 Course Royal Troon (70.7 /132)
 Weather Sunny 60 Windy

A great weather day at Royal Troon - sunny, windy and 60 - the forecast for the 3 weeks leading up to our trip showed rain every day! Des Sinclair and Ron Emma tie for the win. The first 6 holes were into the wind and the rough was brutal - in some places 2 feet high just off the fairway. We all played better on the back with more favorable winds mostly at our backs. At the famous par 3 "The Postage Stamp" Mike Jeffries hits it to 15 inches and makes the only birdie of the day. Our guest Tony - missed the green right and ended up with a lost ball - hard to imagine on a 135 yard hole but the rough was that deep. In one of the funniest moments of the trip - Ron is practicing his chipping before the round and loses a ball in the rough near the practice green. This was an omen. Another great track that has hosted the Open Championship most recently in 2016 when Stenson outlasted Mickelson.
