

2022-2023 Temple Beth Shalom Community Commitment Packet

TEMPLE BETH SHALOM
JOYFUL · PERSONAL · ACCESSIBLE

My house shall be called a House of Prayer for all peoples.

Isaiah 56:7

Dear Friends,

Temple Beth Shalom (TBS) means “house of peace,” and that idea is imbued in everything we do. At TBS, all people can find empathy and peace on their Jewish journeys. Together, we have created a community of individuals and families who are committed to the ideals of being Joyful, Personal, and Accessible. Put quite simply: there is a place for everyone at TBS.

As a Reform Jewish congregation, we believe in striving for meaning and modern relevancy in everything that we do. We define our ideals as follows:

- Joyful: Whether we are collecting items for the Mid-Ohio Foodbank, sharing a meal after a “First Friday” Shabbat service, coming together in-person or virtually for Shabbat Services, or enjoying festival programs, TBS is a place of Joyful connection.
- Personal: At TBS, Personal is a verb. We find God in our connections to one another: in every meal brought to someone recovering from an illness, in every laugh around a Shabbat dinner table, in every hug comforting a mourner, in every simcha and lifecycle event.
- Accessible: We are guided by the holy standard from the Book of Isaiah, “My house shall be a house of prayer for ALL people.” TBS is a Jewish home to anyone who is searching.

During these challenging times, we have again learned that the Temple is so much more than just a building. Our community supports one another, engages in learning and activities together, and joins together to find light in even the darkest times. We are excited to connect and worship with you.

Why A TBS Membership Is Important – Now More Than Ever

Since 1977, TBS has been a source of light and positivity in the lives of so many people. Our clergy and Temple community have been there in times of need, sharing the joys and sorrows of life together. Our TBS community is stronger than ever today, and we continually find new ways to support one another. This year our leadership reaffirmed the long-standing principle: personal finances should never be a barrier to living a Jewish life and being part of our Jewish community.

In keeping with these values that have sustained our Temple since its creation, we want you to know, even if you are currently in a financial situation where you can't contribute to TBS or can't contribute at the level you hope, we want you to retain your membership.

At the same time, our community is thriving today in part because of the generosity of many in our congregation who have stepped up to support the Temple. If you are in a position to donate a little more this year, your contribution will go far to ensure the Temple can maintain the high level of services, programs, connection, and lifecycle and pastoral guidance that define our community.

As we look forward to renewed strength and engaging with one another, it is clear the future is bright for TBS. We in the Temple leadership are ever so grateful to count you as a member again for this coming year. Thank you for making TBS your Jewish home.

L'Shalom,

Rabbi Benjy Bar-Lev, Bobby Covitz, Mindy Agin, & Michael Griffaton

Giving Above & Beyond

At TBS, we believe strongly in the benefits of a Temple membership being available to anyone who is interested. As such, we will not turn away any household due to an inability to pay standard dues. TBS is able to subsidize its membership due to the generosity of its Above & Beyond supporters, who provide support “above and beyond” the standard commitment. Whether it’s $100 above standard dues or one of the levels below, please consider an Above & Beyond commitment. It truly makes a difference for the TBS community!

- Kindle the Flame Level: $3,000-$4,999
- Sustain the Flame Level: $5,000-$7,499
- Eternal Light Level: $7,500+

In addition to fulfilling the mitzvah of Tzedakah, Above & Beyond members receive additional benefits such as donor receptions and special recognition throughout the year. If you’d like to discuss your contribution, please be in touch with Executive Director Bobby Covitz at bobby@tbsohio.org or (614) 665-9520.
