Fans Celebrate Marilyn Monroe's Birthday at The Hollywood Museum in Hollywood. The event brought international collectors together for an unprecedented exhibit of never before seen Monroe childhood photos, film costumes, public appearance gowns, personal clothing, jewelry, furniture, make-up, and much more. The exhibit is showcased in the very building where the blonde image of Marilyn Monroe was created by make-up and hair genius, Max Factor. The Blondes room, Brunettes room, Brownettes room and Redheads room were restored to their original glory. The exhibit runs to September 6th.
