Spring update

BREAKING FUNDING NEWS!

Representative Jules Bailey has proposed House Bill 2516 to open a conversation about permanent funding for Outdoor School for ALL students in Oregon to attend for a full week.

Already our House Bill 2516: "Outdoor School for Everyone" has moved on to Ways and Means! This is the next step toward getting our bill considered by the whole House.

NOW is the time to get involved with securing funding at the state level! Visit the our website for more information about the bill and ways you can help.

Please say THANK YOU to the House Energy & Environment Committee:

- Chair Bailey, the author or the bill
- Rep. Boone
- Rep. Johnson
- Rep. Bentz
- Rep. Dembrow
- Rep. Reardon
- Rep. Vega Pederson
- Rep. Weidner
- Rep. Whitsett

Spread the word and please write a letter to your local legislator telling your story of why you love Outdoor School! The future of Outdoor School depends on it!

Outdoor School Influence

Our friend Kurt "Jazz Man" Deutscher, a former ODS staff member and past chair of the MESD Foundation, now leads a web services company called NetRaising serving schools and nonprofits. Recently, NetRaising became a Certified B Corporation (one of only about 30 in Oregon!). A Certified B Corporation uses the power of business to solve social and environmental problems. Kurt attributes his environmental focus as starting at Outdoor School and states, "it has played a huge role throughout my life; and now has officially become a part of my business."

Way to go, Kurt!

Has your Outdoor School experience influenced your career? Tell us about it and we may feature you in our next newsletter!

"'Outdoor School has taught me to love myself, love working with children, and love the world around me. Outdoor School has affected every fiber of my being and I want [all] children to be able to go through the same amazing experience.'

Molly “Crane” Anderson, Student Leader: 6 weeks on Plants and Soil and Sandy River”

Create Your Lasting Legacy

When people who love Outdoor School begin to assess and plan their estates, two basic values often emerge. First, quite naturally, is to take care of their spouse and children. Second is to have their lives make a difference, to create a meaningful legacy for the causes in which they believe, such as Friends of Outdoor School.

There are many estate planning and tax-incentive charitable giving opportunities available to all donors. You can find more information on our website (www.friendsofoutdoorschool.org/Leave-a-Legacy.html).

Michelle-Shari Kruss, Attorney at Law has kindly offered to provide Outdoor School supporters with their estate and gift planning initial consultation at no cost. Taking advantage of this pro-bono service enables our donors to sit down with a professional who can provide them with a clearer understanding of how specifically they can help their own families while still supporting Outdoor School.

If you are interested in setting up such a consultation with Michelle-Shari Kruss, Attorney at Law please feel free to contact her directly at (503) 490-4020 or Michelle-Shari@krusslaw.com, or let us know and we are happy to schedule an appointment for you.

Welcome to The Board, Rex & Jennifer!

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome Rex Burkholder and Jennifer Satalino onto our Board of Directors!

Rex was previously a Metro Council member for 12 years and helped initiate the Metro-ODS partnership.

Jennifer Satalino is no stranger to Outdoor School either. She was previously on the E² Board (Friends of Outdoor School’s former parent nonprofit) for many years.
