WHO'S WHO: Clara is the eldest child of the Stahlbaum, and Fritz is her younger brother. Clara's best friends attend her Holiday Party. Gifts are the Ballerina Doll, Columbine & Harlequin Dolls, and the Soldier/Nutcracker Doll. The Clock sets the beginning of the battle between the Mouse King/Queen and the Soldiers. The Dew Drop Fairy and Angels lead Clara into the Kingdom of Sweets, where she watches Dances from far lands like Spain, Arabia, China, Russia and Germany. Demi Soloist and Soloist roles are defined by the level of difficulty and not by the number of dancers on stage. Role, choreography and number of dancers are at the sole discretion of the Artistic Director.

The role of Clara may be assigned to multiple participants. Each "Clara" is guaranteed performance in One Show ONLY. The day and time of the show you are cast to perform is at the sole discretion of the Ajkun Ballet Theatre. This role requires three mutually agreed days of attendance with the Ajkun Ballet Theatre's company in its Manhattan Studios.

Demi Soloists and Soloists MUST participate in ALL THREE shows.

A LITTLE EXPLANATION ABOUT THE FEE

You may know that ballet is an expensive Art form: daily training & rehearsals, ballet shoes, costumes, props and stage décor all concur to it. When casting a child in a role requiring interactions with a professional of the Company, Ajkun Ballet Theatre hires the dancer for additional time to provide your child with this exceptional experience.

Because Ajkun Ballet Theatre is primarily supported by public donations, we are asking for your contribution to offset what we estimate to be 7% of the additional cost. Thank You!

PLEASE NOTE:

The Ajkun Ballet Theatre will make every effort to supply costumes for featured roles; however, children featured in Demi Soloist or Soloist roles may be required to purchase accessories, props or inexpensive costumes, if size or number is unavailable in our wardrobe.

We are excited to share the Stage with You!
