

ETHICS AND THE ASSESSOR

The Institute of Assessing Officers, affiliated with the New York State Assessors Association, presents a one-day seminar at:

Clinton County Mental Health and Addictions Building Amphitheater, 130 Arizona Ave., Plattsburgh, NY 12903 (Directions below.)
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. (registration 8:30 a.m.), Friday, October 25, 2019

Instructor – Teri Ross, IAO

Ethics and the Assessor is being offered to help local assessing officials understand the ethical dilemmas they may encounter during the normal course of their workday. Participants will learn about the laws that address ethics, including conflicts of interest of municipal officers and employees, RPTL Sec. 336, statement of disclosure for assessors, freedom of information laws, and open meeting laws. There will be real life question and answer sessions that will be explored through group discussions. An ethics course is required for all assessors and county directors who were elected, appointed, or reappointed within the last year.

	<h3>Continuing Education Hours / Re-Certification Credits</h3> The Institute of Assessing Officers will award six (6) re-certification credits to all Institute members who attend this seminar. Eligible assessors and county directors who attend will receive education credit and reimbursement from ORPTS, pursuant to their rules.
