

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Real Estate Attorney Caroline Achey Edwards
Selected as Top Rated Lawyer

Newtown, PA (October 2014) – Martindale-Hubbell® has awarded Caroline Achey Edwards its prestigious rating of AV® Preeminent™ in Real Estate, Zoning, Planning and Land Use, based upon peer reviews.

The AV Preeminent rating is the highest rating awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, and is based upon achievement of a Very High General Ethical Standards rating and rating of performance in five key areas of legal ability: legal knowledge; analytical capabilities; judgment; communication ability; and legal experience. Attorneys who have achieved the AV Preeminent rating are those who have been recognized by their peers as having the highest level of ethics and professional excellence. In awarding its Peer Review Ratings™, Martindale-Hubbell asks other lawyers and the judiciary to assess the lawyer's general ethical standards and legal ability in a specific area of practice.

Peers evaluating Edwards noted: “Caroline is an excellent land use lawyer and very professional toward opposing counsel”; “thorough and detail-oriented”; “an upstanding attorney with long experience in the field of real estate transactions and a sterling reputation”; and “very knowledgeable in her area of expertise.”

The Law Offices of Caroline Achey Edwards represents and counsels clients with an emphasis on providing high-quality legal services, rendered with integrity and efficiency. The firm has been serving clients since 1993, and represents clients in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Ms. Edwards' practice focuses on zoning and land use, commercial real estate transactions and leasing, the formation of planned communities and residential and commercial condominiums, and commercial condominium conversions. For more information, visit www.caedwardsesq.com.

###

Contact: Caroline A. Edwards, Esq.
caedwards@caedwardsesq.com
215-504-8840