ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

She stood behind Jesus weeping and when the time was right, bathed his feet with her tears, wiped them with her hair, kissed them and anointed them with ointment. What we see is a woman who has already been forgiven, without even asking and her acts are an expression that she realized what she had received and is grateful. †

SOCIAL DISTANCING MANDATE POLICY AT SAINT PAUL

Even though the mask mandate has been lifted by the Diocese, we are still required to maintain social distancing within our church. Thus, current policy only allows us a strict and limited seating capacity.

Unfortunately, once our capacity is met, and every chair is occupied we are required to close the doors and allow no one else to enter.

Therefore, we encourage you to arrive a little early to ensure you find seating.

This is not a pleasant thing to enforce, and hopefully it will not last much longer. Please be patient and realize that we are only doing what is required of us.

DISPENSATION

The dispensation for those good folks not able to meet their Sunday obligation has been lifted.

Dispensation continues only for those who are sick and severely disabled, restricted to their home or medical facility and unable to attend Mass.

The dispensation is also allowed for those who still hold a fear of COVID, but only if they are totally self-quarantined to their home and not going out into the public, e.g., dining out, driving, shopping, socializing, conducting business outside of church, etc.

If folks can move about publicly, they can also attend Mass.

EXTEND AN INVITATION

Since near the beginning of the pandemic, some of our parishioners who are very faith filled have become comfortable viewing Mass on TV or online. However, none of these media outlets allows us to receive the Living Bread from heaven. Now that we are slowly, but surely heading in the right direction and increasing our seating capacity each month, Saint Paul Catholic Center is asking you to extend an invitation to a friend or family member to return and celebrate Mass with us again.
