

A neuropsychologist is a psychologist who has specialized training in working with individuals to assess their cognitive functioning. To find a neuropsychologist please click on the following links.

<http://locator.apa.org/> Enter your location and under "I'm looking for help with" choose "neurological."

http://www.findapsychologist.org/advanced\_search.html Enter your location and under qualifications choose "clinical neuropsychological assessment." Try searching neighboring states as well.

http://www.abpp.org/i4a/member\_directory/feSearchForm.cfm?directory\_id=3 Under specialty choose "clinical neuropsychology" and enter your location.

<http://www.wypsych.org/contact-us/> Contact the Wyoming Psychological Association for a referral.

<http://utpsych.org/> Choose "Find a Psychologist" to search for psychologists in Utah by county. Look under specialty areas in each description to find neuropsychologists.