

Bio: Ann Kagdis

Ann Kagdis has been a resident of the Town of Ocean Breeze since 1998. Elected to the Town Council in 2010, she was recently appointed as President of the Town Council.

Besides the Town Council, she is very active in a number of other municipal organizations, including the Treasure Coast Regional League of Cities, Florida League of Cities and the Treasure Coast League Advocacy Team.

Graduated from Brown University and Rutgers University with a B.A. and M.Ed., she worked for 50 years in the education field in the Newark School System, both as a teacher and principal. She was also an instructor at Union County College where she taught history. Later Ann worked with the Foundation of Educational Administration as an assessor and at Eaton Library at Tufts University.

President Kagdis is still active in a number of organizations including the Preservation Foundation, Norton Museum of Art, Jensen Beach Chamber of Commerce, History Museum of Jensen Beach and the City Association of Supervisors and Administrators.

She is a mother of three and grandmother to seven grandchildren.