

Palm City Art Associates, Inc.

Membership Meeting March 14, 2018

Minutes

The meeting was called to order at 1pm by President Pat Jayne.

All Board members were present and the membership was seated.

Old Business:

Scholarship Committee Update: Betty Mulholland, on behalf of Kendra Deltano, reported on the status of the scholarship committee that can be released at this time. Candidate interviews have been completed and this year's scholarship fund winners have been identified. The committee has also discussed the potential for giving more scholarships next year.

Wellness Center Committee Update: Betty Betes delivered the update in regard to the Wellness Center displays. The next artwork change out will occur on May 10th. If you wish to move a painting before then, please contact Betty at 772.223.8629 so she can continue to account for all.

Reubens Exhibition Committee Update: Toby Hohenstein reported that the next scheduled change out of artwork on display at Reubens will take place in April, date to be announced. This new exhibition will then be on display throughout the summer. Call Toby at 1.860.941.8515 if you need to make special arrangements.

Manero's Update: Pat Jayne reported that Maneros' renovations are not yet complete. There are a few paintings there by Mallo now, but renovation is expected to be completed by end of April and they are hoping to display many others in a new, fresh display for summer upon the completion.

Charitable Jewelry Donation: Pat Jayne reported that the remainder of the jewelry not sold at the holiday party has been successfully donated to the House of Hope.

New Business:

Membership Dues Payment and Membership Directory: Alice Shann will be sending an email in April to all members in relationship to next year's dues payment process and deadline. Please watch for the notice as membership dues must be paid by the May deadline for members to be listed in the next membership directory.

Volunteer Request: The membership will receive a letter in April requesting that you consider volunteering for a task and/or committee to support the work of the PCAA. There are numerous committees and opportunities to contribute and we seek your support.

Nomination Committee: Chairperson Betty Brain asked for additional nominations from the floor to fill the slate of prospective officers for the coming 2-year term. At present the proposed slate includes:

Alice Shann for President
Ellie Lafer for Vice President
Connie Murgolo for treasurer
Patty White for Secretary
Pat Jayne for Trustee
Lynda Feld for Trustee
Patricia Eddington for Trustee

Betty asked for additional nominations from the floor, hearing none, the proposed new officer slate was completed and closed. Per our bylaws, the slate of newly-proposed officers will be presented in the April meeting for a vote. New officers will be introduced at the May meeting.

Additionally we are seeking volunteers for the Art Show Committee, the Scholarships Committee, Historian and Webmaster. Also we invite any interested party to please consider serving as the Demo Program Chair for the coming year. This position secures demoing artists for our annual program schedule. All materials and contact info will be furnished to you, so all that is required is a few phone calls and preparing the schedule. Please see any board member for more information.

Art Event Announcement: PCAA member and artist, Denise Justice, will have an art show reception from 6-8pm on Thursday evening, March 15 at the Artists Nook in Stuart. She will demonstrate her technique during the reception. The show will be open to the public all weekend.

Arts Council update: Jennifer Hearn gave an update on new artists, and upcoming concerts and events planned by the County Arts Council.

Demonstration: Ellie Lafer, PCAA's Demo Chairperson introduced this month's demo artist Lisa Young. Lisa gave a demo on using gels in your paints to create a three D effect. She also illustrated her creation and use of acrylic slip.

Respectfully submitted to the record by Patty White.
