Additional important information:

- All show team practices will be mandatory beginning July 1st. Routine choreography will begin and it is important your diamond attends all practices. Attendance will be taken every practice.
- Please refer to the Facebook parent group for important information, due dates, and reminders. This will be the main form of communication between the parents and coaches.
- All fees must be paid on or before the due dates listed above. Failure to make payments could result in late fees and/or your athlete's uniform not arriving in time for the first performance.
