Legislative: About the same regarding the insurance issue.

Wally has bike raffle tickets. Get with him if you need some.

He also has a limited amount of Field meet tickets. Get them early..$15 for single, $25 for couple for the weekend. After May 31st there is no couple discount.

Bar clean up is tomorrow and road clean up is Thursday. If it rains we will do road cleanup on Tuesday the 14th. Meet at the old Spirit gas station.

Bike night is coming up next week and the product box will be done.

The Awareness Ride is the 18th. The route has yet to be decided but will be later tonight. Wally will have written directions and mileage at Kritters for those who want one prior to departure on the ride. Hope for great weather and a great turnout.

If you have any issues that need to go to the board, get with Wally and he will take your issues to the next Abate board meeting.

Our meetings will be held the 1st Thursday of the month for June, July and August. They will start at 6:00 pm

Wally and a few others went to a new awareness picnic organized by some 8th graders in Kalkaska. The students started this as one of their family members was hit while riding their motorcycle. Wally reports that they did a great job.

The annual ride to the Capital is June 5th. We will leave from Shirleys in Mancelona about 7:00 am. Anyone who wants to go come on...Its usually a fun ride and a good time.
