NURTURE: Stewards: Lucy Granger, Nancy Bell, Bonnie Gramling & Wanda Ballenger

This is a Church Council position and holds a box in the shelf outside the church office.

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another – and all the more as you see the Day approaching. Hebrews 10:24-25

The Nurture committee has an important function in the life of our church. Nurture includes everything that seeks to bring us closer together as a congregation. Family suppers, the church picnic, Christmas caroling, etc. all come under nurture. Major responsibilities of chairpersons follow:

1. Set the year's calendar after consulting with the minister and the committee. We first assign an activity to each food group and then decide who is responsible for the rest of our activities. We try to offer some type of fellowship opportunity each month.
2. Recognizes our Sunday School teachers during the worship service.
3. Find child care for all special worship services.

4. Work with the minister to plan Graduate Recognition Sunday. Purchase gifts for grads.
5. Provide information to newsletter editor monthly pertaining to fellowships and worship opportunities.

Members of the Nurture Committee are

Children & Adult Choir Leaders, Children's Coordinator, UMYF Coordinator, Church Secretary, Age Level / Family Coordinator and members at large to be selected by the chairperson.

- Process is repeated until everyone on the list is contacted.
- Do Not: Add to message, give personal comment or opinion on message, give personal opinion or comment on person or family for whom prayer was requested.

FOOD SERVICE GROUPS

The food groups are a vital ministry in our church. They are one of the ways we can show our love for one another. The food groups have two primary areas of responsibility:

- 1: To provide food when our church family experiences a death
- 2: To make arrangements for our major church fellowships

Funerals:

All the members of Gramling United Methodist Church always show their concern when there is a need in the community. One of these times is when a family experiences the loss of a loved one. Each of our ladies should be included in one of six groups who will provide a meal for the bereaved family on the day of the funeral. To ensure that we as a church treat each family equally, we've established this policy or rule as follows: We will serve lunch on the day of the funeral when a member passes away or when the family of the deceased is at the home of a member, and when an immediate family member dies who has no church home. If there are other churches involved, of course we will work with them in deciding when we will serve.

Along with the groups, a menu has been planned and you will be asked to prepare enough of your dish to serve 12 to 13 people - one group should serve 25 people. Plates, cups, forks, and napkins are available in the Social Hall - to be picked up by the Chairperson.

The Chairpersons will take the food to the home and leave it with the family--unless the family requests that we stay and help with the serving. If the family so desires, the meal can be served in the church Social Hall.

If there is any reason why you cannot serve when asked, or if your name is not on one of these lists, or if your phone number is not listed or is not correct, please call the church office at 472-2551.

Please do not use your best china or serving dishes for your food, and put your name on any dish that you wish to have returned to you. Empty dishes are to be returned to the church kitchen by the families, so they may be picked up by their owners.

If possible, please purchase some of the disposable containers in the foil section of your grocery store. This will make it much easier for the families if they do not have to worry about returning dishes.

Fellowships:

So that tasks are evenly distributed throughout the congregation, food groups will handle some of our church-wide fellowships throughout the church year. The Nurture Committee will notify each group's chairpersons in advance, and the chairpersons will help their group arrange for any decorations, set-up, serving, or clean up.

1st thru 6th

Laura Gramling & Sarah Harrison (1st floor next to youth room)

Each individual teacher implements his or her own curriculum and activities for the children.

We thank God for the opportunity to teach these children of His love.

YOUTH SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS: Beth Edmondson (teacher)

Our Sunday School Class is for 7th through 12th graders. We meet on the third floor of the church. We study a variety of age-appropriate topics based on interests and suggestions of the class members and teachers. This is a high participation class and our discussions are thought-provoking and lively! We encourage each other to work on our personal relationships with Christ thru study, prayer, and devotion. All are welcome!!

GOOD SINNERS CLASS

This class meets in the parlor and is for adults of all ages. We typically select a book of the Bible and cover one or two chapters each week. Discussion ranges from books and people in the Bible to current social issues. We come to the class presuming we are sinners who need God's help in finding solutions to our life situations. We are sensitive to our social responsibilities, as well as our commitment to Bible study, prayer and seeking God's will.

THE UPPER ROOM CLASS: Ty Granger & Bruce Woodfin (teachers)

This class meets each Sunday morning on the first floor. Lessons involve lively discussion of scriptural-based topics with an emphasis on modern day application of Biblical truths. The only prerequisite for this class is a desire to know more about God's word and our relation to it. The 24+ members of this class range in age from young adult to middle age. Our goal is to provoke a level of self-questioning that will carry beyond our Sunday morning meetings into our daily lives and positively impact our relationship with God and with other people. We welcome new members and hope you will join us.

ANNE FRYGA CLASS: Teachers: Rev. Will Brown, Rev. Don Hope, & John Gramling III
President: Nona Morgan V. President: Peggy Campbell Secretary/Treasurer: Nancy Ramsay
I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the House of the Lord. Psalms 122:1

This class meets in the Social Hall. Our Sunday School Class tries to express our love and concern not only to our class - but also to anyone who needs help. We have given memorials, shared food for the sick and bereaved, love gifts to the needy, visits to the hospitals, nursing homes, and to the sick and shut-ins at home, transportation for doctor visits.

This class follows a lecture/discussion format. It consists primarily of senior adults. Regardless of your age, we invite you for fun and fellowship.

COVERED BRIDGE CLASS ó Teacher: Elizabeth Edmondson ó college and above

The Young Adult Sunday School Class is a growing class intended for college students, recent college graduates, and twenty-somethings. However, anyone is welcome to join the class who might not fall into one of those categories. The class focuses on discussion-based lessons that apply scripture to our daily lives and seeks to equip members to keep Christ at the center of every aspect of their lives. The class meets on the third floor, in the middle classroom.

1. You may bring your child's bottle or sippy cup if they need it during the worship hour.
2. Please provide diapers and wipes; however, we do usually have some on hand for emergencies.
3. You may pass your baby over the safety gate to a worker, but if your child needs a few minutes with you before you go, please feel free to come in. We will do everything to keep your child calm and entertained so that you can enjoy the worship service.
4. If you have any instructions concerning your child, writing them down for the nursery worker will be helpful.
5. If your child is new to the nursery leave the location in the church where you will be sitting.

This is a Church Council position.

“Ask the former generations and find out what their fathers learned, for we were born only yesterday and know nothing, and our days on earth are but a shadow. Will they not instruct you and tell you?

Will they not bring forth words from their understanding?” Job 8: 8-10

It is the responsibility of the church historian to help collect, organize, preserve, and present historical information about our church. In doing so, it is hoped that our members as well as visitors will better understand that our church would not exist without a great deal of effort, sacrifice, and faith on the part of those who preceded us.

Churches, like families and nations, have distinct characteristics that set them apart. The special character of Gramling church is the summation of the beliefs and personalities of not only our present membership but also of the pioneers of our church. Today, our challenge is to meet the needs of our growing community while maintaining the friendly, family-like atmosphere that has always been our trademark. In order to do so, it is important for all our members to be aware of our origins and the way in which our church has responded to opportunities and adversities during its history.

This person is also responsible for ringing the bell to signal the end of Sunday school.

We strive to have a Sunday School class for anyone who wishes to participate. Sunday school is a class setting for studying God's Word so we may incorporate his teachings into our everyday lives.

The Sunday School Superintendent is also responsible for ordering the Bibles for our rising 3rd graders and presenting the Bibles during the worship service on Promotion Sunday, which is always the first Sunday in September.

Kindergarten and up group meets on Wednesday evenings and begins with supper at 6:00, followed by choir from 6:30 to 7:15. We spend our time praying together, learning scripture passages, and singing. We also work on one musical each year, either at Christmas or in the spring. The enthusiasm of these children, the earnestness of their praying, and the openness of their hearts, makes being with them one of the great joys of my life. All are welcome. Please join us.

The Children's Choir Director will work with the Nurture Committee to plan a calendar of yearly events and with the Choir Director and Pastor for worship services.

HANDBELL CHOIR Director: Fran Davis

CHOIR DIRECTOR AND CHANCEL CHOIR Mindy Burgin

This is a Church Council position and holds a box in the shelf outside the church office.

The Director is on the Nurture and Worship Committees.

New members are encouraged to join the choir. Chancel choir membership is open to any one that wishes to use their singing talent to praise and worship our Lord with the group. Being able to read music is not required ó just a willingness to come to rehearsals on Wednesday nights (7:00 ó 8:00pm) and learn the music with the group. We sing pieces in four-part harmony: soprano, alto, tenor and bass.

The high points of our year include special music during Christmas and Easter seasons with an annual Christmas Cantata usually on the Sunday evening just before Christmas.

The Chancel Choir Director is responsible for selecting music, directing rehearsals and coordinating all aspects of any adult choir performance. Occasionally, additional rehearsals are scheduled before special performances (Christmas). The Chancel Choir Director is a paid staff position and is responsible to SPRC. The Chancel Choir

TREASURER Colette Duncan:

This position holds a box inside the church office.

Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed. Romans 13:7

The treasurer is responsible for making monthly payments to the S.C. Conference office to cover our apportioned amount of support for ministries beyond our local area; also for paying all bills incurred through the weekly operation of the church and any other bills deemed necessary by the Church Council or any expense necessary by the Trustees for maintenance and upkeep of physical facilities. The treasurer is to pay all staff salaries and present a report of all expenditures to the Church Council as well as a weekly report in Sunday's bulletin. FINANCIAL SECRETARY Bonnie Gramling (2020)

"What is more, he has chosen by the churches to accompany us as we carry the offering, which we administer in order to honor the Lord himself and to show our eagerness to help. We want to avoid any criticism of the way we administer this liberal gift. For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of men." 2 Corinthians 8:19-21

The Financial Secretary's main responsibilities consist of maintaining an accurate financial record of giving for individual church families. In January, the church secretary will provide those families with a year-end print-out of all of their financial support for tax purposes.
