

March Wrapped in Love Notes

Happy almost Spring everyone! Let's hope the crocuses and daffodils can break through the snow and bring a promise of warmer weather and sunnier days! Most of us have had enough of winter and hopefully our shawls, scarves and lap blankets brought some cheer to 136 donor families. With only 3 weeks between packaging meetings, our number of projects completed was truly amazing! As always, thanks to all of our wonderful volunteers. We had a record showing of 11 volunteers for this month's meeting that helped send each shawl on its way.

I would like to remind everyone we only send scarves to men so please choose masculine colors. We have about 25% men to 75% women and are in need of mostly shawls. Lap blankets can be given to both, depending on color.

Below is a letter we received recently from a donor family:

"I would like to thank you for the time and consideration you took by knitting me this beautiful shawl. I miss George every single day - he was a wonderful man. What a wonderful way to honor him. Thank you once again with all my heart."

The heartfelt letters we receive make everything we do worthwhile and it could not happen without all of you!
