

Jarvis, Judy J.

Judy J. Jarvis, 61, of Pigeon, died Wednesday afternoon, June 9, 2004, at Bay Medical Center from complications of renal failure. She was born June 7, 1943 at the home of her parents, the late Rudolf and Arleta (Roth) Forster in Elkton. Judy was a 1961 EPBP Laker High School graduate. She raised her family in the Elkton area and has lived in the area all her life. She was the co-owner of JuDen's in Pigeon for several years in the early and mid-90s. Most recently she was a health care aide at Home Sweet Home Retirement Manor in Pigeon but was forced to retire in 2001 because of her failing health. Her free time was filled with reading, knitting, sewing, and playing golf. She also spent much time loving and taking care of her family. Surviving are two sons, Darcy McCarty and his wife, Melissa, of Caseville, and Jeff McCarty and his wife, Christy, of Anchorage, Alaska; two grandchildren, Ashlee and Justin; three sisters, Betsy Farver and her husband, Bruce, and MaryJo Kosinski and her husband, Ed, both of Elkton, and Rhonda Matelski and her husband, Greg, of Bad Axe; and her brother, Kevin Forster and his wife, Peggy, of Caseville. A brother, Robert, preceded her in death. A funeral service will be conducted at 8 p.m. on Friday, June 11, 2004, at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton, with burial in Riverside Cemetery, Elkton. Visitation will be from 3 to 8 p.m. on Friday. Memorials may be given to the family. The guest book may be signed at www.cfcElkton.com.
