

SHINING TIMES

OCTOBER 2025

Come Shoot those Smoke Poles!

Site Address is:

12255 Budlong Lane SE, Mill City, Oregon 97360

Next Meeting: Sat. October 18, 2025 9:30 am

The September club campout had 5 modern camps and one primitive camp. Jerry & Carol were the lone primitive camp. Modern camps were: Ken & Sherry Kinkaid with grandsons Hunter & Wyatt, Jeff & Teresa Kinkaid, Chuck & Lois Kinkaid, Jayson & Jessica Kinkaid with kids Kristen, Makenzie, Jack, Jase, and Mike Nason. A few other members came Saturday morning for the meeting while a few others came in the evening for potluck. We had 13 dutch ovens in the cooking contests for dinner. Jerry won the Main dish category with Italian Mac & Cheese. Teresa won side dish with corn bread. Jayson won Dessert and Best Overall with Marionberry Cheesecake. For the kids, Wyatt won with his Cinnamon Roll Apple Pie, Jase was second with Chocolate Zucchini Cake, Kristen and Makenzie tied for third with Garlic Parmesan Knots and baked beans.

Meeting Minutes September 20, 2025, Club Campout Weekend

Meeting called to order at 11:08 am by President Gordon Ferlitsch.

VP: Absent

Treasurer: Absent

Range: Informal shoot today. BB guns for novelty trail, use paper plate for tiebreaker and to keep your score. Archery and Hawk & Knife blocks at your leisure. We will do a group archery flight shoot from end of rifle trail over to primitive area.

Shoot Recorder: No formal scores kept this month.

Safety: Observe same safety precautions with BB Guns as you would with any other gun. On archery, retrieve at same time after checking that all shooters are ready to retrieve.

Old Business: Opened nominations from floor for officers. Having none, ballots were passed out with nominations from last month. Officers for 2025-2026 are: President, Gordon Ferlitsch. VP, John Unger. Shoot Recorder, Ken & Sherry Kinkaid. Range, Jayson Kinkaid. Safety, Mike Nason. Treasurer, Stefani Stafford. Secretary, Carol Jackson.

New Business: Things to do; Clean Trails. Replace cardboard & repair shoot stands (DONE). Suggested would be good time to look for lost arrows on Spring Rondy archery trail. Kids were told they would be paid $1.00 for each arrow they find. Knief got info for Sportsman Show in Albany, $800 for 10x10 booth. Club is a NO on this. Also got info for Rickreall Gun Show in December, $60 for a table. Club is a YES on this. Gordon, Jeff and Todd have volunteered to help. Dues are due at this time, $30 for a single, $40 for a family.

Announcements: Todd Howard is hosting a bow making class at his farm in McMinnville the first weekend in October.

Land Owner Report: Invasive species list stays at 3, Scotch Broom, Tansy, Canadian Thistle. Rex is waiting for more info on a lawsuit against Pacific Corp for fires. Long range to do's: Cut down more dead trees, move some small trees to make room for covered shooting shed.

Guests: Paul's wife Jennifer Bess.

New Members: None

Shooting Awards for the past year were given out. See attached list.

Voting for Man and Women of the Year. Three men received votes with Jayson Kinkaid winning. Five women received votes with Sherry Kinkaid winning and Makenzie Kinkaid a close second. Sherry deferred the award to Makenzie.

Dutch Oven Cooking Contest and Dinner will be at 5:00 pm tonight.

Adjourned at 12:07 pm

Respectfully submitted by Carol Jackson
