

CAMP CAUDLE CODE OF CONDUCT

ALWAYS RESPECT THE OTHER PERSON'S PHYSICAL BOUNDARIES:

Our program is not a place for physical relationships of any kind:

- No kissing
- No sharing of shower or bathroom stalls
- Everyone sleeps in his/her own bed
- No hitting, kicking, slapping or punching
- No tickling or touching of private areas
- No touching of private areas (this includes slapping someone on the rear)
- No physically demeaning humor (snuggies/ wedgies, etc.)
- No walking about cabin without covering private areas (not even youth of same sex)

ALWAYS USE APPROPRIATE VERBAL COMMUNICATION:

- No lying
- No gossiping about other youth or staff
- No calling names of any kind (even jokingly)
- No talking about another's physical body
- No profane language or use of slang terms (homo, fag, etc.)
- No discussions of a sexual nature

WHILE OUR STAFF IS GIVEN THE SAME CODE OF CONDUCT ABOVE, THE FOLLOWING ARE SPECIFIC TO THEM:

- No youth is to be taken off by themselves
- Do not give individual gifts of a personal nature to youth
- Do not show favoritism to a particular youth
- (One-on-one) counseling or private conversation is to be done in a public setting.
(Seen but not necessarily heard)
- Hold other staff accountable

MINOR'S RIGHTS:

- To have privacy when in private areas (bathroom, shower, cabins)
- To tell someone when feeling uneasy about ANY situation
- To be treated with respect
- To be taken seriously

