

August Storm, an old and respected resident of Caseville township, died at his home one mile north of Berne Sunday at the age of seventy-five years. The deceased leaves a wife, three sons Henry, Edward and Martin, two daughters, Mrs. Henry Harris and Mrs. Simon Wilfong, all of Caseville township, besides a large circle of friends to mourn his departure. The funeral services were conducted at the German M. E. church Tuesday, Rev. Bank officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Berne cemetery.
