LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Exodus 15:1-18

A A reading from Exodus.

Then Moses and the people of Israel sang this song to the Lord, saying, "I will sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him. The Lord is a man of war; the Lord is his name. Pharaoh's chariots and his host he cast into the sea, and his chosen officers were sunk in the Red Sea. The floods covered them; they went down into the depths like a stone. Your right hand, O Lord, glorious in power, your right hand, O Lord, shatters the enemy. In the greatness of your majesty you overthrow your adversaries; you send out your fury; it consumes them like stubble. At the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up; the floods stood up in a heap; the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea. The enemy said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil, my desire shall have its fill of them. I will draw my sword; my hand shall destroy them.' You blew with your wind; the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters. Who is like you, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in glorious deeds, doing wonders? You stretched out your right hand; the earth swallowed them. You have led in your steadfast love the people whom you have redeemed; you have guided them by your strength to your holy abode. The peoples have heard; they tremble; pangs have seized the inhabitants of Philistia. Now are the chiefs of Edom dismayed; trembling seizes the leaders of Moab; all the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away. Terror and dread fall upon them; because of the greatness of your arm, they are still as a stone, till your people, O Lord, pass by, till the people pass by whom you have purchased. You will bring them in and plant them on your own mountain, the place, O Lord, which you have made for your abode, the sanctuary, O Lord, which your hands have established. The Lord will reign forever and ever.”

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM 118:1-2, 14-24 (The congregation’s verses are printed in bold font.)

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for | he is good;
his mercy en- | dures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Let Israel | now proclaim,
”His mercy en- | dures forever.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD is my strength | and my song,
and he has become | my salvation.

<sup>15</sup>There is a sound of exulta- | tion and victory
in the tents | of the righteous:

<sup>16</sup>”The right hand of the | LORD has triumphed!
The right hand of the LORD is exalted!
The right hand of the | LORD has triumphed!”

<sup>17</sup>I shall not | die, but live,
and declare the works | of the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD has pun- | ished me sorely,
but he did not hand me o- | ver to death.

<sup>19</sup>Open for me the | gates of righteousness;
I will enter them; I will offer thanks | to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>”This is the gate | of the LORD;
he who is right- | eous may enter.”

<sup>21</sup>I will give thanks to you, for you | answered me
and have become | my salvation.

<sup>22</sup>The same stone which the build- | ers rejected
has become the chief | cornerstone.

<sup>23</sup>This is | the LORD’s doing,
and it is marvelous | in our eyes.

<sup>24</sup>On this day the | LORD has acted;
we will rejoice and be | glad in it.

SECOND READING

Romans 6:3-11

A A reading from Romans.

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider your-selves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

On this day the | LORD has acted;
we will rejoice and be | glad in it.

GOSPEL

Matthew 28:1-10

P The holy gospel according to Matthew.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

Now after the Sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. See, I have told you.” So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. And behold, Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me.”

NICENE CREED

The Nicene Creed is appropriate during Advent, Christmas, Easter, and on festival days; the Apostles' Creed during Lent and at other times.

P With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

C We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

A Victorious Deliverer, we acclaim your defeat of the devil. Trusting in your declaration of justification, may we live in freedom from the accusation of guilt. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

A Loving Redeemer, we affirm your rescue of us from hell. May we never fear the grave or what follows but eagerly anticipate our own resurrection and life everlasting. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

A Mighty Conqueror, we hail you as King of kings and Lord of lords. May we serve you in holiness and righteousness all the days of our lives and into eternity. Lord, in your mercy,

C Hear our prayer.

When giving the bread and cup, the communion ministers say

The body of Christ, given for you.      The blood of Christ, shed for you.

We Lutherans believe that the Body and Blood of Christ are “truly and substantially” present “in, with, and under” the forms of bread and wine. We invite to the communion all who are baptized and communing in this or another Christian denomination. We welcome children and others who are not communing to come forward for a blessing.

Music during Communion:

ANTHEM: Come Proclaim the Victory

Martin

Come, proclaim the victory; rejoice in one accord. Christ has won eternity; He is the Living Lord. The grave is closed, forever sealed, and heaven's power has been revealed. Now come, proclaim the victory; all people praise the Lord.

Come, proclaim the mystery, the wonder of the cross: How the Lord in agony chose death to pay sin's cost. But now the cross in glory stands, a symbol of the Living Lamb! O come, proclaim the victory, the wonder of the cross.

Come and see the risen King. Now, O death, where is thy sting? Come, proclaim the Living Lamb, Great I Am! All hail the King! Bring forth the royal diadem! Rejoice and sing, rejoice and sing: proclaim the King of kings, crown Him King!

(congregation may sing along) Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave and rose victorious in the strife for those He came to save! His glories now we sing, who died, and rose on high, who died eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

(choir only) Come, proclaim the victory, and crown Him Lord of Life! Crown Him Lord of Life!

The Easter Cycle celebrates the events surrounding our Lord's passion, death, and resurrection. Beginning with Ash Wednesday, the Easter Cycle includes the Lenten season, Holy Week, and the Easter Season. This cycle concludes with the Day of Pentecost, as the culmination of the resurrection through the coming of the Holy Spirit to Christ's followers.

The Paschal Candle, symbolic of our Lord's resurrection, is positioned on the Gospel side of the altar and is lighted at all services during the Easter season (up to and including the Day of Pentecost).

The liturgical color white, symbolic of purity, joy, and the light of Christ, is used on the festivals of Christ. Gold is a more festive version of white.

Prayer Chain Volunteers Needed: Did you know Augustus's WELCA has a prayer group? People are invited to call the leader of the group, Carol Oelschlager, or the church office with prayer requests and a group of folks will say special prayers based on these requests. This group is now seeking additional people to pray for our congregants and friends. If you are interested in participating, please call Carol Oelschlager at 610-310-5008.
