

ROY D. HARDER

1940 - 1995

Roy D. Harder, 55, a native of Bay Port, died Monday, Oct. 30, in Standish Community Hospital following a short illness.

He was born July 11, 1940, a son of the late Weaver and Luella (Kline) Harder. He was married to Angel Dalos Santos in Lake Charles, LA, on Aug. 24, 1982, and she survives him.

Mr. Harder was a licensed tug boat captain and a commercial fisherman for several years.

Surviving, besides his wife Angel are three daughters and one son and their spouses: Tina and Marty TerBush, Wanda Doyle, Lynn and Tom Evangelisti and Roy Harder, 10 grandchildren, five brothers, Mike, Elmer, Lloyd and Jerry Harder, all of Bay Port, Cliff Harder of Texas, and several nieces and nephews.

One daughter, Christine Eileen Harder, three sisters, Eileen Brooks, Valerie Livingston and Judy Harder, and three brothers, Chuck, James and Weaver Harder, Jr., preceded him in death.

The funeral service took place at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 1, in Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home, Sebawaing, with Pastor Wayne Keim officiating. Burial was in New Bay Port Cemetery, Bay Port.
