Biloxi, Bingo and Motel Hell

by N. L. Preston

You know you're staying at a bad motel when the mint on the pillow starts moving as you approach it.
—Ms. Know-It-All

August 15th is Relaxation Day and whew, my husband and I need this day in the worst way. We recently returned from a road trip to Robert's brother in Florida. We live in Ohio and have always enjoyed the long drive, but this trip turned out to be anything but relaxing. Our idea was a scenic drive, good food along the way, and decompression of our anxieties that have been building due to various issues. We forgot that irony and karma always catch up with you in the end because on the way down, we both laughed and joked about the stopped traffic on the other side of the freeway. Glad we're not on that side we said aloud to the universe; never a good thing to tempt fate. Our visit with brother Larry was fine and we even located a local bingo, New Port Richey Elks Lodge #2284. If you're in the area, check out their website for more details.

From there, Robert and I decided to drive to Biloxi instead of heading straight home. We love Biloxi, lots of casinos and bingo of which there are several good ones; two being Elks Lodge #606 on Biloxi Beach Blvd. and Gulfport Elks Lodge #978 on Klein Road. As we headed toward Biloxi, we were reminded that karma can be a bitch and she had her claws out for us on the rest of our trip. Around Pensacola as we drove toward Biloxi, traffic slowed to a crawl. We were on the wrong side of the freeway and thought about travelers on the other side laughing at us, which we had previously done, as they hightailed it down the highway. The endless road closures, detours, and construction took us hours to get around Pensacola, so we didn't find a motel until very late.

The motel into which we checked turned out to be Motel Hell with termite swarms, a filthy bathtub, and other nasty reasons to get back in our car and drive away. Of course, we found this out after checking in and being informed of their no refund policy. Old, confused, and worn out as we were, we bit the bullet and decided to not drive further that night. We were thankful that no bugs of any kind bit us back as we spent a few hours restlessly dozing, certainly not sleeping, before we returned to our car and sped out of there like bats out of hell with the devil lighting our behinds on fire.

As it turned out, we still had three more colossal traffic slowdowns around Chattanooga, Knoxville, and even our hometown in Ohio before we arrived safely home after twenty hours of misery. I guess the lesson we learned was to never taunt karma unless you're prepared to face her wrath. In that case, consider yourself warned. Until next month, may Lady Luck blow you kisses as you dance out the door with dollars. Win big. Reminder: National Senior Citizens Day is August 21. Be kind to old people, take them to dinner and to play bingo. Or if you can afford it, buy them plane tickets instead of allowing them to drive to destinations. It would be less worrisome for all concerned, trust me on that. Contact: nlpvzw6172@gmail.com

The Jackpot Gents

Steve and Matt Bourie are known as "The Jackpot Gents" on YouTube and Steve was the force behind The American Casino Guide for decades. On their channel, they demonstrate the long-term potential of strategic video poker play and as of June 9, the father-son duo were ahead just under $20K for the year. Their average bet is $25 and they run through approximately $2 million annually. Steve says, "When you're wagering approximately $2 million per year at $25 per hand, even small percentage advantages compound significantly over time. Our multi-year results prove that skilled video poker play can overcome the house edge." They came out ahead by just over $1,000 in 2023, then lost $7,770 in 2024. When analyzed against their total action, their loss rate for 2023 and 2024 combined was less than 1% and including their 2025 results, the Jackpot Gents are net winners after almost three years of daily video poker play. You can access the video that covers these results and check out the rest of the channel on YouTube.

High Rollers Not a Winner

"A master thief must pull off a dangerous casino heist when his nemesis kidnaps his lover. Caught between rival criminals and FBI pursuit, he risks all to save her and score big." That's the high concept of the plot of High Rollers, a new movie starring John Travolta, Gina Gershon, and Lukas Haas. It didn't look particularly promising in a preceding limited release in March and then a review came out with this intro paragraph: "High Rollers is a heart-slowng work of staggering stupidity and charmlessness, ineptly made and quite frankly dull, except when its flaws become so egregious you can't help but guffaw." It gets worse: "The air of tawdry cost-cutting pervades every level of the film, from the casting and costumes to the paste jewelry that's supposed to stand in for posh gemstones. There are tons of holes in the plot, but those are too tedious to parse." Ouch. The casino that has to be heisted is in New Orleans.

Indiana Pacers Make Betting History

ActionNetwork.com put together a number of interesting odds records to put the NBA Championship series into historical context. When the Indiana Pacers beat the New York Knicks in Game 6 of the Eastern Conference championship series, they became the team with the worst odds to make the Finals in the last 40 years at 66-1. Six teams have played in the Finals after being 30-1 or higher and all six have lost the series. Even more amazing, the Pacers entered the playoffs an 80-1 dog to take the title, the third worst odds of any team to make the final series since 1977.

Bingo News

Bingo: Surviving or Thriving?

According to a surprising new survey, the stereotype in your head of a typical bingo player probably needs a refresh. Bingo players with blue hair may also sport nose rings and tattoos. Milwaukee's Potawatomi Hotel & Casino survey claims 59% of bingo players are millennials. They're followed by Gen Xers (21%) and Gen Zers (14%) The baby boomer set came in last at 6%.

The survey, published on paysbig.com, a website operated by the tribal casino, found that fully 80% of those who play bingo regularly were under 41 years old. Yet almost half (45%) of its respondents still believed that bingo was an older persons' game. The website credits bingo phone apps—such as Bingo Blitz, Absolute Bingo, and Bingo at Home—with exposing the Justin Bieber set to the game beloved by their grandma.

Other surprising facts turned up by the survey included that more than 1 in 10 Americans plays bingo, and that those who do play it often. Almost one in 10 play daily, while 32% play weekly, 53% play monthly, and 6% play yearly. In addition, 12% of Americans began their bingo fascination while stuck home during the pandemic, and another 9% picked it up as recently as March 2022.

According to the casino, which offers bingo, it surveyed 1,000 Americans in August 2022 about their bingo and gambling opinions and habits. Respondents were 49% female, 49% male, and 2% transgender/non-binary. The age range was 18 to 84, with an average age of 38 years old.

In America, playing bingo for cash is only legal in churches for charity, in Nevada casinos, and in Indian casinos such as the Potawatomi.

While Casino.org could not find any stories corroborating the paysbig.com survey's conclusions about younger American generations embracing the game, they cited a recent story in The Holcad, the student newspaper of Westminster College in New Wilmington, Pa. It reported that bingo is sweeping the residence halls there following a resurgence during the pandemic shutdown.

Key Aspects of Bingo's Status in the US:

- * Large Player Base: The United States boasts a large number of bingo enthusiasts, with estimates indicating over 60 million annual participants.
- * Widespread Availability: Bingo is played in various settings, including dedicated bingo halls, community centers, casinos (in some states), and online platforms.
- * Social Aspect: Bingo is highly valued for its social component, allowing players to connect with friends and build communities.
- * Online Bingo Growth: Online bingo has seen significant growth in recent years, making the game accessible to a wider audience, including younger players.
- * Mobile Gaming: The rise of mobile devices and improved internet connectivity has made it easier for players to access online bingo games on smartphones and tablets, increasing accessibility and convenience.

Veterans Post

Keep Your Cash in Your Wallet

Besides the occasional “Thank you for your service,” there are any number of ways people and companies express gratitude for you having served your country, and for the sacrifices you made.

One of the biggest acknowledgments are the veteran discounts given by companies. .

For example:
If you’re old enough for AARP, join for a reduced price of just $11 per year with a five-year membership.

Look for big discounts on cellphone lines at T-Mobile, where you can get unlimited text, talk and data on four lines for only $25 per line per month.

Carhartt apparel offers a 15% discount either at their stores or online. Duluth Trading Company offers a 5% discount on their Duluth gear.

For vacations, there is a wide variety of discounts available. Hilton hotels offers a family discount, and Disney Resorts hotels offers discounts during selected blocks through the end of the year. You can find discounts on car rentals, theme parks, airfare and much more.

To find discounts that apply to you, search online for veteran discounts and the category you’re interested in. Get as detailed as you like in your search. Yes, you can get veteran discounts on televisions and appliances. Check Dish for their Stars & Stripes Pack. Check AutoZone or Advance Auto Parts for car parts. See Home Depot or Lowe’s for power tools. Stock up at Costco, Sam’s Club and BJ’s Wholesale Club.

Veteran discounts can be found in more places than you might imagine. Whenever you’re about to buy something, order something or go somewhere, ask if a veteran discount is available. While an individual discount might not seem like much, if you do this consistently, it will add up to significant cash that stays in your wallet.

Paw’s Corner

by Sam Mazzotta

DEAR PAWS: Several years ago, my family’s dog “Aker” passed away when his heart stopped. We were never sure why this happened, and I was just a kid. But I’ve always wondered if it was possible to perform CPR on a pet if this happens in the future. I adopted a puppy recently and I want to be able to help him whenever he’s hurt or injured. – Becca R. in Boulder, Colorado

DEAR BECCA: You can perform CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) on a pet whose heart has stopped — in fact, you can even get training on pet CPR and first aid through the Red Cross.

The process for pet CPR is very similar to that of human CPR. If a dog or cat becomes ill and collapses, you first check for breathing and heartbeat — look to see if their chest is moving, and place your hand on their chest to feel for a heartbeat. If there is no heartbeat or breathing, place the pet on their right side and perform chest compressions directly over their heart at a rate of 100-120 compressions per minute. Give rescue breaths every 30 compressions. Keep performing CPR until they begin to breathe on their own, or until you reach the emergency vet clinic.

Those instructions don’t reveal some key factors, like: What if a dog is barrel-chested? How do you give rescue breaths to a large dog? Pet CPR and first-aid training will answer those questions, and help you feel confident that you can provide immediate care for illness, shock or injury until your pet can get to the vet for advanced care.

Perfect Pasta

Dear Annie,
I need some new summer recipes. I am so bored with my current list of recipes. We especially like pasta. Thank you. — Marilyn from Melbourne, Florida

Dear Marilyn,
I have a great recipe for a “Summer Pasta with Vegetables.” My niece, Risa, gave it to me many years ago. Hope you enjoy it. —Annie

- SUMMER PASTA WITH VEGETABLES
4 ripe plum tomatoes, dried
3 tablespoons olive oil
½ teaspoon thyme (fresh, if possible)
2 tablespoons Italian parsley (fresh, if possible)
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ pound diced vegetables (anything in season)
½ pound angel hair pasta
¼ cup fresh Parmesan cheese, grated

In a large bowl, combine the tomatoes, oil, thyme, parsley, salt and pepper. Let stand. In a medium-sized saucepan, bring 1-inch of water to a boil. Add a pinch of salt and the vegetables. Steam until the vegetables are cooked. Drain all of the water out and temporarily put aside. Cook the pasta according to the package directions. Drain. Toss the pasta and the vegetables with the tomato mixture. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese and serve immediately. Serves 4.

Dear K.L.,
I’m still trying to figure out how a guy’s hairy legs could brush you when you’re sitting at a Bingo table. He has to have brushed your leg or knee or something, which would mean that you were wearing shorts or a skirt. This tells me that your Bingo hall must be warm, or you would be wearing long pants. And if you weren’t wearing long pants in a warm Bingo hall in summer, why the heck should a guy have to? My suggestion would be that you leave these poor, shorts-wearing guys alone and move to the middle of the table where they won’t bother you. Or stay where you are and wear one of those long muumuus to protect yourself! — Guy

Hair-Raising Situation?

Hi Guy,
Would you please do the Bingo world a favor and ask your male readers to please not wear shorts to Bingo? Twice this past month, I was sitting at Bingo minding my own business and some man walked past and his scratchy hairy legs brushed against me. Eyuk! OK, maybe it was my mistake to sit at the end of the table, but that is where I always sit. But really, I think men should only wear shorts at home anyway, not out in public. Thank you.

Horoscopes for August 2025

ARIES (MAR 21-APR 20): Carve out time to prioritize and schedule your intentions. Saturn in your sign now requires maturity and bringing to the fore the wisdom you’ve accrued. A lot will be asked of you in the years ahead. This preparatory phase will help you prepare for the adventure.
Lucky Days: 1 - 10
Lucky Numbers: 5 - 43

TAURUS (APR 21-MAY 21): Recruit new comrades into your circle, those that will promote your urge to turn everything upside down. If cornered in business matters, pause to reassess and rearrange terms. Contracts and commitments are up for review. Host a party for revolutionaries.
Lucky Days: 16 - 29
Lucky Numbers: 32 - 44

GEMINI (MAY 22-JUN 21): Your imagination is moving into a quiet phase in preparation for Uranus’ big-deal entry into your sign next month. Soon you’ll want to re-evaluate all the places and causes that you’ve made commitments to. If not working to improve them, you’ll be looking to discard them.
Lucky Days: 12 - 26
Lucky Numbers: 9 - 54

CANCER (JUN 22-JUL 22): Jupiter — the don’t fence me in planet—is transiting your sun now. There’s a necessity to sharpen your focus and forge a detailed, step-by-step approach towards goals and aims. Ask yourself what supports optimism most in your life, and then walk directly into enacting those realizations.
Lucky Days: 2 - 11
Lucky Numbers: 15 - 18

LEO (JUL 23-AUG 23): The word influence is based on ancient astrological principles. Namely, the ways in which the cosmos inspires and energizes our day-to-day lives. For the rest of the year, you need to study what influences you most. You’d be surprised what you’re susceptible to right now.

Lucky Days: 13 - 17
Lucky Numbers: 2 - 34

VIRGO (AUG 24-SEP 23): Now that Neptune is no longer opposing your sign, clarity and direct motion are much easier to achieve. A hidden side of your life is attempting to find ground. Imagine yourself as an advocate and freedom fighter. You shine brightest when helping others.
Lucky Days: 17 - 44
Lucky Numbers: 19 - 29

LIBRA (SEP 24-OCT 23): There’s a good chance you’ll find success with a project that’s confounded you throughout the first part of this year, but it will take careful strategizing. You’re an ace when it comes to charming others, apply that same diplomatic approach to those who hold the power that you covet.
Lucky Days: 7 - 20
Lucky Numbers: 7 - 20

SCORPIO (OCT 24-NOV 22): Time to fine tune your sensitivity and bring a lighter touch to your world. Yes, the extremes throughout the first part of the year were challenging, but you’re ready to apply the wisdom you’ve acquired in a balanced way. Cooperation is the key.
Lucky Days: 27 - 28
Lucky Numbers: 57 - 20

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 23-DEC 21): Plan to rework your schedule to devote more time to neglected businesses. Or ditch a few of the pots on your cook top. Streamline. Because you value freedom, you’re not one to create limitations, but conditions have reached a point where you want to establish and maintain boundaries.
Lucky Days: 10 - 20
Lucky Numbers: 7 - 36

CAPRICORN (DEC 22-JAN 20): If you’re following the rules and mandates of someone else, you’ll lose track of your inner guidance. You function best when a small amount of difficulty is part of the equation. You rise to the occasion and bring your best game when you find ways to surmount adversities for a new social scene
Lucky Days: 11 - 17
Lucky Numbers: 32 - 37

DEAR AUNT BINGO

by Bonnie Mitchell

Out of Line?

Dear Aunt Bingo,
I am 61 years old and disabled. My sister is 67 and also disabled and uses a walker. I have to use an oxygen tank to go to Bingo. At the Bingo we attend, they have a disabled line, but everybody is in this line. People with wheelchairs, canes, tanks and walkers who visibly have trouble walking shouldn't have to stand in line. That's why they have a disabled line. Why does management let anyone get served? Why do people with no disability go in this line? They have no compassion, and don't realize someday some of them will need this line for real. —Lawrence S., via e-mail

Dear Lawrence,
Part of the problem may be that it's hard for hall management to make on-the-spot decisions about who does, and does not, belong in the line for the disabled. Yes, it is easy to spot someone with an oxygen tank or walker, but someone with vision impairment or a hearing problem may also consider the disabled line for himself or herself, and such a disability is impossible for management to identify. And I suspect the last thing Bingo organizers want to do is argue with each person in the line about the degree of their disability.
One idea would be to have the Bingo Hall issue some kind of "pass" for players who truly need assistance. If you do not have a pass, you must use the regular line. However, I suspect this, too, would result in arguments from players that are determined not to be "disabled enough" for the special line.
I hope readers will write in and tell us how their hall handles lines and seating for their customers with disabilities as I am sure this issue must arise at other halls.
—Aunt Bingo

KOVELS

Antiques & Collecting

By Terry and Kim Kovel

Q: I have two newspapers containing research paperwork tracing their lineage. One is The Rebel, dated August 9, 1862. The other is The Daily Citizen (first edition?) dated July 2, 1863. It is printed on a green floral designed wallpaper. How do I tell if they are authentic?
A: Both of your newspapers have famously been copied and reprinted since the 19th century. The earliest copies were made as souvenirs for G.A.R. reunions. Later ones were made to observe the 50th and 100th anniversaries of the Civil War. The Daily Citizen was published by J.M. Swords in Vicksburg, Mississippi. During the Civil War, many publishers in the South ran out of newsprint, so Swords printed issues of The Daily Citizen on wallpaper. The July 2, 1863, edition has a note from the Union forces that captured Vicksburg, declaring "This is the last wall-paper edition" and "It will be valuable hereafter as a curiosity." It is extremely unlikely that your copies are originals. The LIBRARY of Congress has online guides to antique newspapers (<https://guides.loc.gov/noteworthy-newspaper-issues>), including these issues.

Now here's a tip!

by Jo Ann Derson

* When cooking meat, you have to take care. Here are two tips straight from my local butcher: First, let meats come to room temperature before cooking. It allows the meat to cook more evenly and you won't end up with a cold center and a burnt outside. Secondly, when your meat comes off the grill or out of the oven, give it time to rest before serving. This allows the juices to redistribute throughout the cut of meat, and you'll end up with juicy goodness in every bite.
* "Depending on how you scoop it, you can end up with too much or too little flour. Here is a tip about getting the best amount every time. Give the flour a stir with a spoon and then lightly spoon it into a measuring cup. When it is heaped over, use a knife to level out the measure without tamping down." — Y.E. in Arkansas
* "Baking is a science as well as an art. It's about interaction of ingredients and what happens when they mix in certain ways. So this is not so much a tip as a caution. Make sure of your substitutions, and use the right amounts of things. Then your cakes will be light and fluffy and your pastry will be flaky and moist." — B.G. in Pennsylvania

* When searing meat on a stovetop, be sure your pan is oiled (if called for) and at temperature. Otherwise, it'll stick.

Paying Off Credit Card Debt

Dear Savvy Senior, My husband and I, who are retired, have accumulated about $7,000 in credit card debt over the past few years and need some help paying it off. What can you tell us? —Living Underwater

Dear Living, I'm sorry to hear about your financial woes but know that you're not alone. Credit card debt has become a big problem in this country for millions of older Americans. According to a recent AARP report, 52 percent of adults ages 50 to 64 have credit card debt, along with 42 percent of those ages 65 to 74. Rising costs of basic expenses like food, housing, utilities and health care are the main culprits. But now, new tariffs on products made in China and other foreign countries will make many goods more expensive, which could make this problem worse. Of older adults carrying a balance, nearly half owe $5,000 or more, and nearly a third owe upwards of $10,000. While paying off credit card debt can feel overwhelming, it's doable with a solid plan and a bit of belt-tightening and persistence. Here are some strategies to help you tackle it. Create a Budget Start by taking a close look at your income and expenses to see where you can free up money to put toward your credit card debt. Also look for areas to reduce spending, such as dining out, entertainment or subscriptions. And see if you're eligible for any financial assistance programs (see BenefitsCheckUp.org) that can help boost your budget by paying for things like food, utilities, medicine and health care.

Call the Card Company While the average credit-card interest rate is more than 20 percent, some credit card companies may be willing to lower your interest rate or work out a payment plan, especially if you're struggling. It doesn't hurt to ask. Pay More Than the Minimum Credit card companies only require the minimum payment, but it's usually mostly interest. Try to pay more than the minimum every month to make a dent in the principal balance.

Choose a Repayment Strategy If you have more than one credit card, pick one and get serious about paying it off. Start with the card that carries the highest interest rate, or the one with the smallest balance. If you focus on paying off the card with the highest interest rate first, you'll pay less interest over time, saving yourself a lot of money. Once the highest-interest card is paid off, move to the next highest, and so on. Or you may want to start with the card with the smallest balance. Paying off smaller debts quickly can give you a sense of accomplishment and motivate you to keep going.

Consolidate Your Debt If you have multiple high-interest cards, look into consolidating your debt with a low-interest personal loan from your bank or credit union. Or consider moving your debts to a balance transfer credit card with 0 percent interest for an introductory period, which is usually 15, 18 or 21 months. This will eliminate the amount of interest you're paying temporarily. But be careful! Once the introductory promotion ends, the card company will charge interest on any remaining balance.

Consider a Debt Management Plan If you need more help, use a non-profit credit counseling agency (see NFCC.org) to create a debt management plan for you. At no cost, a counselor will go over your income and debts and determine what's workable. The counselor will then negotiate with your lenders, to get a payment plan that will lower your interest and monthly payments and maybe forgive some debt.

If you accept their negotiated offer, you'll start making one monthly payment to the counseling service, which will in turn pay the issuers. You'll likely pay the agency a small fee and give up the cards included in the plan, but over time you'll be able to pay off your debt.

THE POD REPORT

By Dana Block

Top-Charting True Crime

True crime is arguably the most popular podcast genre, but it's not everybody's cup of tea. Most people want a good mystery to feel like they're solving a case along with the detectives, leaving no stone unturned. Currently, these podcasts are captivating audiences week after week, according to the latest Apple Podcast charts:

What Happened to Holly Bobo?

— It's been 15 years since a young nursing student named Holly Bobo disappeared into the woods near her home in small-town Tennessee. Her brother, who was still in a fog from sleep, saw his sister with a man who he mistook for her boyfriend, but instead, he was actually witnessing a crime. Three men are currently in prison for her murder, but there have been accusations of coerced confessions by detectives. Tune in to this series and decide for yourself if the facts add up. Nevada Happenings

The Unwritten Rules of Vegas

Conde Nast Travelers has an informative and entertaining piece called 15 Unwritten Rules of Visiting Las Vegas, penned by a 10-year local. In the brief intro, she writes, “Las Vegas is a collection of contradictions. An oasis of hospitality; a labyrinthian casino. A poolside cabana; heatstroke on a sidewalk. A jackpot; an empty bank account. It’s the greatest night of your life; it’s the worst mistake you’ve ever made. Still, most people come here in search of the same thing: a good time.” She then goes on to recommend “how to navigate the secrets and myriad hustles of this strange and beautiful city.” Here are the 15 tips in order: respect the tipping culture; hydrate; don’t underestimate the walkability of the Strip; what happens here doesn’t necessarily stay here (“Cameras, security, and police are everywhere and in the harsh light of day, consequences”); get into nature; have a meal in Chinatown; get into the Arts District; don’t expect pool weather year round; the locals will correct you if you pronounce Nevada incorrectly; avoid mobile check-in; not everything is 24 hours; avoid fake cannabis dispensaries; use a nightclub promoter; for hard-to-get reservations, talk to a concierge; and you don’t have to do Vegas like a local—at least not the entire time.” The full article is available online but may be behind a paywall.

Free Pools at TopGolf

If you’re looking for a cool place to get wet, you probably wouldn’t think immediately of TopGolf, the driving-range attraction on Koval Lane just south of E. Harmon to the side of MGM Grand. But the aptly named Hideaway Pool there is open daily 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. (21 and older) and, believe it or not, it’s totally free. Show your ID and make a splash. The lockers are free, there’s a swim-up bar, and you can rent cabanas for $650 ($500 in F&B spend). Didn’t bring a swimsuit or want a new one? The shop sells them, along with sunscreen, goggles, flip flops, and more. Sounds fun.

Total Happy Hour at Ellis Island

With the property somewhat torn up during its remodel, Ellis Island is running a “Pardon Our Dust” special, with 50%-off anything on the menus at all restaurants, Mon.-Thurs. from 4 to 7 pm. This is a Top Ten-worthy special, if not for the short hours; expect crowds. Note that the steak special is not on the menu, so doesn’t get the discount. On the same days from 11 p.m. to 6 a.m., get pancakes for $4.99, a burger for $6.99, or steak & eggs for $8.99.

Hall of Excellence Opens

In the works for more than two years, the Hall of Excellence museum opened in June on the second floor of Fontainebleau. The display “honors some of the greatest moments in sports and entertainment history” and the backers include Tom Brady and sportscaster Jim Gray. The Hall is open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily and tickets are $35 adults, $20 ages 5-15, and $30 for seniors, locals, and military.

Zippy’s To Open Third Location

Zippy’s, the Hawaiian heartthrob restaurant chain, has two locations in Las Vegas, the only ones outside of Hawaii. Its first Vegas venue is near Rainbow Blvd. and the 215 Beltaway; the second opened in March on Hualapai Road near Tropicana Avenue. Now, a third location has been announced for Henderson at 9570 S. Eastern Ave., just north of St. Rose Parkway. The Henderson Zippy’s is slated to open “this fall.”
