

El Santuario de los Pobladores — Dedicated to the Mysteries of the Rosary

Our promise and dedication towards completing the Santuario in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe and the Mysteries of the Rosary perseveres and each day brings us closer to its completion. The plaques will have a significant placement in the Santuario courtyard as you enter. This phase will begin in the spring of 2024.

This is a picture of the completed mission statue of St. Augustine that has been moved to its permanent home at the Sanuario along with the Holy Family statue. The process for the next mission statue will begin as entire donations are complete for each figure. We have volunteers actively seeking contributions for the remaining missions of Ortiz, San Rafael, Las Mesitas, San Miguel, and San Antonio. In addition to the mission statues surrounding the Santuario and the statue of Our Lady Of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego at the entrance, walkways will lead visitors to various areas of interest. The placement of new trees will also be available to contributors who are interested in dedicating a tree in memory of a family member similar to what now exists on the New Veterans Boulevard entering the Village of Conejos. We want to acknowledge the generous contributions we have received to keep the project moving along and for the time and effort of Brian Knight & Al Abeyta Jr. for their craftsmanship with the display of memorial plaques. Your continued support and prayers are greatly appreciated. Tours will be available. Please call the church in advance, if possible. Thank You!

MASS THEME

Theme: The Need of Ongoing Reform
As long as you are in the process of growing, you are alive. As far as our physical condition is concerned, at a certain moment we feel that the process of decay has set in. True, we can slow it down by keeping ourselves in good shape, and a whole industry is even helping us to do so. But we cannot stop the process of getting old. It is different, however, with our growth as persons. We are most aware of our personal growth during the years of formation: students in school, engaged partners getting to know and love one another, religious during the novitiate. The key to a happy and meaningful life is to keep growing. Paul speaks of "maturing in Christ." This is a lifetime job. Lent is a time of paying renewed attention to our growth as persons. Am I approaching the design God has in mind for me? In the Liturgy we are confronted with Moses who experienced God in the desert, and the Lord Jesus speaking of reforming our lives. Reforming is not an instant happening. It is an ongoing process. Am I growing as a person?

FIRST READING Ex 3:1-8a, 13-15 [The Name of God]
In constantly reforming our lives, we must check where God fits into our set of values. The tradition found in this reading teaches that God is not far away. Moses experienced him in the situation of the desert. Last week the image of "a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch" was used to teach about God's presence. Today it is again fire that symbolizes God's close-ness. By using this imagery, the Old Testament teaches exactly the same thing that Paul taught in concise language: "In him [God] we live and move and have our being" (Acts 17:28). Moses experienced God as "One who cares," and during his life he grew in intimacy with God. An example to be followed! Meditate on God's closeness and care by reading the Responsorial Psalm.

SECOND READING 1 Cor 10:1-6, 10-12[Avoid Overconfidence]
Paul indicates how we should read the Bible. The sacred writers did not relate ancient traditions just to inform us. Neither does the Church want us to listen to them every three years in order to entertain us. The Bible is not a bedside story book! Inspired by God, the authors of the Bible want to teach us religious values by relating traditions of the past. In this passage, Paul refers to some events, as he knew them from the Old Testament (Gn 13; 14; 16; 17; Nm 14; 20), and observes: "These things happened as examples for us.... They have been written down as a warning to us." In reading the Bible, we should always try to find the point (God's word to us) and apply it prayerfully to our own situation.
