

Call Me Up, Baby

I've gone through that conversation
Over and over in my mind.
Must be a hundred times.
But every time I say hello
I forget my lines.

Call me up, baby
Call me up, baby
Call me up, baby

I go for weeks and weeks without talking to you
Then, when I give in
And, I always do
Your number's busy
And I can't get through

Call me up, baby
Call me up, baby
Call me up, baby
