Items of Interest to Our Members

- ♦ The Rotary Life Institute (RLI) courses I, II & III are available on Saturday and Sunday, May 22 and 23! This 3 part program, offered every year and offered this year virtually, provides an excellent understanding of what Rotary is all about and of the opportunities available to members within Rotary. The opportunity to enjoy the convenience of participating virtually should not be missed!! Register at the District 7600 Event Calendar at <https://rotary7600.org/calendarevents/>
- ♦ Things are looking good for our annual Freedom Run this year! As of April 21 we have 35 on-line registrants and 3 by mail for a total of 38. Sponsorship seems to be on track. We may have lost 2 from 2 years ago (haven't had any response yet), but we've picked up at least 2 new sponsors.
- ♦ Registration is open as of April 15 for the annual Rotary International Convention, to be held virtually this year on June 12-16! The Convention will be better than ever this year - opening more innovative opportunities to learn and to engage with the family of Rotary near and far! Registration fees are $49 through May 7, and $65 on May 8 through June 16. Go to <https://convention.rotary.org/> to register.

Attendance Jan - 41%, Feb - 41%, Mar - 16%; 3 month average - 33%

Yorktown Rotary Club

Curator of Lee Hall Mansion and Endview Plantation and co-author of two books, local historian J. Michael Moore gave a terrific overview of the Civil War events that took place in and around Yorktown

Recent Events

President Harry gave President-Elect Randy the Bird! The annual tradition was delayed because of no auction this past year and no in-person meetings for several months. But Harry was finally able to pass on The Bird so Randy can predominantly display this historic trophy in a highly visible location!
