

Moncus, Lamar

Lamar Moncus, 83, of Lake Township, died Monday, October 6, 2003, in Albany, Georgia. He was born on Jan. 31, 1920 to the late Charlie and Mary Lou (Daniel) Moncus in Dawson, Georgia. After serving in the Army during World War II, he returned home to Detroit. There he met and was united in marriage to Pauline Nichols on April 14, 1951. She preceded him in death on February 20, 1989. He later married Elizabeth Howell on March 19, 1997 in Phoenix City, Alabama. They made their winter home in Albany, Georgia. He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; his daughter, Virginia McMullen, of Warren; three grandchildren, Terry, David, and Michael; a great-grandson, Patrick; a brother, Foye Moncus and his wife, Reba, of Leesburg, Georgia; three sisters, Jessie Wills, of Parrot, Georgia, Annie Wheeler, of Dawson, Georgia, and Mary Lou Hart, of Eastpointe. A brother, Carlton Moncus, preceded him in death. Visitation and funeral services were conducted on Thursday, October 9, 2003, at the Hall & Hall Funeral Home in Albany, Georgia. A memorial service will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Saturday, May 1, 2004, at Riverside Cemetery, Elkton. His cremains will be interred next to Pauline. Words of condolence may be left at www.champagnefuneralchapel.com.