seem to have on when He dances with me...Clare..the moves...too graceful and awesome for words! I don't think I ..or we ..could do this on earth...I am as light as a feather....so frail as I looked when 20...it amazes me how we just dance.....I have never seen dancing like this.... like pure art work.

He is something else! I keep up with Him.... like a picture of grace that just flows from us..in our love for each other. You know what I mean..you know.... not everyone could understand what I type...yish. Too beautiful for words...and so clear..and the things He says.... I was typing up pages for Him and it was like....dance with Me now... and I have this lovely music on....and off we go! And I twirl....and near float in His dancing...we glide over the floor like soft breezes...and I say I have to get this done.... um...are you kidding? Not when He wants to dance! Ha ha! Love it.

He gave me a message a few days ago..very personal..You could understand it. And it is for all really...If only ones would open to Him...and let Him in their hearts and souls. He is so tender....oh yes..that is what I wanted to tell you....when I am with Him, the longing is soooooooooooooooooooooo terrible to be with Him..You know this too, as some others....and I am so lonely to be with Him....and He tells me..." Is that why sometimes you don't want to dance....because of the loneliness it causes in you? And I have to admit ...I am pained at being away from Him....and He says..dance with Me!

Even if you are longing to be with Me..in tears... this loneliness I need in you...it makes up for the ones who are not lonely for Me....who never even give Me a thought! And more words to that effect.... but it is just a sorrow ..a pain I have to endure when He is with me like ... this. And so we dance ...and I long... And on and on it goes...

Beautiful Praise from former Enemy 2.27.17

+Still Small Voice I'm about to watch this one but I just wanted to first say, thank you again Clare for all the work you do to bring us these videos. I hope you realize that no, not just "anybody" can do this. It is the "way" you do this that makes it even more special. I can't explain it really other than to just say it's your mannerisms, personality and voice that resonates so well with all of your viewers and somehow, makes the videos have more meaning.

Thank you for the sincerity that is included in each video. When you speak his words, you seem to hesitate and emphasize at just the right moments to make it seem like a living storybook. This makes it very easy to picture Jesus himself, speaking. I wonder if he has blessed these in a special way to do just what I am saying I sense while viewing them? I dunno but, please don't change a thing and, I'm very sorry to also give to you a reason for pride! Ugggg! How do we compliment somebody without causing them a sin temptation? lol I'm sure you will be fine. I'm so happy Jesus is giving us so many messages recently! It's just such a good feeling to check in and see a new video so often. I have to assume he sees that in all of us here and is doing what he can to help us to stay informed and stay close to him.

I am learning slowly, but learning. I have had such peace lately and do not really understand it because I see so many others struggling and it makes me sad. Why am I so lucky I ask myself but, I pray for his will over mine and, if he want's me to be happy, then so be it. lol I do not deserve to be this happy and peaceful, sleeping like a baby lately (mostly) but, Ill take what I can get. I Pray for you and yours often, and all of our brothers and sisters here, on your channel. I just wanted to say thanks and wish you all the blessings that a person can have at this point of the end days! In Jesus's name, peace, love, mercy and happiness to you Clare, and to your loved ones alike, and to all of the visitors to this channel, especially to the unsaved and also to the angry ones who need the most kindness and love. Praise, grace and worship to our loving and amazingly generous Jesus for ever and ever and ever. Amen!

It's amazing the Lord showed me (in a dream last night) something that didn't make sense (until now) when I just woke up and saw this painting you have posted here on this message. This photo of this beautiful black girl (with angel wings) holding this white dove is EXTREMELY symbolic of the dream I had last night. Clare, the Lord showed me (in a dream last night) a various "black" colored adopted family that all turned "white" before my eyes as the Mother spoke of Heaven and the blessings that would be found there. One of the blessings this mother spoke of about her adopted family was that the whole family would become "white" or the same color. I believe this dream was symbolic of becoming pure and white before the Lord in heaven. We are all adopted into the family of God and will become "white as snow" in heaven by the blood of Jesus Christ. Seriously I have asked the Lord to confirm to me that these messages are from him and he keeps doing it night after night, in dreams, and day after day, in my daily activities, through his spirit guiding me. Hope that makes sense.

Hi! Clare, No I did not get anything in the mail. This may not be an appropriate place, but I just want to thank you and your ministry for helping me kick a long standing addiction to porn. The desire for it was just gone, amazingly. You also helped me weather the storm of the family get together over Christmas.

David Rene D. 2.27.17

I was thinking about the wedding of the Lamb and in my thoughts I saw this humongous winding staircase of ivory with millions of beautiful brides walking up and when I looked down from the top, the ones at the very bottom were so far away, they looked like dots, and the men who made up the Bride of Christ were all so elegantly dressed! Everything was sparkling white! There were gigantic columns rising up into the sky. Then I saw your video where you talked about there being this winding staircase that you saw in the wedding. I was amazed. Also, I have never felt in my spirit that there would be this huge revival in the world BEFORE Jesus returns at the rapture and your vision confirmed that. I was so shocked to see your video about there being a limited explosion of the caldera at Yellowstone.

I had a dream in April this year of a volcano explosion and a large lava flow going down through several states of the U.S.. People didn't seem too concerned about it. They were more fascinated with it than concerned about it. It reminded me of photos I had seen of the volcanoes and lava flow in Hawaii. I saw in one of your videos where Jesus said he is coming soon and not to push it back to the fall. So many Christians believe he is coming at Feast of Trumpets. I always felt it would be in the spring simply because of the Song of Solomon. Anyway, he keeps hinting that he is coming, he is coming, he is near, he's at the door...we've been hearing this for so long! Do you think it is really this year? At last??? I tried again to speak to my only child, my daughter (today) of the rapture and her need to "be ready," and she cut me off in mid-sentence and said she didn't want to hear that stuff and not to ever mention it to her again. Her name is Rachel. I thought I would never have children.

I prayed for a child for 7 years and promised God that I would name her after the Rachel in the Bible if he would give me a daughter. I knew how the Bible Rachel felt because Leah was having one baby after another and I had several sisters who were all having one baby after another. I dreamed of her several months before she was born. I guess God was very pleased with what he had done, because the day she was born, she was seen by more than 2.5 million people! She was put into Norton's time capsule because she was the last baby born in their first 100 years of delivering babies and she was born 15 seconds to midnight on New Year's Eve, so she was on our local TV channel and in the newspaper. Another baby, a little boy was actually the New Year's baby, but she was so close that they gave her all the same gifts and publicity. Also, in the year 2007, before I even knew who he was, God revealed to me that the (current) oval office occupant was a VERY EVIL man. Wow, I had no idea HOW evil! My soul is daily vexed with this evil world. Well, you take care and God Bless your ministry more and more! Rene

If the Lord leads you to do so then it will be alright, but I will explain some parts what exactly happened when he showed me things between him and me when he took me in my spirit to heaventhe place was full of details I had the feeling I know this place very well it seemed to be a place where my soul suits in and it felt home but it was more than this, the fragrance was full of my own soul but pure and divine the Lord was standing by big large huge Bushes And I could draw a picture of the hole place there where two large Buildings Villa Style. While this happened I was laying in bed I listened to worship Music and I shivered and his spirit was moving down and up trough my body and my soul...i got healed by each revelation I received....tears where running down my cheek and sometimes I laughed In the Bushes there Where bottles of tears ... In a hiding room when I saw the bushes I knew they where hiding a secret and I understood that those tears where mine cried during my hole life ..later he showed me in a very deep way that he cried much more for me then I did and that every tear he cried kept me alive in him drowning me each time back to him when I was separate from him he also had his bottles with tears standing in a line above mine.

I ask him if I can worship him for his love and felt like bowing down to his feet I love to bow down to his feet and just kiss his feet and rest there he said you really love to do so I said yes I wanted to cry on his feet and felt led to ask if I can pure out one bottle of my tears on his feet he said yes when I did this I cried and got delivered and washed from deep pain inside my soul ...many other things happened but I cant explain everythinghe showed me two other places too everything started with your song Liberation in your playlist on the channel I was anyway crying a lot because I was longing so much after him and then I went to bed I started to listen to the song and suddenly I found myself on a beach and I saw light shooting like little balls through the air... All of this matched to the song.... And I had the feeling that the sound and the things I saw where a part of my identity like those light balls.

He showed me that my heart is making a sound all the time like water that flows down in a stream ...i saw in my spirit that my reasoning is like water before him that flows all the time like a stream he loves to listen to....then he showed me my soul I can't explain it exactly it was just me how he created me in a special way so unique that I don't have to look to other people because I am beautiful the way I am with all the details my passion the way I express my love and so on....this was the very first experience like this ever I follow him now for over 20 years I had so many ups and downs and already huge revelations but he had to allow.... that the enemy could crush me because I was a very stubborn girl... I experienced a lot of things most of it where demons attacking me in the night he always protected me and I could learn a lot about warfarebut I always missed him and a divine revelation about his Love.

I complained a lot I said to him why you just don't show up like you do with otherswhy I can't see you he said but you see me already with your spiritual eyes now I understand that we have to bolder when we come to him o get closer to him.....and I said but I really want to see youand I want to go home because I didn't felt secure most of the time ...the fear of getting separated from him was so strong.....he said again the way I do it for now is the best for you and I accept it the conversations we had where much more complex than I can explain it here but this was the bottom linethe biggest problem I had all the time was to face my broken self esteem ..he is working on this a long timeI only felt loved when I could express myself through other people sucking all the love out of them and looking all the time for attention it made me a slave for peoplein the last three years I am going to consistent revival with repentance brokenness and loosing my life literally... And I had so much hunger for him that I just cry out to him most of the time with a heart full of thanksgiving for everything he did for me already.....

ahh Clare it would fill up a thick book to explain everything in heaven it will be revealed in just one moment to all my sisters and brothers if the Lord allows it...but I think you got a good picture now because you know by your self what I am trying to explain Fact is since I found your channel I got bolder and I see an open land now with truth and justice pure intimacy with my Lord and King and I know he is doing it because he will wants to have me ready for him I almost cant believe it that he wants me for him self to be his Bride and wife forever but he is forcing me to really believe it..... Trying to prove to me al the time that he really wanted me all the time he always is saying to me my dove he did this already before I found your channel for years now he started to say those things over ten years ago but now I understand much more what he means by this he is saying then my beautiful one my pure one my doveand know he is saying things like I got eyes like a dovein German it is something like dovey eyes.

I understand that all of this is his character becoming flesh in me because he is like a dove too so sensitive.....i only touched the surface with this e-mail Â what just happened in the last two weeks but I have to close up now because the rest and most of it I will keep for us for me and my Jesus the one who ever cared for me who wanted me when nobody knew who I am truly in him and who will for ever Love me this is just a short testimony of his faithfulness that he will reward us with him self if we don't give up and search for him with all of our heart and that he can make our heart complete in him also when we are still far away struggling with sin if we keep on trusting him that his power will make way never give up...dear ones of Jesus ...love you all we will be soon home it always will be soon our life is so short this way or another we are going to face eternity very soon...Love Elisabeth

Fire Keeper's 2 2.27.17

Had an amazing heaven journey tonight! too much great consolation to put all into words. But basically I had been brooding in loneliness considering when I left the world for the Lord the world and everyone in it left me because they are all thinking college jobs and parties. No interest in the one who loves them the most whatsoever. Just like how I loved them more than they can imagine and that helped me to tune into the Lord's pain knowing how it feels to only have your family and no one else.

If you want to have something else you have to be a part of the problem with them and if you reject that because you know what is more important they don't give you the time of day. I'm talking about friends since elementary school and beyond. Jesus and ministry and friends who aren't caught up in the world 24/7 really is all this hermit has. That is how the Lord feels about his lost children, they want to get something physical out of life and if it's not right before them the grind is more important.

The Lord comforted me after we discussed our mutual feelings and cried together he told me this. "In heaven you are valued not by accomplishments on Earth knowledge, or prestige, but by your capacity for love of me, all the Fathers creation and one another. You love with all of your heart the best friends who throw you aside for others who fit their profitable agendas. Left with no one else you continue to care for the tiniest creatures who scurry and crawl across your body, protecting the weak from those who might otherwise run right over them.

You feel the emotions of the trees and the plants speak to them in your heart and feel the voice of the wind. You love them more than yourself. Most of all you let all of these things happen and bear the suffering with a smile because you know you still have me... Capacity for love is a reflection of your reward, you are a container, and in heaven no matter how big the container it will all be filled. How you continued to love while experiencing the roads of success and long bouts of suffering and intense loneliness and pain allow your container to take shape. The more you continued to love the bigger the container becomes. The less you loved the smaller it will be.

Once you return home no matter what the size, your reward will be the filling of that container bubbling over and well endowed." We were sitting on a bench in one of the dimensions he wanted to show me that is the next level after heaven it was very beautiful shiny and bright the bench was made from logs split in two. He gave me the name of the creation of that dimension then told me a few things about it but because the mortality of my mind gets in the way some things aren't able to be heard yet. I hear them in my spirit and know them but my mind can't comprehend it.

So I don't think I just BE there and it is all taken in. Anyway tough to explain. But we had a lovely time together I saw many other amazing things I can't really explain but the Lord really comforted me tonight we comforted each other. He told me to share the thing about the container of love and also the sad truth that many of his children are following others blindly and coming to the edge of the cliff now. I continue to pray many will be saved still although I know some will have to go through what's coming, Lord have mercy on your lost lambs. Thank you for the beautiful messages and journeys you've been gracing us with. Jesus is Lord. Come soon Lord we await to receive your true love and be together forever Amen

Last night I had a sacred fire and praised him all night and was brought into one of these same meditations by Lord Jesus after he helped me escape and vacate the mind by reminding me how to turn it off to come back into my heart. He said first turn off the left hemisphere then the right then the back of the brain. After I did I was back in my heart center like I had been all the other times I go there and we were both together around the fire.

He held me in his arms and we were sitting on a grand piano bench and I started to praise and worship him and thank him playing with him crying tears of joy. Allot of other stuff happened after but I won't mention all the father was telling me but it was basically what Jesus is saying in this video. How he would uphold me and he was burning away any demons who might try to come and affect my human mind because Im his and he wouldnt let my spirit be chained down by a product of demonic programming.

I had cried out for assistance around the fire with dealing with the human programming of the mind which makes it susceptible to memory attacks. Boy the father sure cleared that out while Jesus tenderly held me in his arms while I was in spirit. When Jehovah Jira is rebuking Satan from your physical self so hard you go into a vibration pool and purge it out with cold sweat. I'm so peaceful now that there is a barrier I'm going to go back and see them and the angels who are all watching over me making sure I'm okay.

I had made to many connections with others I was trying to help with our energy which needed severed because they were using it for other purposes than the kingdom. Then I got a return so now I feel full of energy the Lord sure was out to pull up ropes last night for our earthly selves we saw you in heaven last night and you told me you were going to have a message and I was anticipating it because it was so beautiful last night with everyone. God bless Clare love you, I know you will be kept safe by Lord Jesus and his protection.

Kristie K. 2.27.17

Thank you for your dedication to Christ and putting up his messages daily. Your obedience is doing wonderful things for everyone who listens (whether they know it or not). I now have a meals-on-wheels route every Tuesday in my little town and it brings me so much joy. I'm 33 years old and they've never had a driver as young as I volunteer, but Jesus has a plan. One of the ladies training me commented on how the recipient's faces just light up when I walk in and it's most notably because of my age - someone of my generation cares. My heart is so full of Him when I drop off the food that I think they sense Christ in me whether they know it or not.

This truly is the fruit of your labor - I praise God everyday for you and your ministry.

May God's blessings be upon you!

Carol J. 2.27.17

Oh, Clare - you have been given such a powerful gift. I lose sight of it sometimes with all the business of trying to keep things going for the Heartdwellers. Maybe that's why the Lord got me up - to slow me down for a while, and let me "smell the roses" again for a bit. That was truly, truly a beautiful, powerful teaching!! May the Lord bless it immensely as it goes out on the air.

I'm struck again with how astonishing it all is that He brought us together. I am continually in awe of Him - where I was a year ago, and where He has me now. Loved. Useful. Blessed beyond measure. Astonishing...

Love you, my sweet Tweetie! Just wanted you to know my thoughts...
