H.L. Hewitt 1968 Leading Cattle Breeder, Dies

Funeral services for Henry L. Hewitt, 69, prominent Elkton farmer, who died Friday in the Scheurer hospital, Pigeon, were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Monday in St. Paul's EUB church, Elkton. Rev. Ernest G. Bellella, Missionary Church, Elkton, officiated with burial in the Colfax cemetery, Bad Axe.

Mr. Hewitt was born June 2, 1898 in Oliver township. He was a well known Holstein cattle breeder as well as one of the leading dairy producers in Huron county. Hewitt's Holstein entries at the County Fair have dominated that phase of competition for many years.

Henry Hewitt and Martha Stahli were married December 3, 1919.

Survivors are his widow; two sons, Harold Hewitt, Bad Axe and Henry L. Hewitt Jr., Elkton; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Overly, Newaygo and Mrs. Venus Arnold, New Paris, Indiana; 17 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild; one brother, Frank Hewitt, Whittaker; two sisters, Mrs. Glenn Armstrong, Pontiac and Mrs. Matthew Mattison, Royal Oak. Also surviving are a step father, Everett Cook, Elkton and one step-sister, Mrs. Donald Gordon. Detroit.
