RE: Due Date change for 1065 Partnership Returns and 1120 C-Corp with 12/31 Tax Year

I am writing to you as we head into 2018 to REMIND you know of some changes MADE IN 2017 in the Due Dates for your Partnership and C-Corp with 12/31 yearend tax returns.

	Current Calendar Year Taxpayer Deadline			New Rules in 2017
	Due Date	Extension Request to		Due Date	Extension Request to
Partnership	15-Apr	15-Sep		15-Mar	15-Sep
C Corporation	15-Mar	15-Sep		15-Apr	15-Sep

Per the chart above your 1065 Partnership return was due by April 15 and it could be extended up to September 15. Now the due date is March 15 but it can still be extended to September 15.

Per the chart above your 1120 C-Corp return was due by March 15 (if your yearend was 12/31) and it could be extended up to September 15. Now the due date is April 15 but it can still be extended to September 15.

Thank you and I hope this little bit of information helps you with a smooth transition.

Sincerely,

Jack M Nashette, CPA
