

Shuart, Naomi

Naomi Shuart, 97, of Bad Axe, went to be with her Lord on Sunday, February 12, 2006. She was born November 21, 1908 in Elkton to the late William and Herlanda Ewald. She was united in marriage in March of 1928 to Graydon Shuart. He preceded her in death in 1963. Mrs. Shuart spent most of her life in Bad Axe. She and her husband, Graydon, owned and operated Golden Rule Dairy in Bad Axe for many years. She was a member of the Bad Axe Assembly of God Church for 56 years and she taught Sunday school many of those years. She enjoyed her family, sewing, reading, traveling, walking and serving the Lord. She is survived by five children, Allene Walker, Jean (Jack) Rochefort, Janet (Joe) Rotger, all of Bad Axe, Patricia (Art) Ortega, of Port Austin, and Clark (Veniece) Shuart, of Fillion; daughter-in-law, Janie Shuart, of Bad Axe; 21 grandchildren; 58 great-grandchildren; and nine great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one son, Jim (Ace) Shuart; one son-in-law, Bill Walker; and two grandchildren. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, February 15, 2006, at Evangel Life Assembly of God Church in Bad Axe. The Rev. Robert Smith will officiate. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday at the MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe and from 10 to 11 a.m. on Wednesday at the church. Burial will be in the Colfax Township Cemetery. Memorials may be offered to the Evangel Life Assembly of God Church.
