Come to Me, I Long For You

June 4, 2017

May our precious Lord bless you, dear Heartdwellers, and may our hearts long for Jesus as He longs for us.

I wanted to share with you all, how when I come into worship, the Lord is there and waiting for me, wanting to hold me and dance. The expression on His face has been so happy just to see me. So happy that I fully trust and believe in Him, so happy that I want to be there with Him in just that precious way.

It is so hard to leave His arms behind to go onto work: writing, singing and music—so very, very hard. There is such peace and nourishment in His arms and many times I drift off into a sweet place that almost overtakes me in sleep. When I come back from this place, my heart is fully rested and anointed for the work at hand. But I do not go there for that. I go to love Him and acknowledge to Him, “Jesus, I cannot live without Your love.”

But what most consoles me is His expression of welcoming. Just the expression on His Holy Face says, “I’ve been waiting for you. I’m so happy to see you. Thank you for loving Me.” My heart just melts when I realize how incredibly vulnerable He is to us, dear people. Oh, don’t let Him down. Don’t allow the enemy to steal His time away from Him in your life. Protect it for it is truly holy nourishment and empowering and oh, how happy you make Him when you come into His presence just to adore Him.

And I know for all of us work-a-holics, sometimes we want to cut to the chase and start working. But this is not what makes Him happiest. We get a sense of fulfillment from our work. It meets the aching human need and desire to be wanted and useful. But it does not meet the aching desire of His heart to be loved by us.

And I thought about it. Sometimes it can almost become a usury thing, where we go there to get the empowerment and come to do our 'thing'. And that's not what it's all about. It's all about loving Him and that loving exchange is what empowers us. The focus is not on getting what WE need, to go do what we want to do or what He wants us to do. The focus is on loving Him and truly being present to Him in whatever way is required of us at the time.

And sometimes He's wearing a crown of thorns and He needs to be comforted. And other times He's dressed in wedding attire and just wants to be with us.

Yes, He is very happy when we do things for the Kingdom that He has called us to do. Very happy indeed. But nothing brings Him more joy than our longing to be with Him and worship Him in spirit and in truth, with hearts on fire.

I must always make that time for Him—my entire being cannot go without Him for even a day. I must drink in His holy presence and enter into His rest. And in this place, those nasty barbs of fear and unbelief are scattered and my confidence in His faithfulness washes over me, healing every wound inflicted by my flesh, the world and our enemy.

I'm sorry I have been away from you so long. The allergies here in Taos have been off the charts and I've been requiring oxygen to supplement my energy. Now THAT makes me feel old! When I see that gizmo on my nose, I think 'What in the world has become of me that I need oxygen?'

Just another brush with mortality I guess!

But the practical side of that is that I've been physically exhausted and unable to function. However, I did get a little music done on a twenty-minute long piece, because certain of our prayer warriors wanted a longer piece of music. And it will get posted very soon, I'm going to post it in two parts. My working title for it is "The Realms of Heaven". We will see if that stands. I really believe it will minister to you, the melody is just...just beautiful. Just wonderful.

And these things come from Heaven. These songs are stored up in Heaven and passed out to musicians here on Earth. Priests and musicians, ministers. They are all in that same place of very special service to the Lord.

So, Ezekiel is doing very, very well and we are standing on the Lord's promises—I wanted to update you on that. Each day, the Lord renews my faith that what He has said, that He will do. And He's doing it, too. It's amazing, some of the things that are happening with his body.

That Scripture comes before my eyes every day. And I am amazed.

He began speaking to me, "We walk by faith not by sight. This is what I said to you yesterday and it still stands today. Faith that what I have promised I will fulfill. Right now you are carrying intercessory burdens with your breathing issues. But it will not always be that way. There will come a time when I release you from that."

And He has touched my lungs before, to the point where they were on fire and burning, and my breathing was fully restored. So, I am looking forward to that miracle again.

I didn't quite get it when He said, "I will release you", so I asked Him, 'Really? I thought the crosses got harder and harder until You take us Home?'

"Clare, you will always have a cross, but it will not always be a sickness cross; there are many other crosses, My dear one. For now, this is My chosen means to humble you and promote the Kingdom. This is the climb up that mountain that we talked about months ago. And just as the armed services is continually training their men and keeping them fit, so do I train and keep you fit, lest you fall into self-serving and sloth."

"My coming is not that far away, Beloved, not far at all. So these truly are light and momentary burdens, tailor-made crosses for you. Just as I inhabit the praises of My People, I am with you in your crosses, by your side, suffering with you. Making you stronger and opening your eyes and hearts wider and wider to My presence in your life. And to your similarity to Me, as well."

"Joy always follows on the heels of suffering, and My blessings fall upon you after hours of your trial. Otherwise you could not stand in the midst of these turbulent times. Yet as you go deeper into My Love for you, and My Need for your comfort, Your trust in My Promises—you become stronger and stronger and arrive at a place where you would have fallen before, but now you stand in faith."

And when He said that, I saw Him holding a polishing cloth and rubbing a small, gray and tarnished silver pitcher over and over again until it was gleaming white.

"Yes, in just this way I polish you and remove the tarnish of the world from you, until all that is exposed is white and gleaming silver. This is how I keep you in readiness for serving the Master's table. Always buffed and polished. You carry forth nourishment to others by this process of continual cleansing and polishing. Sometimes it is a tender hand catching you when you fall, or time taken to remove the dross and stains on your heart from the world."

"Other times it is the test of carrying precious nourishment to others, while you are assailed by the enemy, and afterwards repairing the corrosion and damages done by their attacks. There is a continual refining process taking place in you, My Dove, and in all My Brides. How I long for the day you ascend into Heaven with Me and your cleaning detail is over with!"

"But for now we are working together, bringing forth the good and weeding out the bad. All of this is necessary on a daily basis or you will not grow. It cannot all be a trial or you will be discouraged; nor can it be all victory, or you will grow lax."

"So, I balance this holy life within you with healings, polishings and refining. And in this way, the Harvest of Righteousness continues to grow in your lives. I want you all to begin to look to the good I am doing in your lives. Look to the victories. Look to the new anointings and celebrate these good things. Even Nehemiah's men took time out for recreation in the midst of their great work. Though even in those brief times, their swords were in readiness by their sides."

"You cannot afford to be without this protection for even one millisecond. You must always be clothed in My armor carrying your weapon in the awareness that the enemy never sleeps."

"I am with you, My beautiful chosen ones. I am with you. Nourishing, healing and loving you all the day long. Please come to Me and do not pass by this time I need with you as much as you need with Me. For when you pass this time by and are not properly armed and prepared, I am by your side still. And when the arrows of unbelief hit you, I suffer your pains in My heart—exclaiming, 'Oh, My beautiful Bride, why didn't you prepare yourself for this day? Oh, how I hurt with you.'"

"Allow Me to prepare you each day, and do not deprive Me of your tender worship. I am leaving you with the sweet fragrance of longing that I have for you. Come to Me, My Bride and rest here in My bosom, where I shall continually restore your soul as you bring comfort to Mine."

Miraculous Signs, Demonic Attack, Surgery by Jesus

June 7, 2017

Well, my dear family, I have to tell you there is nothing as exciting as working for the Lord. What an amazing God we serve!

And may He bless you with increase in hope as He leads you into your destinies.

I have to tell you, the Lord did something really amazing in the midst of Ezekiel's illness. After each bout with this sickness, when he'd get extreme pain. It would come and go—the Lord comes and repairs Ezekiel's body. I've seen it in the spirit, and it's absolutely amazing to see.

The other night he started to experience extreme pain, I prayed for him like I never had before, especially in tongues. At the foot of his bed I saw a black demon about 12 feet long, with a black spear, that was thrust down into his body where the pain was.

I prayed against this thing using a routing sword that had been given us in the spirit, and it was injured and removed by the holy angels, taken to the abyss. As I watched the Lord, He came to his left side and repaired the damage done to the abdomen until it looked like healthy, pink flesh, with all its integrity. I saw Him doing this in the spirit. I have seen operations like this before in the spirit over the years, but this one was so clear. I was amazed by what Jesus was doing. He removed all the corrupted flesh and repaired the torn flesh from the lance that the demon had held.

Ezekiel's pain stopped, totally. Pain that had been in his body in several different places: his back, his legs his abdomen—all of them stopped hurting. After all this had happened, my husband heard the Lord's voice so very clearly and saw Him as well. His discernment and understanding came with so much clarity. From that point on, he was sharing with me amazing insights that he had received.

But one particular event was notable. It occurred during a meeting with our prayer warriors, when they were all praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet together at the close of the meeting. I had to retire from it early, and Ezekiel took over and had a communion service. At the end, when they were praying, the uncreated light came blazing through a window Ezekiel was sitting next to. Absolutely AMAZING.

The uncreated light is a supernatural sign from Heaven that God is with us. And we have had it happen many times before, but this was the most spectacular I have ever seen it.

This was a west-facing window and the sun was also setting in the west outside the window. So, there were a few rays of sun coming in from the window. But what was so amazing, as you can see in the photo, there is a clearly defined, round edge to the light coming in the window. It should have shown all the way into the room, streams of light. But as you can see, it stopped and formed a perfect circle. And I believe some of the sunlight that filtered through the window did reach his shoulder, and perhaps his face—I'm not sure.

I was a professional photographer and I guarantee you, this is not lens flare, it is purely miraculous. All the prayer warriors saw it on Skype as well. And it can't be seen with the naked eye, it could only be seen through a camera lens. And that's a beautiful grace that the Lord shares with us sometimes. What a beautiful sign verifying Ezekiel's leadership role on our channel, and that God is with the Channel. He is very much behind the scenes, suffering for us and directing us when a crisis comes up. And this light was a solid confirmation of the importance of his role.

I had taken a nap and when I woke up he said to me, "You'll never believe what just happened; when you see it, you will fall out of your chair." Instantly I knew it was the uncreated light in some form, I just didn't know what form it manifested in. When I came in and watched the video and I looked at the screen shots that he had taken, it was truly amazing. I just never seen anything that brilliant. And I really felt... Well, it's happened before. It appeared above his staff once, that was a confirmation of his authority. So when he showed it to me, I was not at all surprised but very happy and excited for God's sign in our lives.

You know, when you live with someone day-in and day-out, you have little disagreements and things that you both suffer as inconveniences with each other. I like the windows open—he likes them closed. So, I'm not exactly easy to live with! And there are times when I am less respectful than I should be. And the Lord convicts me of that.

But that day I was excited for him to take over the meeting while I rested and the event that followed brought so much joy and confirmation to us all! Because Ezekiel has a very hidden role. That does not mean he's not important. His role is vital. So, that's the photo you are looking at. If his role were not very vital, our enemies would not be trying to kill him all the time.

Then the Lord began to speak to me, and He said, "Thank you for honoring your husband."

I replied, "Forgive me, Lord, for all the times I don't."

He continued, "Well, that is in the past, and I am well pleased with your desire to see him anointed and moving forward. His is a very special calling, a true mystical calling—a true, child-like calling. You are child-like, but in another way. Each has their office, Clare; none is diminished but all are blessed by the fidelity and advancement of the others. There will be many wonders at his hands—today was only the beginning. He who has suffered much, I will bless much."

Yes, Lord, I am seeing that.

"Many times your suffering comes in the role of support for him. And you can never overestimate the importance of your office as his wife and helpmate. The two are one and function like one and in My Body each has a place of great importance. Often times, it is the hidden ones who have the greatest places of honor."

That's so beautiful, Lord. I am happy in my calling, but I still need your help and certainly have not arrived.

"I know that, My dove. I know well how you have stayed in that lowly place, hoping to escape the tendrils of pride..."

Yeah, those scare me. That really scares me—oh, it can be so invisible that you just don't see it.

He was saying, "to escape the tendrils of pride that manage to creep into even the most dedicated soul's work. Yet, I am proud of you that you are happy in the lowliest place. That shows Me you can be trusted with other positions that are more noticeable—but always seek the lowliest place, Beloved. Always look for the hidden quiet corner. Never walk into the limelight unless I lead you there by the hand. You will come to love this place even more; it is highly anointed for you."

I do feel so comfortable in it, Lord.

"As well you should. It is perfect for you.

"I want My People to engrave it in their hearts. Those who occupy the lowliest places are the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. I know I have spoken of this before. I know I have told you time and time again, the ice and snow melt off the lofty mountains and follow their way down into the valley to water and fertilize it.

"That is why I wish for all of you to look to others and ask yourselves, 'What can I do to promote their ministries?' Anything you do for the sake of the Kingdom will come back on you a thousand-fold, partly in this life, partly in the life to come. It is those in Heaven who have exalted themselves on Earth that will be tucked away in a quiet corner, in supportive roles of those less visible. The ones I lead out into the open will still have their reward. What I am talking about here, are the ones who exalt themselves and what they've done.

"You can come very close to that at times when you are excited about what I have done. Please be ever so careful to make it clear that the excitement is over Me and MY workings and not you. People can easily be led astray when a vessel speaks about themselves. I know you mean well, but I am asking you to be extra careful, My love."

Thank You, Lord, for the reminder. Sometimes I suppress things, because of that tendency of human nature to make people idols. Although I want to stand on the roof tops and shout it out, "Look what the LORD has done!!!"

"What I am more concerned with," Jesus continued, "in this vein are those who openly declare their riches and finery and how much they make. They have not yet come to understand My poverty and what that means for them. This is why I am always calling you to simplicity.

"My People, it is a grave error to laud your accomplishments and push yourself to the forefront. I am so much happier with vessels who have no ambitions in that direction, because I can use them anywhere. They do not protest in the lowliest of places, while those around them are advanced. Rather they feel more secure in their lowliness."

I've experienced that, and it's a beautiful place to be.

He continued, "There is a certain brutality that sets in once a soul sets their sights on being at the top. A soul like this is constantly in inner turmoil as they conjure up all the ways they could lose influence and be looked down upon. They must, at every turn, protect their status from others who might be seen as superior to them. They live a constant life of jealousy and torture, going from one situation to the next, deeply embroiled in one-up-man-ship.

"This truly is a horrible state for a soul to be in. It would be much better for them to be the grunt at the end of the line, where they will have no one contending for their position. In this place, you have no interlopers, no one is trying to unseat you. All despise this position and stay as far away from it as the can.

"What tremendous freedom you have in this place! Freedom to consider My ways and not man's ways. Freedom to be yourself and not have to live continually putting on airs.

"Yes, I love the movie, 'The Reluctant Saint.' In that movie, the contrast between authentic holiness and pompous religiosity is so starkly presented. Oh, how beautiful that movie is! One all should see and reflect on. And you know I do not endorse movies, but that one has a powerful message for you, My people."

It's an older film. It has Ricardo Montalban in it. And it's humorous. It's an amazing movie, I really highly recommend that everyone see it.

He continued, "It is so antipathetical to what is now being taught in seminaries around the world, that few truly understand it, and certainly fewer embrace it."

And this is the story of Joseph of Cupertino, a Franciscan friar who had many miraculous charisms. One notable one was he would float in the air during his services, and also when in prayer. He would just levitate off the ground! He wasn't trying to do it—he was just so riveted on God's presence, that THAT lifted him off the ground. And Ricardo Montalban is the jealous religious priest who continually is finding fault with him.

Anyway, the Lord continued, "Spiritual jealousy is one of the very worst sins, as it steals the peace of those who are captive to it, while setting them up to disparage the vessel they are jealous of. When they attack others out of jealousy, a very large door is opened for the demons to sift them and steal from them even the little they thought they had."

So at this point, at the end of this message, it was very late. I was very, very tired and the Lord told me to go ahead and go to sleep. And when I came back today to review the message, I added the first part about the sign that happened with the photograph that we used for this video.

Thank you all, dear Heartdwellers, for praying for us. And understand that, when we miss a message, we're either in the midst of a cycle of teaching that will end up in a good message in a day or two. Or...we're sick. And struggling. And in either case, your prayers are very, very helpful and we appreciate it.

And thank you for taking care of the needs of our Channel. We have some wonderful people working on this channel, to get the Lord's word out. And that wouldn't be possible without your monthly help. So, thank you so much for that.

The Lord bless you now. I pray for you, night and day, praying that the Lord will bring you closer and closer to Him and an intimate relationship. That pure relationship that brings so much to our lives, even in the midst of turmoil.

God bless you all.

When It Hurts To Let Go

June 9, 2017

May Lord give us His wisdom, and His courage to embrace and act on those things He reveals to us. And may He seal it with His Peace.

Well, my precious ones, every soul that crosses our paths has a different story—and sometimes a different crisis. Recently, it came on my prayer list to pray for a woman who was facing eviction and had nowhere to go with her many, many cats. She was offered a place to stay but they wouldn't accept her cats. Her cats have been her life, she has lavished love on them and they are very special friends that can never be replaced.

Boy, do I know that! The memory of them lives on in our hearts and is sometimes painful to recall.

So, we are praying for a solution to this trial that will be best for all involved. As far as I can understand the place that was offered to her was quite ideal, except for the cats, and could open up into a new life for her. She is truly torn about what to do. So we prayed for her.

And the Lord began to impress something on my heart. And you all know how tender I am about cats. I had an impression, but until Jesus spoke clearly to me, I didn't know if it was from Him.

Jesus began, "Clare, you understood Me so clearly. There are times in life when very painful decisions must be made in order to move forward. You experienced this on the mountain, many times. I had a plan for you that you could not understand when you moved to Espanola. You didn't see what I was doing, even though it was torture for you to leave your sheep behind.

"What can I say? Some choices in life are not simple, but deeply complicated and need an extraordinary amount of grace to conquer. I will give that grace if it is asked for. I am here to serve and guide and when I am called upon, I do not fail to provide the necessary grace. But there are those who prefer to make up their own minds, with their own will and own resources. For them I mourn, because had they turned to Me, I would have made it so much clearer and easier.

"My precious family of Heartdwellers, do not be afraid to leave behind the old to embrace the new. Remember: every suffering, even the suffering of giving up loved ones, I use to release even more graces where they are needed the most. So, never feel like a suffering is useless. I promise you, NO suffering is without a reward in My Kingdom and sometimes even here on Earth.

"And as concerns the cats—no one could love them more than I do. It's simply not possible.

"You remember what you went through disposing of all your fine antiques and furniture, in order to live a more pure life in the mountains of Pennsylvania. You remember the incredible gifts you received there."

Wow—do !!

"Gifts beyond your wildest dreams. Anointing after anointing was given you. Still, it wasn't easy."

"It wasn't easy giving up your first husband, but you knew he wanted the world and you could not accompany him in his plans, and he could not accompany you. Now you are married to the man who is perfect for you and for Me, and your former husband has the wife he always wanted."

But Lord, when you mention that, I can just see the eyebrows go up, "She's an adulterer because she married another man."

Jesus continued, "I have opened the Scriptures to you to understand that what I have brought together let no man break asunder, but what man has brought together without My approval, is doomed from day one. There are sacramental bonds between two souls I have chosen for one another. And the unions man chooses for himself, if it be out of My will - how can I consider that a marriage? There are many who live by the 'Book' or—what they consider is the exact interpretation of the Scriptures. But righteous judgment comes not by the law but by the Spirit and Mercy. This is no place to go deeper on that topic, but in the future, I will."

"So, back to the present circumstance. I am calling some to leave their old lives behind and embrace the new. Some of you, My dear ones, are facing very painful decisions. Would you consider coming to Me and asking for guidance? I am waiting for you. I have graces you need to make the better choices, but you must come to Me and ask."

"Still, in My mercy, I have whispered in your ear, giving you My perspective on your situation. I hate pain and suffering. I hate death. But there are times in everyone's life when there is no easy way out. Those are the times I am here to wrap you in My robe of comfort and hold you tightly to My Heart, where healing can take place."

"Will you have regrets? Painful memories and attachments do not go away easily, but if you immerse yourself in the new life you are facing, it will be much easier. The enemy would like to see you crumble and fall into despair. I would like to see you make the Godly choice and receive healing for all your heart-aches, from Me. There are future joys you know nothing of and they hinge on the right choices now in present time. This is why it is so critical to seek Me until you find Me, and I give you the peace that passes all understanding for your dilemma."

"Remember that today is the first day of the rest of your life. You are scraping away the old ground, cleaning the rubbish and leveling it to prepare for the foundation to be poured. That is why the decisions you make right now are so critical to your future. What you do today will determine your future. Choosing that on your own is the biggest mistake you can make.

"Of course, there are degrees: should I buy this or not, should I go out to eat or stay home? Should I take this job or not? Should I move here or there; should I give my life to God and ask Him to decide? Or should I think it out and ask for counsel from my friends before I decide. You see, there are layers of choices to consider. The deeper you go, the greater the impact on your future. The more you abandon yourself to My choices, the holier and happier your future. The greater the sacrifice, the greater the growth. You must all tidy up your loose ends of the past before you are truly free to embrace your future.

"But remember, I am Mercy itself. I know what you are suffering, and I will yet bring joy to your heart. Trust Me.

"In this moment, I am reaching out to you, My children. I have graces ready for you. Ask and receive them and they will bring you through this trial in peace. I love you ever so deeply and suffer the very same pains you in this moment are going through. I never abandon you. I never leave you to grieve alone. I never leave your side. What you feel, I feel much more intensely for you. When you hurt, so do I hurt with you - over the very same things. Yet I have joy planned for you.

"So, do not abandon hope. I have mercies in store for My Beloved. And you are My Beloved."

We Are Walking On the Water

June 12, 2017

May we capture the breeze of His spirit and find ourselves on the shores of His perfect will for our lives. May we conquer the tempests and beasts that confront us. Amen

Well, we had a few mishaps with the music. The first one, I didn't listen to, I just sent it to be put up. I didn't listen to it to double-check it, because I'd already done hours and hours worth of work on it. And then I found out I had only sent the left side! Of the stereo music. So, we had a very messy time with that, and I took it down - so it's not there anymore. But if you saw that and didn't hear the one I put up after that, just know that that was NOT the right song! It was only half of it.

The Lord is really, really helping me with music. He's been doing some wonderful things with Ezekiel and I in music. And I wasn't to say, after the message I gave you about Ezekiel's health, the Lord infused me with such a supernatural peace, that I was not in the least troubled. He had bouts of pain and I prayed and called for back-up and we all prayed and he was relieved. After severe burning pain, would come insights and prophetic words that gave us guidance and hope.

Tonight we discussed what to do should the Lord allow him to have an near-death experience. One thing Jesus told him, "You have known me in My suffering, you shall know Me in My resurrection."

Wow...

And true to the Lord's word, not only do I have peace, but music is flowing as it never has before. I am learning new things everyday about playing the piano. One thing I learned from this last piece was I don't like doing the final mix. It is so tedious and besides that, I'm a novice. And I have more music to write and messages for us to grow spiritually. So, I'm looking for a studio that does high quality work, preferably a Christian one. Please let me know if you have a recommendation.

But things that have been scattered are coming together. Lana Vawser put out a word a while back about Divine Pay Back Time is Here. A time when Jesus will restore what has been stolen from us and deal with our enemies. Nevertheless, I do pray for my enemies. We're still believing the Lord for their conversion.

I am seeing very clearly that Ezekiel's suffering is connected to my progress on the keyboard. We've know about Simon's Cross and intercessory suffering, but it is starkly obvious. When he is suffering, I am very productive with music. When he is NOT suffering...things don't go so well.

I need a foot up, dear ones. I need a motivational anointing to believe and press in. The enemy is not short on lies to try and dissuade me. He's got mountains of lies all prepared for the unwary. That, too, is one of Ezekiel's sufferings - he has painful lying nightmares about me and other family members, and he wakes up defeated before he ever starts the day. I continue to have dreams about the NWO and what life will be like when it is in power.

Those are very, very bleak and cold, I'll tell you.

But I want to say to you, the devil frequently tortures you at night, in order to make the next day miserable. He'll give you terrible dreams, and you'll wake up shaken. Really shaken. And not knowing up from down. And I do pray over our sleep - we do cover ourselves in our sleep. But there's times when the Lord needs a suffering and, boy I'll tell you. It's a pretty stiff suffering to be in a dream you can't get out of, where terrible things are going on. And this is something that the enemy has been doing with Ezekiel. Very painful.

I want to mention that some of you have sent me the most beautiful and touching letters and I so want to answer you. But if I don't, please know I read and pray over each one, and I am grateful a thousand times over for your loving thoughts and prayers. It means so very much to Ezekiel and I, it takes away so much of the suffering and pain to know that you are being touched. If you are without resources to get books from Amazon, which I only use for the circulation that they have, please write to me and ask for whatever you need, and if we have it I will send it to you.

Well, today I allowed myself to become scared. Ezekiel and I were discussing near death experiences and the Lord said his body is dying but his healing could be at last minute. Thinking about that was painful and I started to become afraid.

So, what communion service reading do I get? Jesus walking on the water and how Peter began to walk on the water but took his eyes off Jesus and began to sink.

Wow, the Lord doesn't let me go for long with unbelief.

And for those of you who are not familiar with the Scripture, this is in Matthew 14:25-36

Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost," they said, and cried out in fear.

But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

"Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water."

“Come,” he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, “Lord, save me!”

Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “You of little faith,” he said, “why did you doubt?”

And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret. And when the men of that place recognized Jesus, they sent word to all the surrounding country. People brought all their sick to him and begged him to let the sick just touch the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.

And so here, in this episode of unbelief with Peter, it is tied together with Jesus healing those who touched the edge of His cloak. So, that was a real encouragement for me in the service.

Jesus began to speak to me, “Some of you have begun well on your journeys to grow into what I have called you to do. To you I say, do not allow the winds of doubt, spawned by Satan to deter you in any way. Hold fast to the promises I have given you and you will see My glory in its fulfillment. Don’t grow weary or slack in well-doing, this is the time of favor. Press in and I will give you break-throughs.

“Don’t be intimidated by situations around you. Family, finances, health, unexpected visitors and situations, changes at work, difficulty with children. All of these things are meant to distract you away from prayer, and executing My perfect will for you.”

By the way, I just wanted to tell you. I got a note from someone - there was an assignment coming against Heartdwellers to cause them to be distracted away from prayer. And I broke those assignments, but I would ask you to please, be sure that you don't allow that to happen.

“All of you,” Jesus continued, “who are serious about what I’ve put in your hands, are being opposed. There are assignments against you. Use the binding prayer and keep going. Do not slacken on prayer as some of you have. Prayer is your lifeline to Me, and without it your chances of succeeding are not good.

“Do not be of the worldly mindset - ‘I’m too busy to pray, look at all I have to do. I’ll pray after it’s done.’ May I tell you, this is a lie directly from the mouth of Satan to acknowledge your good will to pray, but none-the-less divert you. Because the things in your life that you have allowed to be pressing to the point where you spend little or no time in prayer will continue until the day I take you from the Earth. So, don’t allow that lie to deceive you.

“The success of your endeavors, the peace of your household, the provision you need, the skills you need. ALL of those things and much more are dependent upon prayer. Your success is in direct proportion to the time you spend in serious prayer, worship and thanksgiving. Those acts even cover for the distractions and ploys of the devils to interfere with your work. Rebuke them, do not allow them to take you off track.

“Some of you are already doing this, and are having amazing success and results. You are united to Me, My beautiful Brides, and I am working through you. I will teach you all you need to know and even execute it through your hands.

"The devils would not target you for distractions if you were wasting time on yourself. No, they delight in getting you tied up in some useless project that takes you away from serving Me.

"Be careful when you are called upon to do something. You do not have to say 'Yes' to anything. What you give to men, you will take from Me. Unless it is a work of charity, be very careful not to get entangled in the affairs of the world."

As an aside here, I just talked with a young woman who has a marvelous talent for music. She has been getting hit with every conceivable obstacle to steal her peace, wear her out, and cause financial fears. She just got some wonderful equipment to work with, and now she's being seriously opposed!

She quit her job to apply herself to music and a couple of weeks later her husband had his hours cut at work. Then they were having marital issues. Then her old boss called her up and said, "I can't run this business without you, everything is falling apart around me. Please, please, please come back to work." Then she found out he ended up in the hospital because of the stress. He begged her to come back, calling her several times a week. But she had given that time to God and would not take it back from Him. Good for you, Sweetheart.

So you see, we are all being beset with trials and distractions. But in the process of sticking with God and not giving up, He is making us wiser and stronger to overcome the very things that in the past would have brought us to a screeching halt. In this perseverance, in the face of all these threats, if we keep our eyes on the Lord, knowing we are doing His will, there is no way we will fail.

Jesus continued, "Well said. Today, My Love, you allowed doubt to begin working against you, that I might not be faithful to heal your husband. Please beloved, do not even contemplate such destructive and lying thoughts. You will be getting many more of these bouts thrown at you. But if you continue to renounce them and get your wits about you, I will continue to sustain you in My perfect peace.

"Fight the good fight, Clare. Look at the progress you are making with music. See how much closer you have gotten to Me. Pay heed to Ezekiel's revelations and insights. All these things have meaning for you and are there to encourage you to stay in the spirit and not get in the flesh."

Yeah, one of those things was an extremely real dream that Ezekiel had. We were in Russia with President Putin and some very poor people. We were at a monastery. I was wearing my old, grey Franciscan habit and so was Ezekiel. Which is quite a flashback! Anyway, we were there and we were ministering to poor people and they were getting healed, left and right. And we had a beautiful time with President Putin. He was very kind and gentle - just a beautiful man. So, he had that dream.

Now, if that's going to be fulfilled - he can't die! So, that's just one of the little things that the Lord has shown us. And Ezekiel also was being taken to different places at night, to minister. He wakes up remembering it. That's wonderful!

I think the Lord doesn't let me see it, because I've got too much pride. But I know that there've been times when I've been in places ministering to people. It's amazing what the Lord does with our spirits at night! Just amazing.

Jesus continued, "With each difficulty that comes with his deteriorating health, I will bring the remedy and sustain you in Peace. I have given you many signs that this is authentically Me speaking to you and allowing this. They are there to anchor your faith each day as you press into your calling. Pay close attention to them, take time to review them, and know beyond a shadow of a doubt, I am God. I am with you. What I have said, that will I do and nothing short of it.

"My Brides, the breeze is in your favor to bring you to the shores of your dreams. Sail on. Ignore the squalls that erupt, ignore the sharks circling the boat, ignore the reefs that seem to lunge out at you. Ignore every attempt that the devils make to stop you. Press in and I will see to it that you have the victory. Amen."

Unlocked Secrets of Music

May the Lord grant us the grace to worship in His arms and to adore Him in spirit and truth, dear Heartdwellers. And Lord, I ask you to please cover this teaching with Your Blood, that the enemy cannot rob souls of this understanding, but that we will all flourish by doing what you teach us tonight.

As I was worshipping the Lord to some of Julie True's music, the Lord pointed out several things to me. Namely, she uses very little lyrics and repeats them without embarrassment. I contrast that to myself, where I love to cram a song full of meaning with lyrics. Well—is that just my style—or am I missing something? Because very often I have to work hard to bring together 4 stanza's of a song.

But my most interesting observation was a complete abandon to the song. Relaxing—yet not falling asleep as I usually do when I worship. Thank you, Coffee! I realized as I hummed and sang along with her lyrics that I was holding the Lord and singing them to Him. Oh Glory to God, I have always wanted that gift...worship from the heart, seeing Jesus and ministering to Him. Wow! That really brought something up in me.

Jesus began to explain, "You see, when you relax into the song...it takes you to a different place, Clare. You don't always have to fall asleep. You can let go into that deep place of contemplation and prayer. This is the secret—not putting it out, but letting it go from deep within. This is a secret to this kind of singing. It comes so naturally, without strain. After a good warm up, you can fall back into rest, contemplating your head on My chest and let the music of your heart flow out unto Me. Where I, too, enter in to this deep place of the communion of hearts and everything you feel about Me can begin to escape from that prison cell where you keep it all locked up."

Lord, I wasn't aware that I was keeping anything in a prison cell. Although I have felt that there's more and that it was tied up somewhere.

He continued, "Feelings. Deep, deep feelings. Without focused effort, you move much too fast to inhale My love and become inebriated in Me. This is a deep, hidden place within you where you keep things locked up—when I want them flowing out into this very needy world. It's a matter of letting go, not capturing or producing. Or gutting it out. Do you see?"

Kind of.

"No effort. Effort ends somewhere in the midst of warmup. Then, as your focus shifts to Me, worship begins. And yes, the very small amount of words is significant. People read so much into one or two words or phrases. Wordy songs don't take you to the same place; they don't take others to the same place. Rather, they stimulate the intellect when I am trying to reach the soul. Emotion and the seat of emotions is where I can do My deepest work.

"Music communicates where words leave off. That is why it is such a powerful medium. It changes the entire atmosphere. Once more, angels are drawn around the source, as a moth to the flames of a campfire. You see, it is very dark here. But when you sing, even vocalizing from the heart, the flames leap up and illuminate the darkness, and the angels come to participate in worship.

"Oh, how I wish you could hear them! Truly it is something to behold. They are so very sensitive, Clare. The least little movement of worship enkindles in them the flames of devotion to Me. Their voices sing 'Amen, Amen, Amen' yet without forming the words, and a wonderful harmony is created. Oh, how wonderful and sublime...I rejoice and am greatly comforted by these events.

"There is a difference. The world tends to push lyrics out there, not realizing that the true door to a soul's heart is not through the words as much as through the melody. Yes, the words are important. But as I said before, when you get wordy, you lose contact with the heart and are going back into the intellectual realm, which it is better to bypass.

"You remember the movie, The Mission and how the savages responded to the sweet melody? What a picture that was. That is the power of music to transform a soul.

"This is My gift to you, Clare. The melodies are very moving. You have a heart that stirs for melodies and you can stir others into a flame through them in skillful playing and very simple singing. Isn't that just marvelous?"

Oh, indeed it is Lord! I have made it much too hard for myself.

He continued, "Yes, melody reaches into the heart and words call to the intellect. Not that they can't be used together in a skillful way, but that is where simplicity comes in. I know you have not understood that before, but now I am opening this wisdom up to you. Draw My Bride into My arms with your music. There I will heal and restore her. Let go. Let go. Let go."

I glanced up at the clock and it was 2:22...

"Let Me ride on the current of your breath into their hearts where I apply the healing balm of My love and forgiveness.

"So few do not understand this supremely simple way of reaching souls, but this is the season for it, a spiritual renaissance drawing My Bride to a mountain of sweetness. So, don't work so hard on the lyrics—that spoils it. You see, you have been side-tracking yourself by making clever lyrics rather than a simple few words I can enter their hearts with.

"It may shock you to know, but so many secular musicians are receiving songs from Heaven..."

When He said that, I was reminded of the song, "I'm Your Angel". That was Kelly and Celine Dion. It's a beautiful song, I put it in my worship list.

"Many secular musicians are receiving songs from Heaven, just because I am hungry to reach out to the lost and there are things hidden in these melodies that excite the spirit and actually draw them to the Kingdom and into My presence. They are seeking, and in these songs the vibrations that set in motion the feelings are being touched in ways that are beyond words.

"There are MANY songs from the 60's that actually paved the way for a spiritual renewal, breaking the fallow ground and plowing deeply men's needs to be released from the prison of conformity. Once they are out of that place, the devils contend with Me for their souls. But from this place of freedom they can hear Me much more clearly than they did under a cloud of condemnation and religious spirits.

"When a man or woman are truly set free from the pain, the scars, the fears— everything in their past that left them bound. When they are set free, that God-shaped place inside longs for Me. That's when I come to them—when they are ready.

"As I have said many times before, men who are used to controlling, limiting, defining and defending all kinds of boundaries, cage the spirit and cause fear—which is what controls their choices. When they are free of that influence, they may seek the things of darkness but will tire of them and begin to seek the Light. But without that freedom, they stay locked into tightly defined cells, caged by so many fears that they can't have an intimate relationship with Me.

"When they are set free, burned by the illusions and disappointments of darkness, they begin seeking the Light and finding comfort there. Then they make the decision to live in My Light, where there is wisdom, love and nurturing. I want souls drawn to Me by love NOT fear. Fear may work initially to bring them into the Kingdom, but it will never bring them into My arms.

"Fear will cause them to keep their distance, while Love will cause them to surrender to Me and receive all I have to give them, in the secure knowledge that they are truly loved for who they are, right now, in present time. Not loved for their works, loved for their beauty. How can I fail to love the beautiful creatures I made them to be? I cannot. The love that formed them in My Father's being, calls out and draws them back to that holy of holies, forever more united to Me in supreme bliss.

"This is a great gift and we are doing it together. Go forth now with this new understanding and we will create through your sincere and gentle worship a great fishnet for souls."

The Restoration of a Soul Called By God

June 16, 2017

The Lord bless you, dear Heartdwellers. May we always be faithful to keep our lives pure from compromise when the Lord gives us gifts.

And that's what this message is about. It's about the restoration of a soul that was called by God and mixed their call with agreements with the enemy. And now they're coming back, returning sincerely and they want to break all ties with the enemy. A great repentance has taken place. And the Lord wants to restore their souls.

But the Lord is restoring a soul in hopes that He can trust it with gifts of Healing, gifts of Prophecy and tongues. The Scripture says that the gifts are without repentance...but what happens when a soul makes an agreement with the demonic?

Lord, would You please explain this to me?

"Clare, when I give a gift, it is forever. But what a person does with that gift can utterly render it useless."

I had a vivid picture at that point. As He was speaking, I saw a picture of a large flat object wrapped in beautiful silver paper and ribbon; it had been dropped in the mud and trampled by pigs.

Jesus continued, "Indeed, the gift becomes useless. In time, if the soul does not repent, I give it to another who will use it. I didn't take the gift, they cast it to the pigs. So, I recover it and give it to one more worthy who will cherish it."

"In this moment, we are working on the restoration of a soul who was offered a great gift, but compromised its purity by consorting with demons. So, the very first step is repentance. And what I have given are the steps to be taken by anyone who has such a fall. I wish for you to share these, because they will be useful to your audience."

Well, Heartdwellers, here are the steps we must take when we compromise with the devil.

The Lord began, "First of all, they must be sincere. No matter how accomplished and powerful they thought they were, they must be stripped of this before I can use them. They may have seen themselves with a grandiose ministry and looked upon you as a poor, deceived nobody. This whole attitude is obnoxious to Me and must go before anything else. So, they come to that minister in abject poverty and totally broken, acknowledging their sin. In this condition, they renounce their ties and are forgiven."

"Then begins the reconstruction."

"You see, this is no hot-shot event. It's simple, plain contrition and restoration. Forgiveness and a sincere purpose of amendment.

"In the future the soul must not ever lift themselves above others or they will create a wall between us. They are not allowed to give prophetic words. They are in no position to counsel anyone, let alone a leader.

"They must return to the bottom of the barrel, barely able to see enough to put one foot in front of the other.

"They are not permitted to go off in prophecy over anyone, it will almost certainly be error. They have a long way to go before they can be trusted with any ministry.

"What is good for them now is to set food and necessities before the poor. This is safe for them. If they can maintain an authentic heart attitude that they could be on the streets tomorrow and they are not one wit more valuable than those they are feeding, they will pass through this phase.

"They may pray for the poor with a mind that is aware that they could be sitting beside the poor in their need, tomorrow.

"But they are not to give out words. Not yet. That time will come IF they are faithful. But they mustn't step out in that direction yet. It just isn't safe for them and will lead to embarrassment, failure and defeat. I will tell you if and when they are to be restored. For now, the safest place for them is to maintain their sanity by simple acts of charity. The rest will come in time, if they are faithful.

"There is a very powerful drive in some to direct, control and stand over others. This must be completely conquered or they will be of no use to Me.

"All 'holy' talk about what they have seen or what they have done must be left behind. This is bragging. It not only opens them to a major fall, but discourages others who cannot attain to such feats and it defeats their purpose in serving Me, which is to build up others, not cast them down beneath their feet. They are not to Lord over and display their spiritual acts; rather they are to be kept with Me alone.

"They are to serve the poorest, taking care of their necessities, listening to their hearts, praying very simply for them and not looking beyond the present moment, but serving fully from the heart in the present moment.

"No ambition but to love.

"If they attempt to go in any other direction at this time, or take up any form of ambition, they will fall again, and again, and again. Ambition must be renounced. And in its stead, Faithfulness. Littleness. Humility. Rather than wearing out the trail around the mountain in the wilderness, if they are willing, I will bring them out of the wilderness—if they follow this path.

"They must abandon that desire to have superior knowledge or understanding, and make themselves lowly and humble, of no repute. Just as My Mother did. She always stood in the background and never drew attention to herself. Though she had every right to be honored, she patiently put up with those who accused her of adultery.

"If they are faithful to do this, I have a wonderful ministry for them. But they must go much, much deeper before I can reveal it. Much, much deeper. Not the kind of depth you talk about to others. The kind of depth you are embarrassed to discuss with others, because you know yourself so thoroughly—that you are no-one, a nothing, from nowhere...going nowhere. Living only to love from moment to moment and completely unworthy of any spiritual gift.

"There are a great deal of manipulative techniques some have learned and acquired in the world from childhood, that they must renounce and refuse to employ. I cannot use a soul with duplicity of motive. Their only motive must be to love and adore Me and their brother (and sister) each day, in whatever form they come to them.

"They are to use their great intellect to unravel the strands of manipulation, maneuvering and posturing they have employed all their life, until they find that so repulsive they refuse to go there. Some have great intelligence, but are using it the wrong way. To discover the truth about their ways and to crucify them is the right way.

"I am not being harsh, My love, I am being very straight forward, because I wish to restore what some should have. So, you will do Me a great kindness to present these requests to your audience."

And that's the end of His message.

I have shared a few parables with you...like the Gold Miner Parable, that pertained to someone in this state, and now it seems there will be healing for that soul that was killed when the tunnel collapsed.

Heart Dwellers, I want to thank you for your prayers. I could not do this job without them. We have so many who, without any cause, are against us. But God is for us, so who can be against us in the long run.

Please remember us in your prayers and especially pray for our resource to be steady through the summer, because many go on vacation and totally forget us—which can be rough on our staff and the little poor ones in Taos we are constantly taking care of with medicine, electricity, food and clothing. As I have stated before, we take care of our staff with what comes in, because they work very hard on putting books and CDs together as well as our Heartdwellers web site. Whatever is left over is distributed to the poor. So, thank you so very much for being faithful. Truly the Lord reigns over this ministry and provides for it through kind hearts.

The Lord has told me many times, also, that anyone who gives a cool cup of water to a ministry will share in the fruit of that ministry in Heaven. So, all of you will be rewarded for your kindness. Though you don't give the messages, you will be rewarded as if you did, because of your prayers and offerings. We live to love you each day. Thank you so much for listening. And the Lord bless you with an ever-expanding love for Him. Amen.

All Are Being Pelted With Lies & Discouragement

June 18, 2017

May the Lord grant us the courage to keep going, when going any further seems impossible. Amen.

Well, my dear Heartdwellers. I can see many of you are on vacation. But for those of you who are here, I am getting massive opposition to moving forward. On some days it is sheer faith that causes me to lift one foot and place it ahead of the other, to continue just the semblance of momentum.

My breathing has been very, very limiting and with that comes discouragement. However, when I call upon the Lord in desperation: "Jesus, I can't go another inch!" Something changes, and all of a sudden my breathing clears and I feel lighter. I need to be rebuking lying symptoms, as well.

I have been so discouraged with my piano skills that I've wanted to give up. But I know the options—and giving up is definitely NOT one of them. So I press in, sometimes without emotion, just gut wrenching resolve. God is faithful and will not disappoint my trust in Him. I will do what He asks and He will be faithful to give the increase until I am playing fluently.

Do you know what He said to me yesterday?

He said, "Just as easy as it is for you to hear My voice and type My messages to you, so will it come that naturally for you to play the piano and sing."

Well, I've been typing for years and years! But rather than rationalize negatively and oppose Him, I have decided to continue to practice and practice until my fingers move as fluently along the piano keys as they do when they type. And He has promised me a breakthrough. But see how weak I am, dear ones? I falter and want to give up before I've had my breakthrough. Could there possibly be one among you who are worse than I am about having faith?

I don't think so. Not with all the signs the Lord has given us. I sincerely doubt it. Only because I have been given so many proofs of His love and faithfulness over so many years—it is shameful for me to have this attitude at all!

Jesus began, "You have many, many enemies, Clare. Many. You are not alone in this battle. You are being opposed and I am allowing it, because I want My Brides around the world to fight the good fight and keep climbing with Me—even if they must wear oxygen at times to carry on."

"And I must tell you, I am allowing this in your life right now to slow you down so you will stay at the keyboard and not feel so good that you vault off to do this or that—as you have all your life. As usual, your enemies think they are handicapping you. How mistaken they are! I am allowing this to keep you still and persevering in music and the messages."

"You see, My people, these messages about her music are not just for her. Do you understand? Each of you has your own challenges and obstacles to overcome in your personal discipline. Whether you are a housewife or an office worker, I give you ample opportunity to bring Me into the home and the workplace, and the enemy has set up road blocks in your lives with your callings, to slimy you and cause you to want to withdraw or quit.

"So, don't discount her struggles because it is not your discipline. These messages are meant for all of you, no matter what you do. You each have assignments against you to keep you from become the Holy soul I have called you to be.

"Some of you may grumble and say, 'Well I don't want to climb the mountain—I'm comfortable down here in the valley!' That is your free will prerogative, but I promise you, at the end of your life you will not feel fulfilled. That is why I am guiding all of you to press in and go right through these smoke screens of discouragement and failure. Take every thought captive—do not become captive to every thought!"

Then the Lord looked at me and said, "Do you believe in Me?"

Jesus, I believe in You with all my heart.

"Then stop doubting. You are being pelted with unbelief right now, along with the rest of My Body. The enemy knows something wonderful has been released to My Bride and they are Hell-bent on stopping it before it gains any more momentum. You must blast through these smokescreens, My people. You must believe in Me more than in the lies you are being fed. Am I not sovereign? Did I not heal the woman with the issue of blood? Continue to touch the hem of My garment every day and you will see the salvation of Your God in your life.

"I am about to do great and wonderful things with those souls who make it through this chamber of horrors, because that is exactly what they are putting some of you through. It seems like every step forward you take is checked by evil and pushes you back to where you started from.

"Not so. You have gained momentum. You are on the right track. They cannot take from you what you have thus far accomplished; they can only erect smoke screens that make you feel disoriented and lost, as though nothing has moved forward. LIES! LIES! LIES!! Every one of you who have pressed in have made progress...more than you realize. That is why you are being hit so hard with discouragement.

"Yes, one look into My eyes, in My portrait, should set you straight. Do they not say, 'Do you trust Me?' Do they not invite you to go beyond your fears and commit your way to Me? Do they not say Joy comes in the morning? If you were not getting closer to a breakthrough, the demons would not be working so hard to stop you.

"The fight is ferocious just before the victory. Press in, My Beloved ones. Press in. This is merely a temporary screen of deception trying to convince you to give up before your breakthrough. Press in. I am with you."

Count Your Blessings in the Storm

June 21, 2017

Lord, no matter what the storm is, or heat we are feeling, please help us to always be so grateful for Your many blessings and graces.

This week I have been given some amazing gifts...yet the storm continues in one form or another. And I realized I had been short on thanksgiving and long on complaining. It is summertime after all, and when it's hot, tempers tend to flare. And I thank the Lord for reminding me to stay in a grateful place, because things could be much worse.

Very uncharacteristically I heard, "They signed up on this outfit, there are going to be continuing challenges."

Doesn't sound like the Lord...

Normally that's not the phrasing Jesus would use...but in this case I think it was me interpreting what He was saying, and just musing on it in a rather rough, Southwestern way.

So, when He really did begin to speak, I heard, "But yes, you all should count your blessings. You tend to forget your gifts and victories after the battle. They have become yours to use now, and you don't remember what it was like before the battle and before you had the gifts. So, you forget to count your blessings.

"You remember the battles and the pain, but forget all that was accomplished and that you are now living in abundance in different areas because of it. It is human nature to take victories for granted and shelve them, not realizing what richness they brought to the life you are now living because of them.

"Therefore, it is good to stop and count your blessings compared to where you were at 2 years ago when you first began this journey on this channel. For instance, you are now more skilled in warfare. That also means I can send you into more battles. You can free others as well as yourself. You understand My ways much better, so when difficulties arise you know it is not a punishment but a challenge with many rewards, once completed.

"Many of you were content with life on the hillside, yet something inside of you longed for more of Me, and more meaning to your lives. Because of this, I can now raise you up into the higher places where the winds are more fierce, the climb is steeper and the opportunities for rest are fewer and fewer. At the same time, the view is glorious. You can look down the mountainside to the valleys and the dales, where hand-to-hand combat is taking place. Yet, in these high places there are beasts you will encounter and have the victory over.

"There are so many benefits to continuing on the climb— they outweigh the deficits. You are over and over again being formed into My image and likeness as you shoulder your cross and prepare yourselves for the next climb. There is no time to tarry in this high places. Your time is more valuable than it has ever been and you are touching more souls than you ever have in your lives. And many of you come with Me at night while your body rests and are given even more opportunities for ministry and even learning.

"Yes, you are truly a soldier in My army. Special forces being prepared for the out-of-the-way extraordinary assignments. And yet, you are daily learning to die to yourself and live as the lowliest in My Kingdom, which means you will often be called to menial tasks others disdain. But for you they are advanced courses in My university of life, and as you go lower and lower in your attitude of service, I can raise you up into positions of more authority and responsibility and you will not abuse your status in Me. Rather, you will walk humbly before Me and all men.

"Yes, this outfit you signed up for gets into some very tough territory, and it seems that the challenges never end. There never seems to be a vacation—but just one more battle to deal with just when you were ready to rest after the last battle. I am building up your stamina, and in this, preparing you for even higher places with more ferocious winds, rock slides and predators. The fare here is not rich but barely sustains you as you go from one level to the next.

"Count your blessings, that you are truly taking rough terrain from the enemy, learning more skills, winning more battles and even getting the spoils. You are seeing major prayers answered in your families. You are seeing provision, anointing and the sweetest of all: communion with Me as we linger together as one. That truly is the choice prize. Yes, the wonderful one-on-One relationship you have with Me, My Bride. This is yet another gift and source of great strength.

"You see there are storms and rainbows, and I bring you through both, helping to fortify and make you stronger and wiser. You have seen many treacheries from the enemy in your lives. You have encountered pits that were dug for you, deceitful circumstances that looked different from what they actually were. You have followed and made decisions based on some of these and now are being restored much the wiser for all you suffered.

"So, My Brides, yes. I want you to rejoice in your victories, but know that the battle is not over yet until I remove you in the Rapture. And then you will have new and glorious assignments you never even dreamt of.

"But here I am asking you to pause for a moment and count your blessings. Look at the things that were not in your life before, but they are great victories and something to celebrate as they are implemented and you move forward.

"Look also at how your character has changed and you more resemble Me than ever before. Look at the peace you feel in difficulties, because you KNOW I have an important purpose for them and I will in the end deliver you. I am with you. Steady as you go. I am helping you climb and even recover simultaneously as you rest in My arms."

Where Are You, My Bride? You Have Neglected Me

Lord Jesus, please give us the grace to persevere in prayer and things pleasing to You. Please deliver us from the dangers all around us that would steal us away from You. And please bring back the sheep that have wandered into the desert. Amen

My time with Jesus has been so rich, we have danced hours away in complete abandon, thinking of nothing but one another. I finished the lyrics to a song that expresses that, and hopefully it will soon be up. But for several nights we have danced and even Holy Spirit and Father God have come to join us in the celebration of our love. I don't think I will ever get over the tender love they have for us. It continually amazes me how in love they are with each of us.

Dear Heartdwellers, I've noticed a drop in views and I think summertime has really got people distracted. I was concerned, so I did ask the Lord as we started our time together.

'My beautiful savior, I don't know what to do about the shortage of provision and drop in views? Is this my fault, Lord? Have I missed something or been unfaithful?'

"Leave this in My hands, Clare." Jesus began. "Did I not just tell you I have prepared a feast but no one showed up?"

Yeah, that was a rhema card I got the other day and I wondered what it was about.

He continued, "My children are highly distracted and taken up with worldly pursuits. If I were not there for some of them, they would be in dire straits. But I have sat alone many, many nights when I should have been with My Bride. She is very busy with the world, and I miss her. The issues you are having are not your fault. You do pray for them, you do present the messages, but many in this moment don't care. They have been invited to other activities and given in to neglecting Me.

"It is good for you to share this with them, Clare. My Brides, what is happening to your spiritual lives? Where is that sweetness you used to have towards Me? It has turned to neglect, and you are drifting further away from Me. Do you know this is the enemy's campaign against you and this channel, because he is so threatened by your intimate relationship with Me?"

"You cannot maintain the pace climbing the mountain of holiness without staying tucked into My arms, safe and sound. Because you have chosen worldly activities over prayer and holy reading and Scripture, you are slipping away from Me and dangerously close to a fall. This is no time to take chances with maintaining your faith by not being faithful to pray. Anytime you drift, it is dangerous. Many of you have fallen into traps cleverly laid in your life to detour you away from the precious devotion you had for Me.

"For those of you who have persevered in spite of numerous invitations, which you have turned down so you could be with Me, I have caravans of graces headed your way. Please continue to be faithful to this Channel, as it has many enemies spreading slanderous lies. As you pray and bless My channel, I bless you as well. Your faithfulness has captured My heart and I long to show you My appreciation.

"Don't grow weary in well-doing, My doves. Continue to care for the poor where you find them. Continue to pray for those who are homeless and struggling with various issues, making their lives very difficult at home or even for those on the street. And those who are confined to bed and sick.

"The summertime is loaded with many distractions and dangers. Tempers flare, flesh is everywhere, men and women are weak, and if they are not praying as they should, the dangers of falling into sin are great. It truly grieves Me when this vessel posts a very true and good message from Me but the audience is on vacation...spiritually. May I say, it is never safe to go on a spiritual vacation? Any lapse is like a breach in the wall for the enemy to climb through.

"I have been guiding you here for a long time and those of you who have grown spiritually have really tremendous needs for wisdom and protection, because your intimacy with Me is so very threatening to the enemy, and you wear a target on your backs. You cannot leave your guard down, even for a day."

Boy, I've noticed that. If a day gets really hectic, it's serious the next day, because I can see things lining up against me.

Jesus continued, "So much is planned against you in the 24 hours you are not praying and staying vigilant. I want you to immediately recognize the enemy when he walks in the door, even pretending to be good. There are many deceitful people who will rob you of your treasure if you do not guard it vigilantly.

"And to those of you, My precious handful. We are continuing the climb to stunning vistas, things you never even imagined you would see. Be alert to My visitations taking you to Heaven. I will reach out My hand to yours and we will simply step into that dimension. I wish to relieve many of you of the stress and tension you have accumulated on this journey. And as you rest in Me, even with music, and you see Me, be ready and willing to take My hand as we visit the heavenly places I want to share with you.

"These trips begin very simply, by taking one step forward, because you are dwelling with Me in My heart which is the doorway to Heaven. It is not always necessary to go the long way around through stars and galaxies. My heart truly is the doorway to the Heavenly dimension. I will give you the grace to share your journeys with Me, that others may also be edified. This is the season of the impossible and unheard of spiritual blessings. Don't let it pass you by.

"This truly is another reason I am disappointed that My Brides have been distracted by the empty world, away from Me. The graces are flowing swift and deep. But if you've chosen to play in the desert, you will miss them. I cherish our times together. Come, share in My joy as I behold you, My Beloved ones. And please admonish others that this is no time to be on a spiritual vacation. I miss them."

And that was the end of His message.

I wanted to mention something. It has been brought to my attention that there are a few of you who have had a problem with making your regular donation to PayPal. We aren't sure why that is, except that we do have an enemy who would like to put an end to us. This is just a heads up. We have a mailing address posted in the drop down box under each video, and if you do have a problem, please tell us about it so we can at least report and try to correct it.

And I just wanted to take a moment to thank you all for your prayers, and your kindness, and your monthly faithfulness. You have made it possible for us to keep going on this channel without losing our focus on Jesus and His precious will. Hugs to you all. God bless you.

Gratitude -The Key to Answered Prayer

June 25, 2017

The Lord bless you, precious Heartdwellers!

I've got a message about gratitude that I want to share with you. But first, I want to pray this prayer: Lord, forgive us for complaining and please help us to hear ourselves as Heaven hears us when we make silly remarks out of irritation.

Cultivate in us a gentle thankful spirit that is focused on all the good You continue to uphold around us so we can live a decent life every day. Amen

I want to thank you all for responding so generously to our current needs for the mission. The Lord will certainly reward you!

And I've got some good news for you about the search engine. I've had some problems with it, because it'll bring up the little words like 'the', 'at', 'out' and all these little words that are part of a sentence. And if you type in a phrase, or if you type in 'Healing' - trying to find, like I was trying to do. Find teachings on Healing. It brings up everything with healing in it, but not necessarily the message that was centered on healing. So, this has been a problem for a while.

So - I found out a fix for that. And we may be fixing it even better in the future. But for now, I wanted to tell you, because you're gonna love this. It's awesome!

If you go to our website, click on search, then type in a word such as "healing" and search that word. Messages will come up with the word 'healing' in them. That is a literal search and it brings up every message with the word healing, but after you've done that, just above the search bar it says, "This is a basic, literal search. You can also search for these terms on Google". Click that and the Google page will open., which will say something like "site:search.stillsmallvoicetriage.org healing". Okay? It brings up all of the messages that are centered on healing. It's absolutely awesome. So you don't have to wade through all these little words. Then hit the return key, when you see that, and it will bring up all these teachings, all the relevant teachings! Wow what a difference! You see, Google has an extremely powerful search engine and we're tying in to it. That makes it easy for you to find what you want, because their search engine - we just couldn't even begin to duplicate it. And when you do this, you'll get very complete lists of all the videos that REALLY talk about healing.

Now, in the future, we're going to try and refine that a little bit, so you don't have to go to that Google page. It'll just open up in it. But for now, that's the fix we've got for it. So enjoy. It's really awesome.

Okay, on with the message. Lately the Lord has wanted to dance. A lot. Like the first days, He really wants to dance. And I saw Him in a beautiful tuxedo, we were on a dance floor. And I was wearing some kind of a silver dress. At one moment it looked like a wedding veil and a wedding dress - and then another moment it looked like an evening gown. I couldn't tell the difference. But He was just very tender and really wanting to dance. And it was beautiful. I was very touched by that. It's extremely healing. I don't even know what to say, 'cause dancing itself is very relaxing and intimate, but in a very pure way. There's just a certain peace that settles over us when we get into that place with the Lord. Very peaceful place.

So, I had noticed something about gratitude lately. And...oof...I'll tell you, lately, what I've been doing. It's not good. But I'm probably not the only one that's going through this with the heat of the summer.

Gratitude opens the doors of Heaven's blessings. And I said that to the Lord. I said, 'I think I'd like to talk about gratitude, Lord. But what message do You have?'

And He said, "You have discerned correctly, My Love. Please speak from your heart."

Dear family, gratitude is the missing attitude when things just won't go right with us. There are so many blessings waiting for us, but the Lord looks at our attitude about what He has already given us, and if we are forgetful of His blessings and demanding of new gifts, He has to wait.

There is a marvelous breakthrough waiting on our gratefulness for what He has already done in our lives. Things we have used so commonly, we now take them for granted. Things we never had before. A place to live. The Internet. The equipment that we need. A car that runs. Food for the table. Things that we struggled to have before and that we have now - in a comfortable way. Not in excess, because that's not right, either. But we have in comfortable ways these things are working for us and we don't have to worry about them every day. And yet, we forget to thank Him for protecting and keeping it together in our lives. The enemy is constantly on the lookout for ways to steal what God has given us. He plots 24-7 the different ways he can deprive us of a gift. And I believe complaining is one of the major things he uses to open the door for us to lose our gifts.

I have found that I do not have to complain directly or to the Lord to be offensive, but have an attitude of, "What is wrong with this stupid phone?" (one of my personal favorites) or "It is miserably hot outside." or, "Why is this taking them so long?" or "Stupid flies - get out of the cat food!" another personal favorite. I could go on and on about every little thing that irritates me in a day.

Truly, my complaints are multiple slaps in the face to God. Rather than complaining about a minor glitch on my phone, I should be thanking God that I can afford a nice phone and get so many things done on it. "Thank you God for providing this phone; it is truly an incredible tool and blessing." Instead of complaining about the heat: "Thank You, Lord, I don't live in the Antarctic and I don't have to burn wood year round." "Thank You for the beautiful flowers that bloom in the summer heat." "Thank you for cool water, it is so refreshing!" With the flies: "Thank you, Lord, that I have food to eat - and the kitties have food to eat, even if it does attract flies so quickly." Instead of "Why is it taking them so long?" - "Thank you, Lord, for sending me honest and dependable helpers who do things so very well. I know they are doing their best with the time - I'm just impatient."

So, these are just a few of the ways that I've offended God during the day, and it's become a habit pattern. So I'm going to have to really work hard on this one.

Do you see? Every single thing that is a blessing in our lives, that we take for granted, we can either complain about or thank God for.

I want to tell you about someone who had an issue with the work they were doing for God. Now, this person is very, very dedicated. They had an issue with a particular talent that they were lacking in, a coordination talent. And it was causing a great deal of grief for them. 'Cause everything took so much longer than it should have. They felt handicapped and couldn't quite get it right. It seemed like the harder they worked the worse their handicap troubled them and the more frustrated they got. So they were ready to give up And I said, "No! Don't give up! Ask the Lord to help you!"

Every day they went to the Lord with tears, begging Him to give them the grace to do their work properly. Every day, after day after day. And this went on for months. Then it occurred to them that something was in the way of their blessing, so they began to search their souls and call upon Holy Spirit for conviction.

And when they talked with me, I recognized it. They expressed their complete discouragement that they just didn't have the skill to do the job. I thought to myself, 'Then God has to provide it, since He is the one who gave you the assignment.'

So I said, "Gratitude! Have you been irritable lately?"

"Yes, the heat is killing me," they replied.

"Well, that's where your problem is...at least one. Certainly one problem you need to get out of the way. Have you repented for everything Holy Spirit convicted you of, but you've still been complaining?"

Because, irritation is akin to complaining, which means you are turning God's gifts into curses instead of what He gave them to be: Blessings. You've forgotten how blessed you are and instead are complaining of little inconveniences. Why should He give you anything when you are ungrateful for what He has already given and sustained in your life?"

There was a long pause as they thought about what I was saying. Of course, I couldn't have shared that with them if I hadn't just been convicted of the same thing and when I began to count my blessings and thank Him for them, the whole atmosphere of frustration broke and I got a breakthrough.

The next day: "You were right! I got my breakthrough. I repented for all the little and big stuff I don't thank Him for daily, and begged pardon for ingratitude. Then I presented my petition to Him and HE ANSWERED IT!! On the spot!!"

Wow. This person was just like I had been. The Lord has given me so much: decent health, a place to live, precious furry friends, a wonderful husband, an awesome family of believers on Youtube, the equipment to write and record music, melodies...and I'm complaining about a glitch in my phone? Flies on my counter? Workers that get delayed running errands for me?

It must be odious to all of Heaven and surely not deserving of my prayers being answered. You see, in the Scriptures the Lord said, "God resists the proud but showers grace on the humble." James 4:6

Dear ones, if you are currently frustrated with a persistent problem that the Lord has not as yet given the grace to overcome, please - for the Love of God, check your attitude. Have you truly cried in thanksgiving for the things you take for granted daily? Are you grumpy and complaining about how you feel? These are open doors for the enemy and doors you've closed on God's favor. Please - repent as soon as you possibly can.

So that's basically what my thoughts were. And I asked Him. I said, 'Lord, have you anything to add?'

He began, "Thank you, Clare, for repenting and sharing this with My loving Brides. Thank you. It has become a blind spot in My Body, to the point where I hear only complaints about this or that when I listen to the hearts of My chosen ones. It is terribly degrading and disappointing when I come to visit them in love and they are all caught up in minor irritations.

"I think to Myself, 'If they were in Iraq right now, and had a scrap of food to eat, they would be overwhelmed in gratitude to be alive - let alone have something to eat.'

"I cannot even begin to tell you how widespread grumbling and complaining have become when I should be hearing constant thanksgiving and praise. They just don't see their lives as I do. They pick at nits while they live in air-conditioned palaces. Yet I visit those on the battlefield and they are crying tears of gratitude and relief that they found the loved one they were separated from.

"My Brides, there is SO much I want to impart and give to you, but you have closed the door on these gifts by not appreciating the ones you already have. You forget the victories of the past and how I helped you overcome or obtain something of vital importance to you. Now those things are taken for granted and you complain about what you don't have. I cannot shower new gifts on you when you've forgotten to give thanks for the old ones.

"For instance, why should I increase your ministry if you are not grateful for who I have already sent to you? Wasn't it just a few weeks ago that you only had 15 views on your channel and now you have 75? Are you are complaining, wanting more? Give thanks to Me continually for every blessing you can see, and the ones you can't see. Like the times you knew nothing about when I saved your life or the lives of your children.

"Gratitude is born of profound humility springing from the awareness of My greatness beside your littleness. Yet that I take the time to deliberately visit, talk and commit to being your deepest and best friend, loving you with an intensity and constancy no mere human can approach. I even entrust My Heart to you, share My concerns for My Body and the Earth with all its various cultures.

"Knowing that you are undeserving of such a blessing and coming to Me proceeded by thanksgiving and knowing you have used what I have given you, to the best of your ability, is the surest way to have your petition heard.

"Stay in gratefulness and praise continually, My Bride, until you're completely delivered from the very bad habit of complaining. I love you tenderly. Keep that tender love in your heart, awareness of it all the time. And that will help you overcome minor irritations that the enemy is using to close the doors on the blessings that are waiting for you. Give thanks."

While we are on the subject of gratitude, I want to say you are the most sensitive, loving, generous, kindest souls I have ever known. And I thank you from the bottom of my heart for being faithful to provide for our needs every month. Through you, I feel the kindness and love of my Jesus, always caring, always sharing, always praying.

Thank you so very, very much.

Anatomy of A Distraction Leading To Sin

June 29, 2017

Lord Jesus, thank you for the wonderful opportunities you give us to show our love for You. But please look upon our frail frames with patience and kindly help us return to and finish the things we avoid and want to walk away from. Amen.

Today, I observed something about myself. Two or three days I ago I started facing challenges and I suspect I was getting opposition. Things were not going as smoothly as I anticipated and I got a little frustrated.

As the day wore on I gave into busy work around the house with a helper that was here. I wandered to and fro making sure things were done right...and I became very dissipated. I also began to answer my e-mails. Long overdue.

As the evening wore on, this tendency to distraction and not taking the bull by the horns and putting a stop to it - avoidance behavior - continued. I went to bed two days in a row feeling defeated. Whether this was demonic or part of the challenges of living didn't matter. I was avoiding tackling the solution.

I didn't realize it until I started getting restless. And I looked on Amazon for something - very inexpensive but not an absolute necessity. My husband calls them 'play pretties' - an expression from his mother, who lives in the South.

Well, then I listened to the Ukrainian "X Factor" competitions (because I noticed something on the side when I went to look at a video of ours) and was really inspired by a young woman back in 2012 who had an extraordinary voice. I felt very much that the Lord was encouraging me through her example.

But... I ended up spending too much time there, as well.

Part of what I struggle with is set time for vocal practice, and the activity in the house is very distracting. And if I'm not absolutely watchful and disciplined forget it!

Getting on Amazon definitely was not the Lord and I started feeling very convicted. I felt the Lord further and further away because of my willfulness. I immediately dropped it. "The bait tastes sweet in the mouth but bitter in the stomach". It wasn't easy - the bait had set in my jaw and I continued to fight over this stupid thing. I started getting angry at the Lord...and my attitude was so sour I couldn't work or pray.

Chalk one off for the demons...

Finally, Father God and Jesus pulled me out of it, but not without a struggle. I think I spit the bait out, guys. I hope so, anyway.

Well, the Lord wanted me to share with you how the enemy sets the stage for distractions. You see, when you are frustrated with something you have to do, and you don't press in, you feel a certain emptiness inside. Then you look for other ways to fill that emptiness and the devils oblige you. Those things you know you should stay away from, because...well, they are of the flesh. Whether it's comfort food - for me it's Tiramisu. Or a trinket to wear from Amazon - it doesn't matter. It is something that increases your sense of satisfaction very temporarily. Then after you've indulged, the enemy comes in with the condemnation squad and hits you so hard, all the pleasure from that silly indulgence melts into a nasty pile of guilt.

Good job, devils.

What is the answer here? What do you do when you hit a wall of frustration? I think, go for a walk, play with the dog, do the dishes, help someone else - just for a few minutes - helps me to get my mind off the stumbling block. Then I come back and go to the Lord for strategies on how to get over this hurdle. That does work.

But it's not as satisfying - immediately - as Tiramisu...

Precious Heart Dwellers, beware of frustration that causes you to look for fulfillment somewhere else. If you hit a point where you just can't get through it, pick something healthy to get your mind off of it, so you can return with a fresh and rested perspective. And then go to the Lord, have a communion service and beg Him for an intervention to help you. Then go back to it and try again.

I have had to do this so many times with the painting, music, and other disciplines. But mostly ministry things - especially when you have to wait for a situation to mature before discernment can make heads or tails of it. The waiting period can be excruciating.

So I asked the Lord at this point, 'Do you have something to add?'

"Clare, when I give you something to do, you can be positive the grace to do it comes wrapped up in the bundle. You absolutely will be able to do it, even though it stretches you. I never ask anything of anyone they cannot do with My grace. My grace is like the invisible helper that somehow gets the job going smoothly and finished. Somehow, after all that struggle and frustration, all of a sudden - after thanksgiving accompanied by prayer - all of a sudden everything you were struggling with falls into place.

"The tendency when you reach a roadblock is to complain. Rather, you should say, 'Thank You, Lord, for this assignment. Could you please help me? I've hit a brick wall with this and I know you always equip us for Your assignments.'" This, plus a confession of your weakness and inability, move My Heart to give you the grace.

"The other way you can go is to give in to distractions, because you're facing a brick wall you don't have the confidence to tackle, even with My help. This might be expressed as 'I'm just tired tonight.' or 'I'll wait until it's very quiet in the house to do this.' Or, 'Tomorrow will be the perfect day to tackle it.' This is procrastination. And what this demon does is make a hole in your resolve, so it can fill it with something carnal that will temporarily make you feel good. Then the condemnation crew comes in to finish you off.

"So it looks like this: frustration, laziness under the guise of procrastination, dissatisfaction - with a vague sense of guilt lurking behind it. And finally, looking for a feel-good substitute to fill the big hole created by not accomplishing what you set out to do. Then the enemy offers you some little pleasure you really know better than to indulge in. You take the bait, feel good for maybe 15 minutes to an hour and then the guilt and condemnation squad moves in to finish you off. In that state you feel alienated from Me. So now to add insult to injury. You begin to avoid coming into prayer, because you can't bear to face Me.

"May I say, that is the worst thing you can do? By the way, I am right there by your side watching you take the bait and trying to get you to stop. But there is a peculiar form of deafness that sets in around that time to encourage you to avoid hearing My warnings. And by now, lust for that thing you wanted sets in and you truly are deaf and void of good judgment.

"My darling Bride, I know exactly what you are doing and why. Don't be ashamed to come to Me. That, by the way, is his underlying motive for all this in the first place. He wants to separate you from Me and drive a wedge in. So, please do not oblige him. Rather run to Me: 'Jesus I am wanting to do something I shouldn't. Please help me.'

"That's when I swing into action. I bring you a fresh Rhema. I hold you in my arms or play a song that expresses my very tender love and watchfulness over you to deliver you from evil. I assure you of My unconditional love. I will never leave you or forsake you, rather I hurt for you. I hurt that you have fallen for the enemy's tactics. I hurt because we were doing so well before you allowed this carnal distraction to take your mind off your frustration. I hurt because I know the consequences when the enemy comes in with the condemnation squad.

"And I even think, 'What if she falls for this and other distractions and never comes back to Me?'

"Do you know how profound that pain is? Yes, it is beyond your capacity to feel. It is like the death of a loved one, that threat alone is so very painful. Because this is how I lose people. Souls that were wonderfully close to Me but hit a brick wall and instead of coming to Me ran from Me into sin. And some never do return.

"Oh please, My Bride, do not be a victim of Satan's traps. Please, My loved one, turn back to Me no matter how ashamed you are. I am waiting for you. I have the solution and resolution to your problem. I have forgiveness and time to lavish on you to heal your wounds from swallowing the flashy bait adorned with hooks.

"Come to Me and I will remove it from your inner parts and restore to you the freedom you had in Me. And together we will work out the frustration with the problem, until it is history. Please, please. Don't be afraid to come to Me. I am standing right there waiting for you. My heart longs to heal, comfort, free and empower you. Don't delay. Come to Me, I am aching for you."
