1932-2010

Melvin John Clor, 78, Harbor Beach, passed away Friday, Nov. 5, 2010, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Port Huron.

He was born on Feb. 27, 1932 in Ruth, to the late Jacob and Josephine (Artman) Clor, and was baptized in to the Catholic faith at Ruth Sts. Peter and Paul Church. Melvin attended Hillside, Harbor Beach, and Our Lady of Lake Huron Schools. After graduating from eighth grade, he farmed on the family farm. He was also in business with his father for many years, buying and selling eggs from local area farmers. He worked at the Harbor Beach Community School as a bus driver and custodian from 1972 to 1997. On Oct. 19, 1968, he was united in marriage to Margaret Cardinal at St. Gregory the Great Church, Detroit. They recently celebrated their 42nd wedding anniversary.

He was a lifetime member of the Knights of Columbus, Ruth Council. He served his church as a member of the Our Lady of Lake Huron Parish Council, as a Eucharist Minister and an usher. During the time that OLLH High School was in operation, he served on the Athletic Board, and looked forward to driving team members to their various games on Friday nights. He enjoyed playing softball, square dancing, mowing lawn, playing euchre and watching the Tigers; but more than anything, he loved being a big brother, a husband, a father and a grandfather.

Surviving are his wife, Margaret, Harbor Beach; three daughters: Mary Alice (Jason) Clor-Miller, Grand Rapids, Megan Barbara Clor and Jack Scicluna, Westland, and Maureen Elizabeth (Steven) Corrion, Pigeon; three grandchildren: Abraham Clor Miller, Alexander John Corrion, and Henry Melvin Corrion. He is also survived by his sister: Ilene (Richard) Talaski, Marjorie (Mick) Schott; brothers-in-law Bud (Eleanor) Roggenbuck, and Edward (Reta) Cardinal; and sister-in-law, Barbara Cardinal, IHM; as well as several wonderful nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Geraldine Roggenbuck, and sister-in-law, Ruth Cardinal.

Funeral Mass for Melvin was celebrated on Tuesday, Nov. 9, 2010, in Our Lady of Lake Huron Catholic Church, with Fr. William Spencer officiating. Burial was in the Church Cemetery.
